I am a wonderful stay at home mother of three. I am married to a wonderful man. I am loving my life.

I am so enjoying the telling of this story. My husband and I set a goal to make half a million in 30 days. We used “The Secret” to clarify our direction but we also simply put together a daily practice of getting excited about the money. We were to celebrate each day at 5:00 AM and right before going to bed. That was fun! Well, after the first 8 days of doing the exercise I purchased a lottery ticket and won the million dollar prize!! I was in shock but so happy that the Secret works...I have actually been doing this for years, using these principles, but never without the visual images used in the Secret that allowed me to really see graphically that I am the creator!!

I am in love with this lifestyle!!

Thanks

I first read the book about two months ago and shortly after got the DVD. I feel as though I have been awakened. Thank you so much to everyone involved. In the book/DVD it is suggested, start out with something small like a cup of coffee. I chose to manifest winning the lottery instead. Two different lotteries as a matter of fact. Because I knew and believed that size is irrelevant. I am now a multi-millionaire and a two time jackpot winner. I truly am in control of my life. Thank you a million times over. Life is a dream come true. Bless you all.

Single, Mother of three.

At the beginning of this year I decided that I wanted to throw my daughter a Sweet Sixteen Party. All was going well until about a week ago, and I noticed that I really didn't have enough money in the bank to do all the things I needed to do to make the party a success. Well, during my meditation one afternoon I focused on the party and when I finished meditating I said, "Universe I want at least $1,500 no later than June 19th". My daughters party is the 21st. So I played my daughters birthday on the lottery and last night I won $5,000. Thank you universe.

I'm a 16 year-old and I've read The Secret, and I thought it was so amazing. It didn't last long before I started to use The Secret in all areas of my life. The biggest challenge I had was when 3 months ago all of my friends took a Disneyworld vacation trip. Well I really couldn't afford this, so I came to The Secret. It was less than one month before the trip and I got the five thousand dollars by using the universal bank check.. i won a little prize in the lottery and I know that it was because I believed. I am a 52 year old widow who works full time just making it from payday to payday with nothing extra.

I received The Secret DVD about 3 weeks ago. I purchased it from a seller on ebay and did not know anything about it but was curious as the seller mentioned all the hype about this on the Oprah Winfrey show. I was astounded when I saw the movie as I always told people I believed in the power of positive thinking being a major factor in healing yourself of a serious illness. Although I seriously believe this statement, I have never practiced it in my own life as far as money, health and personal relationship.

After watching the movie, I started to imagine winning the lottery and rolling around in a pile of money. Boy was I surprised about 3 weeks later when one day I received a long distance phone call from the Atlantic Lottery Corporation advising me I had won $777 on their second chance lottery. It was not my windfall I was hoping for, but it is a start! People, ... never lose the faith. If it can happen to me, it can happen to anyone. I am living proof.

My name is Wesley and I am 40 years old. I live in Los Angeles and I work in the field of permanent cosmetics. I have always worked hard and struggled, but, since being introduced to The Secret, things are starting to change!

On March 3, I celebrated my 40th birthday. My mom had a beautiful, catered party for me and invited all of our family and friends. Sera, a close friend of my mom's, and someone who took care of me as a child, gave me the DVD and audio book of “The Secret”. I had heard a little bit about it, but never had much of an interest. She advised me to watch the DVD and listen to the cd's in my car.

The next day I watched the DVD and was really intrigued. Over the course of the next three months I listened to the cd's every day in my car until I could recite almost every word. About four weeks ago, I asked the universe for $3,000 to $5,000 extra income within the next 25 days. I said thank you for the money hundreds of times a day. I filled out the check from the universe and put it on my desk. I wrote $3,000 in my checkbook register as if I already had received the money. On the 20th day I purchased a lottery ticket scratcher and won exactly $5,000. I found out the odds of buying that ticket were 4.2 million to 1. The Secret has changed my life. Thank you!

I am very grateful, I am a son, brother, husband, and father. I am a blue collar worker and not afraid to get my hands dirty.

I was given The Secret DVD and watched it with my 17 year old son. It has changed the way I look at the world.

I entered a work lottery pool some time ago. It was an ongoing pool and I was far off from winning. I needed to have a certain number, number 40, come up 10 times for me to win. There were two others who had 9 of their numbers and were only waiting for one last number. I not only thought about winning, I told the person running the pool he would be counting out the money in my hand.

Sure enough I was the sole winner. I came back from having only 6 numbers to winning. I have been passing along the law of attraction, and I believe.

This story is not about myself - it is about what I read in the Enquirer magazine, and what caught my eye.

In September of last year I bought the Enquirer magazine, and in it was a story about a lottery jackpot winner. I know you all may have heard about the 'blue dot' that gives anyone who possessed it an incredible will of good luck. Well, this 63 year old lady bought this lottery ticket in the state of California and won a $60 million jackpot. This is what she said: "I always rub my lottery tickets on the Blue Dot, and read the self-help book "The Secret", and stay positive."

All I can say is wow.

EUROPE

19 year old

Man, finally! Finally I get it!

I'm 19 years old and I just won 1 million Euros! It's amazing, but deep inside I knew it was going to happen. I started intending 1 million Euros to come into my life about a month ago. And now, it just really happened.

I was visualizing that 1 million Euros was coming into my life, and just kept saying: I'm rich, I've got enough money, etc. After 5 days or something it became my habitual way of thinking and this was fun to do. In my mind I was really living a life with 1 million Euros, and I saw myself buying everything I want, driving the car I want, and just doing what I want to do.

At a certain point I knew for sure it was going to happen, nothing could go wrong. I just knew it...

The only thing I did after that was ask the universe for some guidance to the money. So one day I woke up and I just thought, hee, why not play the damn lottery 😊 I'm telling you, I had a crazy feeling when I was buying a lottery ticket. With the first couple of tickets I'd won nothing, but I KNEW it was going to happen, so I just kept playing. And of course, you guessed it, I was looking on the internet site of the lottery and my numbers matched the numbers of 1 million Euros I intended! Inside I was screaming yes, yes, yes, thank you! But I kept it really cool because I knew it was going to happen, hahaha. It was great!

Thank you Rhonda,
Love you

The Secret Worked For Me

I am single and have a 21 year old son.

I bought The Secret in April of this year, both the book and the movie. I read the book about 3 times and watched the movie a couple of times. And I thought, "I wonder if it really works"? So I thought about it off and on, and I tried to watch what I was thinking, and to think only good thoughts, but I didn't put a lot of effort into it.

Then I decided to really give it a try. I visualized finding a one dollar coin when I walked my dog. I saw myself finding it on the ground, it looking all shiny, and me picking it up and feeling the weight of it in my hand. And every day when I would walk my dog I would think of this one dollar coin. Well, this one morning I was walking my dog, and I found a FIVE DOLLAR BILL. I was very excited and thanked the Universe over and over again.

Then one day a few weeks later I was thinking about The Secret again. I love to play slot machines, so I thought I would like to have 5000 dollars to pay off some bills. So I went to the casino and first I won a 1000+ jackpot. Then I won a 6000+ jackpot. And then I won 2 other jackpots adding up to 2300+. I couldn't believe it.

So the other day I decided I would go to the slots again. I was thinking something good has to happen again soon. I was feeling a bit down. Then I thought to myself, "Only good thoughts, Karen, only good thoughts." I thought, I could use 3000 dollars for bills again. Ok, I am only going in with less than 200 hundred dollars, and once that is gone I am going to go home.

I was there for less than 45 minutes when I won my first jackpot for 250. Then I won one for 400+, and then I won one for 4600+, and then another one for 1300. I was very excited and thanked the Universe over and over again.

So yes everybody, THE SECRET WORKS!!!

Now I am looking towards the lottery. I know I will be back to let you know when that happens.

VIENNA

I am a young actress, 26 years of age, born and raised in Vienna, Austria.

Dear friend,

I received “The Secret” book by mail about 4 weeks ago. It was sent to me by a dear friend I haven’t seen for more than 3 years. I am writing this because I want to thank you for sharing your knowledge on The Secret with me. Now I realize that everything before understanding the law of attraction wasn’t living at all. I was somehow drifting through life without any control of what was going to happen tomorrow. Now, thanks to you, I am reborn at 26 years of age. In control of every moment of my life!

I am a young actress living in Vienna. 2 years ago I received my master degree in Art. And since that time I simply couldn’t find an acting job! Nothing! I started believing that although acting and singing was my life, I would never make a living out of it, because I didn’t know the right people... because I simply didn’t have the means, the money, the connections, the famous last name, etc. I KNEW that I would never meet the few great people in the business, because there are only a few of them, and how am I supposed to have that much luck to ever meet them????!!

A couple of days ago I started believing. I read the book once, then twice, and I immediately started changing all of my thoughts into positive ones. Which turned out to be a lot of work! I never thought that I would turn out to be such a negatively thinking person!!! Suddenly I realized that almost ALL of my thoughts during each day ended with a “stamp-thought”: ‘That’s all just a big wish.’ ‘I will never make it.’ ‘I don’t have that much luck.’

Just imagine what has happened already a COUPLE of days after reading The Secret. Suddenly I have so many auditions, castings, people who want to get to know me, work with me. It’s a marvel what has happened a FEW TINY LITTLE DAYS after reading the book!!! Everything has changed and keeps changing.

I also started seeing myself in all the beautiful places of the world – in St. Tropez, walking on the beach, driving expensive cars (I love Lamborghinis!). Since I haven’t had a vacation for over 2 years, I decided to take this time off right now, to forget the physical world around me, to make time for reading The Secret on and on, and to spend as much time on visualizing my “real” life I deserve so much. I told myself I would have the time of my life, now. Right now.

I must say, that I found myself in perfect conditions to fully dedicate myself to all my wishes. My parents left Vienna for about 5 weeks, so there was nobody distracting me from my thoughts. Immediately I made my “pinboards of magic” (as described in The Secret). On top of them I wrote: “This is my NOW” and made two of them. I put beautiful pictures of St. Tropez on them, the picture of my new dream flat, my dream car the yellow Lamborghini Murcielago LP 640, etc. Everything I wanted. I made two of them, because I put one in the kitchen and one in the bedroom, so I could see my wishes all the time, no matter where I would be during the day.

And here’s the magic: Today, only 4 weeks after reading the first line of The Secret, I have changed from an unhappy young person still living with her conflict-laden parents, doing small jobs she hated, to a millionaire (yes!!! I have just won the lottery yesterday!! 1.2 Million Euros!!!!!!), enjoying every single second of life in a beautiful new flat in Vienna.

I don’t know how to express my gratitude to you. You have created the most brilliant book of the world. I keep reading The Secret every day – when I wake up, during the day, before going to sleep, and it fills me with so much strength and belief. Now I know who is in charge of my life.

Thank you with all my heart.

The biggest dream in my life...

The first time I heard about The Secret was from my sister. She asked me about The Secret, which I didn't know anything about at that time. I bought The Secret in early 2008, and finished reading it in just a week's time. I also visited this website and read a lot of other people's stories about financial problems.

I agree that there is something in this universe that rule all the living things. I believe this is what we call GOD. We only need to ask for what we want to have in our live and everything we ask for will be given to us.

My first Secret experience was for having a portable hard drive. I was thinking to buy myself one and unpredictably my nephew bought a new laptop with a gift of a portable hard drive which he didn't need because the laptop came with a big hard drive space. At the time I mentioned that I wanted to buy a hard drive, and he gave me his. By that I knew The Secret worked for me.

The second time was that I won a lottery in Malaysia for about $2000.

After that I kept on dreaming to have a better life. I followed the suggestion of writing all the dreams I wanted in a piece of paper. I wrote about 6 dreams I want to have in this coming future, and guess what, 3 out of 6 had been fulfilled.

I wish I have a delivery car. ==done==

I wish to have the biggest helmet shop in town. ==done==

I wish to become helmet distributor. ==done, even better==

All of these dreams came true in just one year from the time I learned about The Secret.

Thank you Father.... <-- These are the words I always keep saying every time I gratitude for my beautiful life. Thank you Rhonda and all the people who share this Secret with me.

I was the sort of person who believed that rich people were people who were born into a rich family, but once I decided to apply the law of attraction into my life, everything changed. I started to receive money from everywhere I went, and today a whole transformation came into my life – I just won the lottery, now I am one of the riches too. I didn't come from a rich family or anything like that, but I am really one of the riches because I was focusing on what I really wanted, which was to BECOME RICH AND PROSPEROUS.

I am very happy and I must thank of you for that, thank you very much guys.

I started reading The Secret 2 years ago, but first let me tell you a little about my life.

I work in a factory in what everyone calls the rust belt of the United States, Michigan. I have worked for this furniture company for 29 years, and most of that time has been good, but in the last 10 years the economy and world has changed. I am sure anyone who works in manufacturing can attest to this. But it has gotten worse for most of us.

Almost 2 years ago my wife left me. We struggled! I have 2 children, and she had 3. I went through a lot of depression to say the least. I tried medications to calm my anxiety and help me sleep, but I can not handle medications that alter my thoughts. I wanted control of my emotions. So I quit the medications. This is just who I am, it's not for everybody though. I cried at night...a lot! And I bought a copy of The Secret.

My wife had owned the book before she had left, and I remembered seeing it so I purchased it for myself. What an eye opener after reading it! I have started to change my way of thinking, and forgive myself and others and look for the positive side of everything which isn't always easy. It is very hard work. It can be so easy to blame everything around us. But my life has changed. I still love my wife, but I do not own her in any way. She needed to find her happiness. But my life has changed.

At first I struggled. NO MONEY! But I knew that would change, with faith and trust. So I prayed a lot for a miracle. Nothing happened for along time. I began to think that I asked for too much? So I just concentrated on financial abundance. And then things got worse financially. But I kept my faith and prayed harder; at work, and home. Every second of the day I would daydream of spending money. I picked out my dream home. I bookmarked it on the website and looked at it every day. I also read books by Robert Collier which are just great! And I just love Neale Donald Walsh's books. I read and re-read them always.

So I concentrated on my happiness and financial abundance. And finally when I thought that nothing would work out for me....I hit on a lottery ticket! I won over $300,000.00. I still am in shock but I am so thankful for The Secret, and to Neale, and for Mr. Collier for the hope and inspiration.

So I say, “make a wish” believe in it, have faith like a mountain! Pray, be thankful and smile and love the response you get. Then move on to your next blessing. Thankyou.

It happened the very next day!

I'm a high school student, I am 17 years old and I absolutely believe in the Law of Attraction, and it has changed my life.

I saw the movie about 6 months ago for the first time, and I read the book after that. I truly believed in The Secret, because before I even knew about it I'd seen miracles happen, and I had known those couldn't just be coincidences.

So, I wanted to try it out, just to see what happens. One day I just imagined I had won the lottery. I saw myself holding the certain amount of money in my hands. I imagined people's faces when I tell them good news. I truly believed I would win.. I visualised the money, I felt the feeling I would feel when I win...

The very next day, I bought scratch card. I felt good, very good. I even saw the store I was gonna buy it in. And guess what happened? Not only did I win the amount I expected, I won even more!!!!

And then I thought to myself, if I truly believe in anything, and if anything is 100% certain- it's the Law of Attraction. I am very very thankful I've been given an opportunity to read The Secret. THANK YOU.

When I was young, my mother took me to a fortune teller. The blind old man told me, when I grow up, I'll travel abroad so frequently and easily as I walk to my own kitchen, and I'll earn a lot of money the "normal way", without luck on lottery or lucky draw.

Both turned out to be right. My work requires a lot of business trips abroad, and I never won anything significant in any sort of lucky draw.

It's only after I read "The Secret", that I understood I was 'cheated' to believe that I have no luck on the lottery. Guess what!? I decided to change that.

I began to visualize a 'video' in my mind: I was sitting beside my husband when somebody told us that we had just won the first prize! I was so thrilled and happy that I squeezed my husband's hand so hard that he shouted at me. Well, after repeating this "video" for several months, I won the first prize in a lucky draw — an air ticket worth $550!

Do you think yourself with no luck in lucky draw? Think again!

Thank you, Rhonda, for sharing The Secret, and thank you everybody who shared their stories on this website!

I'm not the type that is keen towards lottery and stuff, but I wanted to test how obedient the LOA is as I was facing some financial difficulties at the same time. Gosh! Trust my words, it really happened. At first, I won RM20 lottery. Where for every RM1, I get RM4. Then I realise it's my fault that I only wanted to win a small lottery, so this time I posted RM 3000,000.00 (FIRST PRIZE).

Time passed by, and things seemed no different, but I kept telling myself that since it is kind of a big amount of money, the Universe needs time for shipping. ITS ON THE WAY TO ME. In fact, I keep the lottery ticket in a special envelope called the "magical envelope" – I named it so. I filled the empty column at the back of the ticket as though I'm going to collect the money and return it.

A WEEK AGO MY IMAGINATION OF JUMPING IN HAPPINESS CAME TRUE. It was really like a dream. I KEPT pinching my arm again and again. IT'S REAL. I WON THE LOTTERY OF 300,000. I know I didn't win as much as 3 million but it's good enough. I'M HAPPY AND THANKFUL! THANK YOU RHONDA... THANK YOU GOD, THANK YOU UNIVERSE.

Single professional mom of two wonderful boys. I enjoy reading, watching TV, and learning as much as I can about The Secret and all its teachings and in turn using them in my day to day life, to change my path into a meaningful one.

I have been reading The Secret and doing meditations for about a week, and was practicing what it was teaching me on a daily basis.

I was sitting outside with my neighbour on a beautiful hot summer day. She mentioned she was going to bingo that evening and I said if I could find someone to watch my son I would go with her. Her brother said he would watch my son so that I could go.

I went in to make the dinner with my son and told him that I was going to bingo that evening and that the next door neighbour's brother would be watching him. My son asked if I won, could he get some lego, and I told him that I had already won it and he already had his lego, that he had to believe and think positive and it would become a reality.

I went to bingo that evening and I won £500.00. I was so delighted about the win and could not wait to get home to share the news with my son. When I arrived home I asked him did he truly believe that he had the lego, and he said yes, and when I said that I had won his eyes became as wide as saucers. He said, "Thinking positive really worked." I am delighted that this happened because in the process I am passing on to him that if he believes in something and has faith that he already has it then he will live an abundant life.

The next day I took him out to buy his lego, and I sent some of the money to my son in University, and the rest I put in the bank.

I have also been playing the lottery and have not had a win all year, and when I checked my tickets the day after the win at bingo I had won on them also £24.

The wins have given me some tangible proof that if I apply all the principles and teachings of The Secret then I can have anything I want. I want the abundance in my life and believe that I already have a lot to be grateful for, and will continue on my life's journey so that I may make changes to my world for the better, for myself and for my family.

A guy that is blessed by the Universe

I was channel surfing one day, a year and a half ago, and I chanced upon Oprah on TV. It was the episode on "The Secret." I remember that I was very fascinated by the teachings. But for some reason I was not able to remember the title of the DVD.

A few months later, one friend passed me "The Secret" book. At that time, it didn't register that it was the title that I have been trying to recall. I started reading and it all came back to me. This is the book that I have been searching for! It was so amazing. I instantly took it as a sign that I am destined to read this book and make a positive difference in my life.

I read the book slowly as I wanted to digest all the goodness and at the same time practicing to be aware of my feelings. I made a conscious effort to use Law of Attraction to align with my dreams/desire.

From then on, my whole life has changed. I struck lottery; 1st prize no less. With the prize money, I traveled to countries that I wanted to go but could not really afford previously.

Tokyo was one of the cities I traveled to. I visited a friend who recently moved to the city. She told me that her company was hiring and encouraged me to apply. I took her advice and viola! Here I am, living in this vibrant city and working for an amazing company. I feel like I am reborn. New life, new environment, new friends, new language, new experiences etc. I LOVE IT!

I love myself for creating and harmonizing positive thoughts/feelings. I love the Universe for taking care of the “how”s and making things happen.

Thank You Rhonda for sharing this incredible secret.

Hello everybody, ☺

I just came to know about The Secret a month ago, and since then am a great, great fan of it. All day long all I do is just use THE SECRET! It is the best thing that ever happened to me in my life. I used it many times and it works every single time!

This time I thought of using it BIG! I asked the universe for 30000 Rupees in a single day. I had played the lottery many times but had never won, not even a single time. This time I was sure I was gonna come back with Rs. 30,000. This belief was strong. I already knew that buying the ticket was just a formality.

I went and bought the tickets and when my turn came, one by one, I was drawing nearer and nearer to 30,000. For the last time I invested the most, and I not only won 30,000, but 37,000 Rupees! And believe me, my age is just 17.

I have already visualised what I am going to do with all the money. Thanks a ton to RHONDA and its TEAM! God bless you all. I love my life. 😊

Just a happy guy with lots of love to give

I read The Secret about 3 years ago, when at a time of great pain and confusion, a friend recommended it to me. At the same time I began playing an online lottery that cost $1 a day with the chance to win a grand prize of $21,000.

Approximately two years later I started using white out on my bank statements and writing in that figure of $21,000. Within one month of doing that and repeating to myself “money comes plenty and often” I won.

I remember how I got an email from the lottery commission that said to contact them. I went ahead and kept getting ready for work. I remember being in the fridge looking for milk for my morning cereal and knowing “I won, I bet I won”. So I went to work, sat at my desk and checked my numbers, 5/5!!” Coincidence? I think not.

Now I am aiming bigger. Next I will win millions so that I can see all the things and places I want to see. Take the people I love to see the things they want to see. Take the love of my life around the world. Give back to my community; retire my parents. Give love and you shall receive everything you want.

The LOA works, it really does. I love all you who read this, believe!

I decided to win and I did it!

A person who is discovering the LOA's power

Some months ago I received a gift from my son`s father, it was The Secret book. He told me that it was going to change my life and I read it. I can only say that I was completely impressed with that book that I decided to watch the film and also waited for the new book The Power. I felt in-love with the LOA. Since that moment I have tried to live with a good attitude for everything, but a couple of months ago I had some troubles and started to get more and more bad things coming to my life.

A week ago I felt sick and spent a lot of money that I did not have for the medical treatment. I used my credit card for it and I spent some days thinking about this debt and how I was going to pay it in the next two weeks. Then yesterday I saw my books and thought about the LOA again. I said to myself: “What are you doing with The Secret? You are in a wrong frequency and that has to change right now”. So I went to my bed thinking positively and being grateful for all I have and said to the universe: “Tomorrow I will have the money for paying my credit card”... thank God!

Today in the morning I repeated it and shared it with my babysitter. We were watching the TV, waiting for the lottery and I said with faith: “It is 01” (my number). And what do you think? It was 01 the winner.... I won the exactly amount of my debt.

I almost could not believe it, but it is true and now I know that this really works.

My life is going to be different because I know The Secret to get what I want.

Thank you very much Rhonda!

Early in 2010 I decided it would be fantastic to win a luxury car. I regularly purchase tickets in local charity lotteries and on one occasion I pinned the picture of the prize cars to my fridge and superimposed my face in the driver's seat. I kept this on my fridge for 2 or 3 months and used to tell friends that I was going to win that car.

After a while I took the picture down (I didn't win that lottery) and forgot about it. About 6 months later I received a phone call from the Lifesaver's Lottery here in Queensland to tell me I had won first prize in a special VIP draw – I didn't even know I had been entered as tickets were automatic. Guess what first prize was? A $75,000 BMW!

Six Weeks That Changed My Life

I am 28 years old and live with my fiancée in the heart of rural England. I am a creative writer by profession but it hasn't always been that way.

I grew up in a very working class family. I always excelled at school but still had it drummed into me that I shouldn't get my hopes up and that good things only came to the lucky ones and the well to do. So it would come as no surprise to those of us that know The Secret that once I left school I went to work in a factory, where I stayed for nine long years. It was hot, sweaty, and smelly, and the people I worked with were generally aggressive and unpleasant, and every day I was working there I hated it a little bit more.

Naturally I tried everything I could to get out and to better myself. I had always dreamed of being a professional writer. So I researched courses to train as a creative writer. However, being surrounded by people constantly complaining that the pay was rubbish and you could barely afford to live led me to believe that I couldn't afford the tuition fees. And guess what? I couldn't!

I also had a passion for radio and often dreamed of working at a radio station. However each and every time I sent off my CV to a radio station I got the same reply; that I wasn't qualified and had no experience.

For nine long years I ground it out on a factory production line, hating my job and feeling terrible for not being able to do anything about it.

And then, three years ago, I was given a copy of The Secret book and DVD. Over a weekend I read the book cover to cover and the following Monday I went into work, determined to put The Secret into practice. The change was both dramatic and immediate. The first thing I noticed was that I had a much more positive outlook. Every time I felt affronted by a colleague I checked my emotions and turned my thoughts to something more positive. I focused on all the good things that had happened in my day. Naturally I had to try really hard, as I was putting handles on buckets for eight hours, but nonetheless I still found things to be happy about and that day I went home in a really good mood for the first time since I care to remember.

When I got home my partner told me that we had no money left and had to ask her mother to lend us twenty pounds to last until payday later that week. I saw this as my chance to prove to myself that The Secret really does work. Without thinking I told her that she didn't have to borrow the money and that I had twenty pounds at work that I could bring home. That night I went to bed and pictured the twenty pound note. I imagined myself holding it in my hand and just so that I'd know when I received it that it was MY twenty pound note, I gave it the number 500 written on it in blue marker. I had no idea how I was going to get this money, but I knew with absolute faith that I already had it in my hand.

The following day I went to work with the same air of positivity, and just before lunchtime the head of HR came downstairs and told me that I had won second place in the work lottery. The prize was twenty pounds, and sure enough, when I took the money out of the envelope, there was number 500 scrawled in blue marker across the face of the note. An alarm went off in my mind and I knew that I could make this work for me.

I started to actively use The Secret to better my career. Every night when I went to bed I imagined myself getting a phone call from my new employer telling me that I had the job. I experienced for myself the thrill and excitement of receiving this news, and on more than one occasion I actually cried tears of joy.

Over the next week I made sure that I was happy at work and that every day in the car on the way home I was satisfied with the job I had done that day and looked forward to the next day, knowing that the universe would return it to me for real. For seven days nothing happened, until I got a phone call from a friend telling me that she'd heard an advert on the radio saying that the station was looking for somebody to write the adverts, a job that combined my two greatest ambitions in life. I wasted no time and filled out the online application form. The next stage of the application was to write three advertising campaigns. I couldn't believe it. By this point they hadn't even asked to see my CV or qualifications! And now I had a really useful tool for using The Secret. While I was working on my sample scripts I was able to imagine that I was doing it for real and that this was my real job, and it felt great.

I passed the first interview and got down to the final three candidates. I was so excited because I KNEW that this was happening because of The Secret. Throughout the interview process I constantly kept imagining myself getting THAT phone call until it finally came. And the phone call was EXACTLY how I had imagined it.

Within six weeks of learning The Secret I had gone from a dead end job with no prospects to doing the one thing that I have wanted my whole life.

And it didn't stop there. By applying The Secret I have gone from strength to strength and I am now the head of creative for a group of stations. I have also been a prolific creative writer in my spare time, writing short stories and articles. I'm currently working on a novel and I know it will get published because I've seen the front cover in my mind and held the novel in my hands.

BEAUTIFUL BREATHTAKING PLANET EARTH

Dear all,

I am very proud to add another little story to the phenomenal truth of mankind shown to us by many famous people and explained to us by Rhonda and her team. Thank you for opening our eyes and to help to see and understand better what it really is that surrounds us.

Everyday I learn a bit more about the signs the universe send me. It is like learning a new language. It needs some practice to figure out how the secret works but now I've realized what it is really all about. It is to be precise in what I want and when I want it and to BELIEVE. The believing part was the most challenging one for me BUT the key to letting my dream come true.

I wanted to open up a house to support artists and needed 3 million euros in order to buy the house and to set up my business. I knew that the house which was on the market was the ideal place for the business I wanted to set up but it was quite expensive. So I decided to get a ticket for the lottery to win the 3 million euro. At first it did not work out for me because I was very skeptical and I did not win anything. But I knew that this was my way to get the money. I played the lottery for around 5 months and nothing happened. In June it was the time I realized that I had to turn around the way I thought about winning the money. So I focused on having won the 3 million already while getting the ticket for the lottery. I knew that the next draw is for me. I just believed and knew that I have won 3 million that day and I was jumping up and down in excitement and thankfulness about having won the money I wanted. It was a high feeling and my eyes filled with water while thinking of the money. It was the best moment in my life. It felt real.

The next morning I got up, checked my emails and I could hardly breathe for a moment. I saw an email from the lottery company stating the lottery win of 3 million!!

I thank the universe for its effectiveness. Its extraordinary fast way of delivering what I want when I do BELIEVE in it.

College student and loving life because of The Secret.

Well this is my story.

A few months ago I had my summer finals and I was lazy, nervous, negative and kept thinking “I’m going to fail, there’s no way I can pass these exams!” and I got my results a few weeks later and yes....I failed 7 out of 12 exams. I was absolutely devastated and so were my parents. All summer all I could think about was that I have 7 exams to repeat and there’s no way I’m going to pass them all and on top of it all my mother said, “I won’t pay for your fees if you don’t pass the repeats.”

I had read The Secret and also had the dvd, so during my stage of feeling sorry myself, I decided to watch The Secret and become more positive again.

After I watched it I was so happy and so grateful for everything I have. Every night I would visualise myself passing my exams and progressing to the following year.

Passing 7 repeats was unheard of but I just kept saying in my mind, "There's a first time for everything and I can make a difference". Before and after each exam I would say "I am so happy and grateful that I passed all my exams and that I have money to pay for my fees".

Well 3 weeks after repeating my exams, the results came out. I keep saying "There's no point being nervous because I have already passed". I checked my results and there it was....I had passed all 7 exams. I felt like breaking down and crying because I was so happy. Not only had I passed my exams but in the same week I won 10,000 in a lottery ticket and I was able to pay for my college fees.

Now I'm in third year and I'm just a ball of positivity, I'm making new friends, I'm not worried about money and I'm studying hard....all thanks to The Secret.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!!

I'm 48, married & a mother of 3. Eternal believer. Living by the Law of Attraction.

I have had a dream board for years. Something I've had on my dream board was a picture of a black Corvette.

In 2005 my husband, oldest son and I attended a car show and I was able to drive a new Corvette on a track. I then knew what it felt like to drive a Corvette. Over the next few years, whenever I saw a Vette I would say "there I am" and actually felt myself driving it. Time after time again.

On March 20th 2012 I won 56 thousand dollars in a lottery. I then purchased my Corvette that in my mind I had driven many times before. I asked, believed and received. I am grateful.

I'm 20, self employed, own my own tattoo parlor, clothing line and marketing businesses.

Hi, my name is Santanna Freeman, I'm 20 years old and this is my story... So I've always been really big on The Law of Attraction, thinking positive and 'you are what you think'. Well one day I came across The Secret, I watched it about three times and from that GOOD things came my way. After a while I fell off and started thinking negative again and bad things started to come my way. But recently I purchased The Secret at a book store (the DVD) and watched it that next morning. After that I watched it five more times in a row and it changed my life... I then swore to myself I would never let my negative thoughts get to me again.

So here's where my "Positive thinking" kicked in.... at that time I was broke but I had just got done reading a story on here of a guy who thought of himself as a "Money Magnet", so I then too started to think of myself as that. I then put an ad up on Craigslist to sell a pair of shoes.... the next morning I got 23 emails of people that were interested in the shoes I was selling. I then made $245 that day just from selling these shoes. Then I was low on gas, about to break down and I was going to put five dollars in my gas tank. I pulled up to pump 11 and found $30 crumpled up in a ball next to my left back tire. Then what happened to me next almost made me cry in joy... I played my favorite scratch-off lottery ticket and won $3,000. I was so amazed I couldn't even speak.

Then after all that, a guy I knew emailed me a job opportunity for MCA (Motors Club of America). It was basically like Triple AAA except you get service benefits and there's a referral program that if you sign people up you get $80 a person. I signed up right away and started making massive income. My first week of signing people up just by internet marketing I made over $3,000 in extra income.

So that right there is how The Secret and The Law of Attraction has changed my life for the best. Thank you!!!! God bless!!!

MADRID, SPAIN

My name is Arthur U. I was born in Dominican Republic but grew up in Madrid, Spain. I have 26 years and I'm studying political science, is my freshman year.

Right now I'm still crying from happiness.

I don't know how to start to describe this wonderful event. I bought the book The Magic by Rhonda Byrne in November 2012, but it was not until the first week of December when I started reading it. I should mention that two years ago I read The Secret and The Power, but soon I forgot what I've learned reading these great books and returned to my daily routine of negative thoughts and complaining about everything.

On December 25th, 2012, I read the day 17 – The Magic Cheque. Then I wrote down the exact amount that I wanted to have, 26 million euros. Everyday when I opened my eyes, I began the day giving thanks for the money that I have received, I visualized myself jumping, crying, smiling of happiness. In my visualization I could see myself shouting thanks, thanks, thanks and feeling joy wholeheartedly. I had many economic problems just even before to start reading The Magic. I have thought to give my career, political science, up because I had no money to pay for the second semester. We had not enough to eat, everything was going from bad to worse, the debts of my credit cards, I was about to loose my car because I couldn't pay car loan, loans for college, I have had to pay 25.000 euros for all my debts. But I stopped thinking about my financial problems when I started reading The Magic, and began to give and feel gratitude for everything I had, and the things I wanted before this happened. I really started to feel real love and gratitude about my life.

Today is 2nd of January, 2013 and I must say that there is no better gift to start the new year with 27 million in your bank account, one million more!! And how did it happen? A few days ago I felt a great urge to buy a lottery ticket, I told myself, “You’re crazy” but something pushed me to go and buy a lottery ticket, and even I could feel like a masculine and sweet voice was whispering to me the exact numbers the I had to select. A few days later I have had forgotten that I had bought a lottery ticket, I introduced it in the first pages of the book The Magic and when I was about to read the “Day 26 – Magically Transform Mistakes Into Blessings”, the lottery ticket fell into my lap, I took it and felt a strong sense of peace, immediately I turned my computer on, It was amazing because four days ago the numbers I had selected were the right numbers. I could not believe it, I threw myself to the ground to mourn as a child, and I thanked jumped for joy yelled THANK GOD, THANK YOU RHONDA BYRNE, The Magic works! I already have the money in my bank account.

Thanks because my first wish of my list is fulfilled the other nine are being fulfilled one after another. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you, because I can continue studying Political Science the career of my dream, thank you because this money is blessing many people, thank you because through the law of attraction I am attracting divine guidance on how to administer my money.

This really works, there is a divine power that is able to fulfill our dreams in the most unexpected way.

Rhonda Byrne God bless you, God bless you, thanks, thanks, thanks, thanks from the bottom of my heart.

For quite some time I had dealt with depression, a feeling of “woe is me”, so to speak. It seemed that financially, whenever I would try to get out of debt, something would always come out.

I was able to view both the book of The Secret and The Secret movie. I started to change my thinking to that of abundance. I would say to myself, “I am a wealth magnet, money comes to me easily and frequently”. I printed the check off the website, and thanked God for already having that money ever day. I went online, made plans to purchase a new car and a new home.

This continued for months.

I recently just won the lottery and it is all in part to believing that my positive thoughts have power and knowing that God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

After many times of going back and forth on if I should post my story or not, mainly because I knew how long it would be, I finally decided to do it! It's my way of saying thank you to all of the others who have posted stories that have inspired me and kept me going. I also want to start off by saying thank you to the entire Team of The Secret, because it has changed my life!

My story with the The Secret, (Law of Attraction) started 2 years ago. I was sitting around thinking about how I wanted to have more control over my life when I remembered how I saw a show on different lottery winners, and how one woman had attracted a lottery win through positive thinking. Well I forgot about it, but low and behold (the universe in action) that exact episode came on a week later and I watched it. I was intrigued, but not convinced, so I again left it alone. However, later that week I was attracted to a show that I usually don't watch. This show was a new kitchen give away, and when the contractors/designers came to the winner's house he had "I Am A Winner" written on posted notes all over his house. That got my attention, and I decided to Google positive thinking, which brought me to law of attraction and to The Secret.

Young girl living her dream.

Hello,

I would like to share my story.

When I was 14 years old, I didn't even know about The Secret but I visualized that I am standing in Long Beach, California and watching the sea and beach. I downloaded a Google screen shot and put it to my laptop wallpaper. And I truly believed that one day I will be standing in that place.

Four years later, I had my birthday and I got a language course to take where ever I wanted as a gift.

Of course I chose Long Beach, so I was there, at the very same place I had dreamed about, watching the same view like as on that picture.

I finally realized that that dream had come true a year later!

Another story:

I wanted to travel a lot, so I just told myself that I will win a lottery. I bought a ticket, wrote the jackpot amount on my mirror and believed that I have this money.

And guess what?

I won!

So I would like to thank Rhonda and universe for these miracles and tell everybody to never lose hope and truly believe in your dreams.

A Radically Delicious Story

I'm a Personal Performance and Business Coach for one of the best coaching companies on the planet! I am living a radically delicious life!

On December 7th 2012 I went to see one of the most amazing films called “People Vs The State of Illusion.” It’s a new film that’s circulating around the United States right now in various cities, and basically centers around the principle that you create your own reality and that perception is everything. I strongly recommend watching it because it seriously made a huge difference to me. I chose to see it because my favorite neuroscientist, Dr. Joe Dispenza from “What the Bleep Do We Know” posted it on his Facebook page. (Dr. Dispenza is also in the film). So now I’ll get to the chunk of my story.

About a month prior to watching this film I had constantly gotten excited about it. I talked about it, posted on FB about it, looked at short clips about it on Youtube and could not wait to go see it! I had built up so much excitement and joy around it! I had not realized that what I was actually doing was imbuing my subconscious with all of this joy and excitement about this fabulous movie. If you are versed in how the law of attraction works then you know that it is all about imbuing your subconscious with good emotions and thoughts on any subject in order to get what you want manifested in reality.

So, after watching the film there was a drawing to WIN IT in DVD form! When I first showed up to watch the film and filled something out with my name on it I had not realized that I was actually filling out a drawing form for the DVD. I thought it was only a drawing for an online coaching package by the maker of the film, which I was not really interested in since I’m actually a coach professionally, but filled it out anyways thinking that if I won maybe I could give the online coaching package away to someone who could not pay for an actual coach. So now back to the drawing...

While the maker of the film was reaching his hand in to pick a name I remember my own thoughts being something like, “I would like to win, but there’s just so many people here that I’m not sure I’ll win, but it would be cool if I did, but if I don’t then I guess I’ll just have to buy the DVD for what they are selling it ($30).” This was my conscious mind thinking thoughts that didn’t serve me, but it didn’t matter! Yessss, my name was actually drawn from about 40 names in a basket! I WON even with my doubtful thoughts! And then something even more crazy happened. The film maker then drew again and this time it was for the online coaching package. Yep, you guessed it, my name was chosen AGAIN! The film maker was so SHOCKED and said, “Well, there’s no such thing as “coincidence” so I will also give you the online coaching package and choose another name so I can give someone else a chance at winning a coaching package.”

The reason why I feel my story is so cool is because my subconscious mind had been so imbued with awesome positive thoughts about the film that I had fed to it for so long that it did NOT matter that my conscious mind at that one simple single moment of the drawing was doubtful about winning.

The thoughts and emotions that are deep inside of your subconscious mind are FAR more powerful than your conscious mind!!! This is how it really works: You keep on using your conscious mind to produce good thoughts, which create AWESOME emotions. You keep on practicing good feeling thoughts and emotions. Then, all of these good thoughts and emotions eventually become subconscious (WOOHOOO!) I use “eventually” lightly and am not suggesting any specific time frame of when something will become subconscious. (That’s a whole other conversation). Anyways, in my case with the film, I had no plan of creating anything specific. I was just so excited about it that I naturally won it because I had just developed so many good thoughts and emotions around it. But of course if you have plans of creating something specific with something you desire then of course that will work too if you just create awesome feelings and emotions around what you want.

I just want you to know that all you have to do is make the vibration of what you want EXTREMELY powerful, and that little baby doubtful thoughts do NOT MATTER if your vibration of what you want is off the hook powerful like mine was! The baby doubtful thoughts don't carry as much weight when you have an illuminating powerful vibration. Most people freak out if they have even one little doubtful or fearful thought, but you should not do that! Yes, be mindful about what you think, but don't freak out about it. If you have been feeding your subconscious mind great, positive and amazing thoughts then it will definitely override any puny doubtful thoughts you might have. This was such a great realization of mine to have. I had NEVER THOUGHT of it this way before.

I hope you got something out of my story. Whatever you constantly feed the subconscious mind (good or bad), it will override the conscious mind (good or bad). Now I know why lottery winners tend to win multiple times, wealth is just imbued deeper and deeper into their subconscious. I believe that I now too can win even bigger things. The amount of people in that room had NOTHING to do with me winning TWICE, my VIBRATION was the KEY FACTOR in my winnings! Mmm...now I'm up for the game of winning a brand new laptop! I think of life as this fun awesome game that we are players in. We are creators in this game of life! Happy manifesting and creating!

All my life I dreamed of creating a better life for myself and the people around me. I dreamed of the biggest things possible and wanted the best things money could buy. I also dreamed of helping the world so much and I always wished great things for the world and I always thought of how I could contribute myself to society in a way that would change the lives of millions of peoples.

I had these dreams before The Secret, before I realized my power. So you could only imagine what my reaction was when I discovered The Secret. I felt like God had given me the world. I felt that everything around me had stopped and God was only concentrating on making my life the best. I felt alive and enriched with love and I knew my life would have endless meaning and possibilities.

Fast forward to now.

I JUST found out that I WON the lottery!! Something that I visualized and felt for months. After reading and learning about Cynthia Stafford and how she had used the power of her right mind to achieve this huge life changing dream, I was inspired by her and saw this dream for myself. I decided that I would win the lottery in 2014. That dream has come true, guys!

I can't say how much or when and where for privacy reasons, but that doesn't matter as anyone reading this can make their dreams come true. Remember to the universe big or small is nothing. The universe does everything with zero effort. Just put your goal into the universe and believe. Remember the kind of work that you have to do is different for all of us. Not all of us have to go to work early in the morning to make our goals come true, so think differently.

Have an amazing life!!!!

A happy man! A tech graduate.

Hello to everyone!

First I want to thank everyone from The Secret team for sharing everything they know about this marvelous truth that has been kept for ages.

Let me start my story when I was introduced to The Secret properly, way back 2008. It was my older cousin who told me to watch the video and after that it had blown me away. But, I was not able to practice it properly.

I know that I knew The Secret unconsciously. I remembered that when I was kid I dreamed of getting a new pair of rubber shoes and a jacket and visualized the exact color of the shoes and the jacket even, it's design. But then, I forgot about it. A few weeks later I got the very same ones that I wanted, see?

I knew that the same law of LOA has been applied because it manifested right in front of my eyes. But then I kept doubting about it because of my analytical way of thinking. Slowly I started to forget everything about The Secret.

Then sadly, I came into a situation where I lost everything. My wife left me with my son, I lost my job and everything is in turmoil. My relatives tried to help me but I pushed them away. I just wanted to end everything. I was hopeless.

I tried to commit suicide. But before I jump of the bridge to end everything I started thinking about the past and remembered The Secret video clip telling me to focus on the person I loved and not worry too much about everything else. I then picked myself up and started to practice it.

But boy, it was not that easy. I tested it and failed, then succeeded for a couple of times but failed again. I told myself that it was working but not all the time. I think, I am doing something wrong.

So I decided to research about it once more. I watched the videos on the internet and tried watching it a couple of times. I also watched some of the members who created The Secret film any way possible.

Then, I bought The Power book and read everything then practiced what I learned and everything went into place.

I have my wife back and I was able to get the job that I like!!

Since then everything is still falling to its place. I started applying The Secret in attracting abundance in my life.

And guess what?

I did it through gratitude! See, it is kinda challenging for me and to be honest it takes a lot of practice, but the result, o gosh!!!.

I won 2 times in a national lottery. My wife and I are very happy! I shared The Secret with her.

So guys, nothing is impossible to the universe. Just believe it, expect it to happen and don't forget to say thank you every time. Do not think about the HOW, think about the WHY.

I am sharing this experience to everybody out there! Guys and Gals! Friends! Co-believers and Filipinos out there! Keep believing!

Finally I Attracted A Huge Sum Of Money!

I am a happy and true believer of the Law of Attraction!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you Ms. Rhonda and to Ms. Xiauxue on the first introduction to The Secret!

I first came to know of gratitude to money through a blog of a very famous blogger by the name of Xiauxue! She mentioned in her blog to be grateful to money and she showed how she folded her dollar note into a heart shape and to which she wrote across it "Thank you for the abundance of money I have been given throughout my life."

I was so intrigued by her post that I immediately Googled The Secret. That was in April 2013 when I realized that I had been so negative and I had actually attracted my loss of marriage by thoughts! I was shocked that all those negative happenings in my life was attracted by my negative thinkings. I started to change my thoughts and actions and that was when I started to attract goodness into my life little by little.

I attracted lottery winnings in July 2013 a few months after my gratitude and thankfulness. I won the amount of $10,000 followed by $8,000 just a week after.

I was overwhelmed by this and which further confirmed to me that my thoughts create things! I started to use this Law of Attraction in my life in every aspect. There were many hiccups too, I must admit as I am still human and emotions are really a huge part of life. I remember telling myself “Cancel, Cancel” whenever any negative thoughts appeared in my mind. I don’t know if that works but I know that in order to have positive thoughts, these negative thoughts cannot appear.

All these months of practice and finally I attracted a huge sum of money to me.

I won $500,000 in the lottery!

I hope that by writing this story, I can help those who are still wondering if LOA works. LOA really works! It works in every aspect of our life. Today I am just writing about my money aspect but I have actually experienced LOA in my love life many times over.

I would like to express my greatest gratitude to Ms Rhonda for her story and The Secret and to Ms. Xiaxue for her introduction in her blog!

A happy fire-cracker always looking at the bright side.

So I've always been super positive and happy so when I read all the Rhonda books it all made even more sense.

My life was wonderful I was living in my dream city everything was fallen into place and I could taste the victory already. Besides that I was working super hard to make sure I reach my goals.

I received the news that my mom had a stroke. My mom and I are super close she is my soul mate and my best friend, my whole world fell apart. I couldn't bear the thought of losing my mom. I flew back to my home country and my heart was crushed when I saw my mom sick in the hospital. She was also very sad and concerned because she is the only provider of my family, she supports and pays for my brother and myself while we are studying. We had no savings, we were living paycheck by paycheck. Since she couldn't work for a few months we had no money. I was so upset and sad.

Then I read Hero and I realised that I was facing the "supreme ordeal" which is the final challenge you need to face to reach your dream. This final challenge is the biggest one and it seems like a death sentence to your dream. This gave me strength to face the fear of losing my mom, which was my biggest fear since childhood.

I started seeing the positive side and realised that at least my mom was resting and not overworking and this was a sign to look somewhere else for money until my dream came true. I had a perfect idea, I was gonna win the second prize of the lottery!!! The amount was 279000 which was more than enough to support all of my family until I finished uni. I visualised I believed and I was relaxed and happy knowing money would never be a problem again and I could focus on my dream and studies and most important my mom would never had to work again if she didn't want to. I had tears of happiness every time I visualised. I told my best friend that I was gonna pay for a trip for both of us to New York to celebrate. I did all these plans of what I was gonna do with the money.

So after the third try I WON!!!!!! The prize money varies every week but that week it was exactly 279000, I'm so happy I faced my biggest fear and my mom is also leaving the hospital in one week.

Life is wonderful never give up!!

Powersoul that realised my true self.

Dear Rhonda and team,

You helped me realise and believe in the power of me. Thank you so much from my heart for helping me to remember what was always there and in all of us.

My story starts with wanting a particular job and after being redundant, I was persistent and kept thinking 'something' will turn up.

I applied The Secret without knowing by just focusing on a job in that industry. I went for jobs I didn't like. I remember a guy I was training with say how he worked in the industry and I said out loud how I'd love to do what he did right now.

Within 2 weeks I got a call for an interview. They offered me the role and I even asked for a certain salary and got it ! Within 2 years I progressed to the same role that guy had!

I then went on to attract a specific role when I came across The Secret in 2010. In Jan 2012 I was in it with the routine and daily life I wanted!

I then asked for what I thought were my dreams, but I felt within me I still had some learning from 'work' to complete, but I didn't acknowledge it.

Now 3 years later and a process of going through some hardships, I genuinely look at them and feel gratitude for them and the people involved as I realised my true self.

Michael Jackson's 'Keep the Faith' really helped, too!

I realised at the same time as I contemplated everything with gratitude, what it was I really wanted and would love:

10% Tithing.

10% to my Mum for everything!

10% to family & friends.

3.5% for my sister.

16.5% for my dream home.

50% to give back in my own personal way all around the world to humanity, animals and world environments.

If you haven't guessed already, I won a lottery jackpot!

I have my perfect home, car and financial abundance and security, my family are also financially secure and happy and I get to live out my dreams which revolve around giving back and seeing the world!

I love you God, thank you!

I love you Universe, thank you!

I love you Angels, thank you!

When you know what you truly want and who you are inside, apply gratitude and love to your way of thinking and acting and that opens the door to your dreams!

I found out in the most beautiful way, on a sunny day and felt like I was most blessed, loved, protected and happy even BEFORE I realised I won!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

Despite anything, focus, believe and always think and act with love and gratitude! It will become so natural and then just every little thing is joy to you! Making so much feel so sweet !

Wishing all the realisation and manifestation of your great power!

A very spiritual, life loving girl.

Firstly, I would like to thank Rhonda Byrne and her team for this beautiful gift to the world. This knowledge has brought so much joy to us and the stories posted here inspire me every day. I am living the life of my dreams ever since I learned of The Secret in 2006.

I used the LOA on and off over the years and have manifested my dream home, my car, my job, travels and everything I want in life.

I somehow lost my way about 2 years back and I was so negative. I now know what happened in that time was a result of my negativity.

I lost my job when my company closed down and I had no prospects of another job. I decided to use the LOA to make myself a millionaire lottery winner.

It was such a long and challenging process for me and I often wondered what I did wrong when it seemed like others get their winnings so easily. In the 2 years I studied LOA books like Abraham Hicks, the Sedona Method, Dr Joseph Murphy and all of Rhonda's books. I prayed, did my affirmations, learned to meditate and found joy within myself. I am a much different person and I am kinder and loving to all people. I have grown spiritually and I saw that as a welcome result of seeking financial abundance. I had also used vision boards, wrote on my gratitude journals, listed things I would buy and people to help with the money.

To be honest the financial situation was getting worse and at times I would feel anxiety attacks. I kept strong and believed that this works and God's timing is perfect. I would play the lottery when big draws were coming up. I rarely won anything but I felt this was, for me, the only way I would be financially free.

Guess what??

Today I finally won! I feel so grateful, happy and relieved. I knew that I was going to write my story here one day and so the first thing I wanted to do was to submit it and inspire others. Keep believing, find joy within yourself, act as if you have received what you desire and let go.

I am taking out my lists and I am off to celebrate with my loved ones. I always dreamed to improving my family's quality of life and now I can do that.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! I love you all.

Attracting Everything I Want.

I attracted into my life a lottery win and a beautiful home in 2015. Here's how I did it.

I was going through mild depression after giving birth to my second baby. My boyfriend and I were not working out and I hadn't worked in a year. I was single, broke, and lonely.

I learned about The Secret from my mother several years ago but never concentrated long enough to see positive results. This time around I decided I was going to attract everything I want with no limits. Go big, or go home!

I since started concentrating on where I want to live and imagined the neighborhood I wanted to live in. I found the perfect house in the perfect neighborhood. I took a virtual tour of the house and immediately started assigning bedrooms and planning parties as if I had the keys in my hand. Why not? I want the house, so it will be mine.

I started a vision board with everything that I wanted for me and my kids. I visioned winning the lottery, moving into my dream house, and driving my dream car. I told myself repeatedly it was already mine, I'm just waiting for my dreams to manifest.

Manifest they did.

I won the lottery this year and just closed on my dream home!

I can't believe it!

I have everything thing I wanted just by focusing on my desires.

I hope this story inspires you to reach for your dreams too.

God bless

Two Greatest Dreams Came True

CANADA

I was a single parent for twenty years. I was always worried about money. I never traveled anywhere, nor was I a homeowner. One of my greatest desires and promises to myself was that one day I would travel to the UK. I'd never left North America, and I wanted my first trip abroad to be to London. I also wanted to be a homeowner, and I wanted to feel a sense of financial comfort and ease in my life. But for many years, I saw no way that any of these things would ever happen for me.

Then I came across The Secret. I loved it because it inspired me and gave me hope that I could improve my situation once and for all. I also bought The Power and then The Magic, and I began focusing on what I loved and practicing gratitude every single day.

I really wanted to saturate my body, mind, and spirit with love, gratitude, and the belief that I could improve my life. Something in me knew that repetition was the key. Just keep reading those books, keep practicing gratitude, keep watching those videos, keep strengthening my belief.

It worked. It still brings me to tears sometimes when I think about just how well it worked for me.

Over time, I increased the intensity of my gratitude and visualization exercises. I began doing my exercises twice a day – first thing when I woke up every morning and last thing before I fell asleep every night – for thirty days straight.

The result? Within six months, the following amazing improvements happened in my life:

My son graduated from university, found the job he wanted, and moved into his own home. What a wonderful reward to see him so healthy, happy, and successful in his own life.

My annual income from my job increased by $30,000.

I also earned some extra money through my sideline home business.

I was approved for a mortgage, bought myself a brand-new condo with many luxuries, including safe and secure underground parking, and moved in.

I booked myself a trip to London and Paris using a credit card and knowing I could pay it off within six months because of my increase in income.

I gave my son all my old furniture and was easily able to afford new furniture for my new condo to be financed over three years.

I bought myself a new Jeep, to be financed over six years.

Then my mother won $1.15 million in a casino lottery in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan! She generously shared part of her winnings with her children, which allowed me to pay off all my debt, including the trip to London and Paris, the new Jeep, the new furniture, everything! Except for my mortgage, I was completely debt-free; I had savings put away and even more spending money at my disposal.

Not only did my mother win the casino lottery, but amazingly, two months later, my uncle (who happens to be my godfather) won $1.4 million in a separate casino lottery in Medicine Hat, Alberta!

On top of all that, I decided to take a long-desired trip to New York City.

Not only did every wish I had for myself come true, but even better, I got to see my son and my mom enjoy success and joy in their own lives. God, that felt good!

My life continues to be so fulfilling. I continue to earn a great living and travel. I continue to have a wonderful relationship with my son and watch him have success in his own life. It's wonderful.

I'm so grateful to you, Rhonda. You have helped me to change my life for the better. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

The Secret and The Magic changed my life. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

The Secret works!

I am 29 and started your book last year and introduced by my friend. It's changed my way of thinking. I have a visualization board on my bedroom wall which I see every morning. I say thank you instantly as soon as wake now, even if some days I don't feel that inner gratitude. I still say thank you from the ability to open my eyes and see to the house and that I have my health, etc.

After Christmas 2015 I decided to do the cheque. I told all the lads at work I will win the health lottery Â£100,000. But for the cheque I wrote Â£10,000.

I said thank you and I looked at every chance I could at this cheque and knew it would arrive.

So on 22nd May 2015 I went on to win the lottery of Â£10,000!!!

I'm so grateful for this but more importantly, The Secret book coming into my life and making me realize there is no limit.

My first thing I thought when I realized I won this money was I need to do something for the lady who sold me that ticket in the supermarket. So I got her name off the receipt and got her a massive bunch of flowers, some champagne and a big box chocolates. That right there was how grateful my gratitude is.

When you learn and understand, the more whatever you desire in your life will come.

Yep I did say Â£100,000, but the thing is, I know I will win it or get it somehow. There ain't no doubt in my mind. It's on order and there is no rush because I know it's on it's way.

Just a massive thank you, thank you, thank you for changing my life. I tell everyone about your book The Secret and my favorite one; The Magic.

Thank you again and look forward to my next message with the Â£100,000, thank you and enjoy!

Dream Home!

BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA

I am 28 years old and live in Prince George, British Columbia, Canada. I am a stay at home mother of 2 beautiful babies!

5 years ago I saw a friend making a dream board and I thought it was a great idea!

I never really believed in the law of attraction until I watched and read The Secret.

My whole mind set was turned around I believed I could have, do or succeed in anything!

In our smallish town of Prince George we have a hospice dream home lottery. I was determined that the house was mine.

I told everyone I was going to win. I had a couple of close friends so convinced they didn't even buy tickets! I had bought a bunk bed and refused to set it up because I didn't want to set it up until we moved.

On the day of the draw was my last day of work since I was 8 months pregnant with my daughter! My mom texts me in the afternoon saying today is the day you win your house, so besides being my last day of work we carried on as usual.

8 pm came and went. That was the draw time. I was feeling a bit anxious but happy.

The phone rang closer to 9 pm. I answered so quickly I didn't even notice the call display number. I answered, they said: Andrea Cake?

And my heart melted! I was speechless and crying, they hadn't even told me I won the dream home yet. He said "Do you know who this is?". I gasped "The hospice society?"

He then asked me if I would like to come see my brand new dream home!

My boyfriend was grabbing some stuff out of the truck when he came into the house, he thought I was in labor. My year old son was looking at me like I was crazy and I definitely was acting crazy!

After I had the chance to calm down we drove down to see our dream home!

We have lived here for over a year and love it every day!

The Secret book changed my whole life. I knew about The Secret in Jan 2013 but I only started to apply The Secret in 2015.

I applied The Secret to attract money because after my marriage I had some financial problems. Then I decided I will attract money. And I attracted a lot of money!

Every night and every morning I said to myself that I am a money magnet and money comes very easily and effortlessly.

I also wrote in my journal that I love money and money also loves me. I used the gratitude practice for 15 days and there were no results.

But guess what?!

I am amazing because I won the lottery 500,000.00. and I believe so much in The Secret!!!

Thank you Rhonda for writing such a great book!

I use to be a pretty negative person and had what most called "bad luck". But I changed my ways of thinking, and day by day my life felt like it was turning around.

To be honest, I'm still in disbelief this particular thing happened, even though I felt it was possible.

I was actually in a pretty bad place, emotionally and financially. I felt I had pretty bad luck and I was having borderline depression. Anyways, I was looking through self help books and positive thinking, and of course, I ran into The Secret.

I tried everything the book taught and made some manifestations and there were some I had not been able to do. I really wanted to win the lottery, because who doesn't, right? I actually bought lottery tickets pretty often and visualized winning the lottery, but never won any of them so I stopped playing.

Then after forgetting about it, one day I felt this huge need to just buy a ticket and so I did. I checked later on the next day looking at every individual number over and over. I was just in such huge shock that the numbers were actually matching up! I checked I don't know how many times, and the winning numbers were still there.

I really want to thank Rhonda, other positive speakers, and the Universe. Because of their existence I was able to have all of this money and do everything I have ever dreamed about. Just stay positive and believe! If you don't get what you want right away or see mosses, just know the universe is already working it's magic or planning something even better for you!!

I am God's gift to the world. I am a master at manifestation. I am an abundant, prosperous, wealthy individual.

So this morning when I woke up I decided I wanted to win the lottery. The exact amount I wanted to win was $25,000 dollar, so I asked the Universe. I even took out my Pray Rain Journal and wrote about how I won. I knew I was going to win. I even picked the exact numbers in the exact order; 1 2 1 4. I played those numbers for today's evening drawing for the Cash 4. I had so much faith that I was going to win so much that I bought five of the exact same tickets.

Lo and behold I won!! I won the Cash 4 evening drawing!! Each ticket was worth $5,000 dollars equaling a total of $25,000 dollars. I am $25,000 dollars richer. I woke up this morning with $370 dollars in my bank account and now I am $25,000 dollars richer. The Universe delivered the same day I asked. Now that I think about it, who needs Amazon when you have the Universe ready to deliver all the desires of your heart! I am going to use the money to donate to charity, shop for my niece's first Christmas and purchase my first car.

Thank you, God. Thank you, Universe. Thank you, Rhonda. I am truly appreciative of all of you guys. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

I'm a single mother to a lovely daughter and a firm believer of The Secret.

Ever since I read The Secret and started practicing it, everything changed for me. I was divorced and broke and did not know how I would support my daughter. Then I started to practice gratitude and write my goals on a board. I do not really know how but things started to flip.

I got promoted in my job along with getting with my dream salary. I bought the flat I always imagined having, and my dream Mercedes car. I met a wonderful partner and we are dating now. My relationship with my parents and my daughter is wonderful. I have more money now to travel, shop and do everything I want to do. To make things even more perfect, I had always wished to win the lottery, and guess what? This year I just did.

God is great and the Universe is great. I am utterly blessed. I got more than I wished for, life is so good!

True believer!

Thank you so much for this divine gift of The Secret, The Magic and The Secret Apps. I will always be so grateful!

I am a spiritual soul but I also struggled to believe in the the law of attraction for many years. I just did not think that I was very good at it and continued to focus on what I did not want, until recently. I would crave certain foods and not tell anyone. Then literally the next day that meal would be served in my house! Was that a coincidence? No. Then I went for the big things that I wanted related to matters that I just had not been able to resolve in my life and miracles started to happen.

I then thought, hang on, can I win the lottery? And guess what? I won the lottery and now I can say and write this as a lottery winner.

To all the people reading my story, I highly recommend that you follow the simple instructions of The Secret. Go back to the movie and work out which parts resonate with your life. Faith is the hard part, asking is the easy part. Once you have mastered the faith part, your entire life will change. I also learnt to block out negative influences in my life. Again, once you develop the faith part, even if someone is saying something negative about what they think will happen, in your mind you will only be holding onto the final outcome of what you want. That is when you know that you have turned a corner in your life.

I also highly recommend The Secret to Money App. I have only been using it for a month and felt miracles within a week attracting two unexpected cheques! Sometimes, you need to learn to become friends with money, especially if you have an unconscious negative mindset towards money. You will learn this yourself once you start using The Secret to Money App. There are daily exercises on there to retrain your mind.

My journey to this stage has taken a lot of work on myself. I meditate, I read and I practice the the law of attraction. I am also grateful every single day. You can do this too. I hope that I inspire other people to create their new destiny. Your life is not set in stone. You have to create it!

Stay blessed everyone.

I used to not believe, now I know the power of The Secret. I am a mom, a wife, and faithful believer.

I used to not understand why when one thing went wrong in my life, at least 3 more things would go wrong. I did not know that by being negative about money, my family, and my job that it made me unhappy and stressed out. This of course in turn brought about additional negative things in my life. My stress and worry about bills only brought me more money problems, IRS problems and a possible foreclosure. This was all while I was employed full time and so was my husband.

A co-worker gave The Secret to another co-worker of mine who was having personal problems. That co-worker glanced at it with disregard and left her shift. I picked the book up off an empty desk that she had discarded too and wow. I read it page by page that very night. I could not stop. Absolutely everything I was reading made sense. I could go back and connect it to my life.

That next day I went to the lady who had been so kind enough to share this amazing secret. I was telling her how much I loved it. She actually has a tattoo with the words "Ask. Believe. Receive" tattooed on her arm. She told me that the book found me and how it had found her because the Universe knew the right time for us. I started applying The Secret to every aspect to my life.

My husband and I were on the verge of divorce. I started imagining us happy again with no fighting and knew it would be okay. We are now the happiest we have ever been. My children are happier now that they have 2 parents that love each other and don't fight. I reread the book often to remind myself that I control everything. The power is in each person. It doesn't matter who you are, where you come from, or what you have done in your past. You control your future. It is up to you to decide how you want your life to go. I have no debt, a paid for car and currently I am able to quit work to stay home with my kids. This is what I had wanted to do all my life. Being home with my family and having no debt was my dream!

A winning lottery ticket that I created made this happen. I printed a blank check from your website, looked at it daily and won almost the exact amount of money that I needed to be able to make my dream come true. When I purchased that ticket I imagined the correct numbers on the scratch off ticket. I spent $10 and got almost to the dollar what I had written my check for.

Thank you so much for publishing The Secret. I had no idea that I had control of everything. I thought that my circumstances would never change and within 4 short months I am living my dream life!!!! Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!

A college student, a filmmaker wannabe and a musician.

I am a college student from the Philippines and I have always wanted to become self sufficient. That means I wanted to have my own money source so that I can buy a condo unit and everything I need. I wanted to have enough financial freedom to have everything I need and want and especially pay for my own tuition. I also want to become a filmmaker and a musician on the side. I have always known it was my destiny, but before I was not able to manifest it into life. So, when I started using The Secret, I set up some goals. I wanted to win the jackpot for the lottery with numbers I use all the time. After several tries, I was wanting to quit but something deep inside me reminded me of my dream. So, one day, I went and bet my numbers and I forgot all about it until it was a few hours after the draw. I checked the internet for the results and there I won!

I was so thrilled because it was just a few days away from my birthday. I was able to buy a new jet black 256GB iPhone 7 plus and I was able to treat myself to a shopping spree during my birthday. From there I started living the life I always dreamed of and I was so thrilled. Thanks to The Secret team for this wonderful life tip. I am so happy and grateful! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am a grateful man.

Thank you billion times to Rhonda Byrne, The Secret team and the people who shared their stories. Your stories changed my life for ever!

I have been reading The Secret for the past year and applying it into my life has been easy because I knew The Secret before. A year ago my life was in a rough place.

As I drove back from university, I asked to find a new method to help me. Then I remembered and looked back at something and it was The Secret. I began to read The Secret, The Power and The Magic. I asked the Universe to win the the US diversity visa. I was visualizing every day that I was walking down a street in Washington, DC. I always though about America in the past I began to set my time to the Washington, DC time zone.

Fast forward. I registered for the American visa lottery on October 17. I believed I was going to win it because I had The Secret. During the time between October 17 until the time of the draw for the passport, I acted like I already was a winner and I gave gratitude. The draw date finally arrived and I logged on to the site to see. And guess what?!!

I had been selected for further processing for my diversity immigrant visa! I did it! OMG I am very, very happy! Finally, I want to say again, thank you a billion times! I love you all so much!

I am a 30 year old Universe lover raising my vibrations on a daily basis. I am true believer in The Secret. I am manifesting my dream life into reality. I quit my job as I believe there is something better out there waiting for me.

I jumped on The Secret train in the summer of 2016. I wished I had this years ago as in 2006 I definitely needed this. I believe I was always practising The Secret but I just did not know it. I have many stories of manifesting things, however this one is close to my heart.

I wanted to win the Euromillions and had put that on my vision board. On my 30th birthday I always said I would be a millionaire by 30. I still have time. I do not turn 31 until November. Well I had been out of work since November and all my bills had mounted up. My daughter's cheerleading, my phone bill, my rent, food etc. You name it. I was not receiving income other than 85 a week, however that never seemed to stick as I was paying back someone for money I had borrowed. My rent had been climbing and housing did not back date it from the day of my employment as I submitted the claim 7 days short of the time frame. I was sent so many letters regarding my rent. I really began to feel depressed. I thought let me play 49s and win this money, as that would be a sure way of clearing the £1064 debt and my daughter's cheerleading.

Thursday morning I did my usual routine and acted as if I had a job. I got ready for work dressed and made my way to look for work and played the lottery for the lunch time draw. I called my rent officer and said I will call again between 1.30 pm and 2 pm to make a payment. In my mind I thought the money was coming and so I acted and felt as if I had it. Throughout the morning I trailed the internet and read all The Secret stories whilst listening to an audio of The Power. I listen to The Power every day, 3 times a day. I needed inspiration and reading the stories gave me faith. If I could just win on the 49s I could pay the rent and my daughters fees and still have money left over to buy food and some to keep to save.

I am writing this story to tell you that I indeed won, my numbers came up 20 29 46!! I placed a £2.50 wager with a return on £1790. I won! I won! I won! I was so happy. I believed so much I was going to win that I went in to the store and waited for my numbers so I could collect my winnings and deposit it into my account immediately. And by 1.45 pm I made the call to my rent officer like I had told him in the morning.

I want to thank Rhonda and her team for her books and to everyone who has uploaded a story here. Trust me when I say thoughts become things. If you think it with feeling it must appear. That is the law of attraction. Keep believing keep the faith, everything you want is already yours. Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am 57 year-old woman, mother of 4.

A few years back my mom passed away. Unfortunately her life insurance policy was only around $7000. I'm sure when she bought it years ago, that was a lot of money. There wasn't enough money to pay for the funeral so after the $7000 was paid, I went on a payment plan with the funeral home. I kept thinking I need to pay this off because I felt like my mother wasn't at peace until I did. So I did the positive thinking. Usually I would have a pit in my stomach, but for some reason I was calm, knowing that I would pay it off.

Then one night I stopped at the local convenience store and for some reason I bought a lottery scratch ticket. I came home and started scratching it. Just then the phone rang and it was my son who was overseas on deployment. So I put the ticket down and talked with him. After we hung up I remembered the ticket. I hadn't finished scratching it. On the last number scratched I saw $10,000. I started screaming and running around. My husband had all he could do to control me. You would think I won a million dollars.

The next day I went to the lottery. After taxes I came home with $7,500 and the first check out the door was to the funeral home. That night I said to myself "Mom, rest in peace".

Manifested £62,000 In 9 months Using The Secret!

Happily married mum of 4 children.

After watching The Secret in May 2016 I knew I could change my life and the lives of my family and friends. I watched The Secret several times a week and read as many LOA books that I could. Within 2 weeks I started manifesting money, a flow of abundance that snowballed very quickly. I shared my secret journey with a few selected family and friends. They too were amazed by my results, especially my husband who now uses The Secret principles too. We created a vision board with our children and started dreaming together.

Within 8 months I had manifested and received over 30K extra from unexpected sources, including online bingo and lottery wins. And each time the amount increases more from the last one! We even have utility companies that were contacting us saying we had over paid some of our bills and sent us cheques up to £2,000! It was flowing in from everywhere! Only last month we learned we have another £31,000 owed to us. We found an old private pension letter dated 1998 that my husband claims he knew nothing about. It said that this pension was worth just over £5,000 at that time. So we rang them up only to discover it is now worth over 31K! My husband also has other pensions for retirement age that we can cash in at anytime we wish.

My advice to successfully manifest what you desire is to not ever give up! Many times we have had periods of feeling low or doubtful and when that happens I listen to The Secret or read one of the books and write in my Secret Gratitude Journal. I write about all of the many blessings we are so truly thankful for. Each challenge has always ends with a joyful manifestation. So keeping the faith in the powerful universal energy within us is the key!

I now have purchased The Secret Dvd's and books for family and friend's birthdays. They are the greatest gifts they will ever receive. Then I leave it to the Universe to work this magic in their lives too. Several of these people are also now on the same journey and watching their lives change for the better. It is such an amazing blessing as we share our positive experiences together. The Secret is not only working for us financially, but is also healing health issues and relationships besides many other life situations. Our children are now happy, positive and expectant about their future.

I believe The Secret should be a compulsory part of the national curriculum for education in all schools and colleges worldwide. It can be changing the lives of the next generation in such an amazing yet simple way. The Secret to Teen Power has been an excellent tool for my teenage son and some of his friends. Our younger son's primary school teacher was so impressed with his new positive attitude and how it has influenced other children in his class that he created a class vision board and now daily promotes The Secret principles during lessons.

Thank you Rhonda and all the LOA teachers who take the time to share your wisdom. We all need to share The Secret as we truly can change the world and so many lives just by using this power with a little spoonful of faith. God bless you all.

Hello everyone! I want to thank you all for helping me keep my faith with your inspiring stories.

My story begins last year when one of my friends won the DV visa lottery. It immediately hit me that I could also win using The Secret.

After applying for the lottery here is what I did: I made an audio recording of me saying the things I would do when I win the lottery as if I already had done it. I listened to it and visualized every day before going to sleep. I made a goal card of going to America and doing a successful business. I kept reading about living in New York.

Now after 7 months of disciplined work and faith, I found out that I won the DV lottery! I don't know how to describe the feeling. I am touching the sky. Glory to God! May all your heart's desires come true. God bless you. Thank you! 😊

I am a 25 year old MBA student, business owner and makeup artist.

I've been with my boyfriend 10 years now, we were high school sweethearts. We're happy but our family thinks that we should get married. Paying for school, being busy at work and managing our own business makes building our own home pretty expensive and time consuming, especially in the Caribbean where I live. We had just spent most of our savings on the business and my boyfriend and I kept our full time jobs. It was expensive and we were worried if we would be able to afford to get married and build our own home before our 11th Anniversary.

I ended 2016 reading The Secret and by some strange turn of events, my sister who never heard of the book got The Magic and Hero as gifts for Christmas. Reading both changed my life.

I started 2017 optimistic and happy. Every morning I woke up with a smile and thanked the Lord and the Universe for everything. I looked at my Vision Board on my phone and started my day with affirmations. Before I leave to work I would say my prayers and visualise what I wanted, to win the Lottery. I figured it would be sufficient for the life of my dreams, charity and both our families. For months I did this and I focused on the end result.

The lotto kept rolling over and I was expectant but didn't win. At first I was disappointed but my faith did not falter. I knew it deep down that my luck will strike because every day I would always manifest something, however little. My faith kept increasing to the point that I won the Scratch 3 days in a row. I was just amazed.

I was amazed the day I looked at my ticket and realised what had happened but it wasn't shocking. I won and I knew it was because of the LOA. Ever since that day I am still thanking the Lord and The Secret. My life is so amazing now it almost surreal and, we set our wedding date on our 11th dating Anniversary!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

I sold my news agency business a few years ago and went on travelling the world. I met a very nice man and we got married. He had no job. I was happy to spend and we continued travelling together for a few years. I offered financial help to his family and friends and mine. We had a simple living.

It was only after when he walked off on me one day and my life collapsed that I realised I've been too giving to everyone in my life without accepting to receive anything. I had no strength to get a job. My money in the bank was getting lower. My family and my friends were not offering any financial or emotional support. I was so desperate. The only thing I could do was to pray that a miracle happens and I stay alive in the meantime.

Two months ago, I saw The Magic in a book shop and grabbed it. I had heard of The Secret many years ago but had not read it. I also bought The Secret Gratitude Book many years ago but never used it and threw it away after a while. As I started reading The Magic, I knew this was the answer to my prayers. I did every practice inside it the best I could. I also bought The Secret Gratitude Book again and started writing my gratitude in it. I also bought your other books and started reading them and they deeply resonated with me.

Two weeks ago I asked my mum to buy a lottery ticket for me for the first time in my life. The ticket won the first price; $268,000. She paid me $110,000.

I am so grateful and thankful to you Rhonda Byrne, you saved my life. I am so thankful and grateful that you and your family are in excellent health, having greatest joy, continuing to achieve highest success and receive unlimited wealth. I am so grateful and thankful to you that you are inspired to help us forever and ever. I watched The Secret movie last week for the first time and I have been watching it every day since. Hope to meet you one day. I am so grateful and thankful now that I am doing the practices every day that you gave us in your books and your movie. Thank you, thank you, thank you from the very depth of my heart.

The Perfect Grades!

Submitted by: Nsn

Novice manifester. Getting the hang of LOA. Getting consistent!

A little backstory: I kept failing at least 2 out of 6 subjects each semester. That's the old story. New story now!

The law works! I have been practicing quite regularly for the last few months. I prepped how my exams would go before I attended them. I repeated affirmations. When it comes to affirmations, if you don't connect with it or feel like it's the least bit true you will end up doing more harm than good because every time you affirm it you are resisting that reality by feeling bad. Only affirm when you feel good. And it is also okay to have doubts. Especially when you have to wait for results over a long period of time you might have doubts at certain points. So the thing is to have your vibration up and flying above 50% of the time. If you have doubts, be aware of your thoughts and correct their direction. So stop thinking about it and think about something else. Do what feels good. Instead of resisting, redirect. Every time I had doubts creep up I just thought of something else that I was really passionate about. Another note is that you can read all the books on the law of attraction you want. But in the end it is not enough to just feel good only when reading the books. Just a few minutes visualizing and affirming won't do. This is what people misunderstand the most about the LOA. The visualizing and affirming are just ways to get your vibes up. So the key point here is to keep your vibe up most of the time. That is how you attract. You can't have 10 minutes of positive thoughts and go back to your usual thinking ways and expect the LOA to work. Observe your thinking and reprogram yourself. So here is exactly what I did to get the grades.

1. Learn. You can't not study for the exam and expect good grades. You don't have to study hard. Just study what feels good. But keep taking the action.
2. I wrote in my diary how easy my exam went before and after. Prepaving is very very important.

3. No stress. I listened to good music and was relaxed during my exam time.
4. Do not. I repeat do not contradict yourself. If your friends are complaining about how bad the exams went do not join in. This is key. If you don't do this, all the effort will be wasted. Constantly watch what your say. And catch yourself before you speak. Remember, your words are your spells.
5. Prepave, prepave, prepave. Writing is a very powerful way of creating.
6. Check out what the pray rain journal is. This method is pure magic. Everything I ask for manifests instantly.
7. Give thanks in the present. Gratitude is very important. But you need to give thanks to all the good things in life. Not just your future grades.
8. Let go. For the first time in my life. I wasn't worried about my grades. I was watching modern family when I got the news. I knew my results would be out today. But I kind of forget about them as I spent my time on reddit and watching modern family. That is the amount of detachment you need to have to the outcome. I was okay with whatever the result was. Letting go is the final and important deed you need to do. Because you can do everything right and if you are still resisting, zilch happens. Sad I know. But that's the reality.

The LOA is a way of life. Not just something you use on a whim. It takes practice to master and even the best deliberate creators out there struggle sometimes. But the good news is that it's all good. It is all wonderful. It is all absolutely fantastic!!

I learned about The Secret from my mom and sister. My sister had helped reinforce the concepts to me over the years. Right now I am a systems engineer and avid triathlete, using the Law of Attraction on a regular basis.

I have always been responsible with my finances. My parents instilled good financial habits in me, however at this point in my life, I was starting to get bogged down with credit card debt. My truck had been constantly breaking down, I eventually had to get a different car and had all sorts random pop-up expenses. To top it all off, Christmas was just around the corner and I really didn't have the money to buy gifts.

One day, my company of 5000 plus employees, announced a new initiative to improve morale. They would have four random drawings for employees who had been with the company for 0-1 year, 2, 3 and 4 years. Each winner would win either 1, 2, 3 or 4 thousand dollars.

Using the concepts my sister had taught me about the Law of Attraction, I told myself, "That money is mine. I am going to win that drawing." The company announced the dates of the drawing and said they would be notifying people via email. I continued to hold this thought in my head. On the day of the drawing, I was at my customer's site and had not yet been able to check my company's email. Late that night at home, I decided to check. I was greeted with a massive email thread, starting with the company chief of HR and trickling all the way down to me, with a congratulatory note from all.

I had just won $4,000!

I called my sister, who was a little confused by the late hour of the call, and said, 'Guess what?! I just won the lottery!' Even more amazing, is the fact that I had only been with the company for 2.5 years, however I won the prize for those that had been with the company for 4 or more years. I contacted them to explain the mix-up, however I was told that they were counting my years from college as an intern. So indeed I had been with the company for 4 years.

The winnings from this drawing were a huge help to me financially, and I will never forget that feeling I had when I told myself that the money was mine, and I saw the emails saying I had won. Thank you!

I'm studying right now and am happier than ever.

I want to share the story of how easily I got rich. I used to have enough money to live a good life and be able to travel if I wanted to. Nevertheless my parents would talk about how little money they had all the time and as they had supported me in my education, I started feeling bad.

At some point I calculated how much money I needed in order to be able to travel and pay for my education by myself. I believed in it, visualized it and then forgot about it again. Only a couple of weeks ago I walked by a little grocery store and for some reason saw that there was a huge amount of money in the lottery. I had never played the lottery before but that day I did play because a feeling told me to. Then I truly believed in being rich. I visualized everything I would do with the money and felt good about having it. I felt rich and made plans about what I would be doing with the money. I planned how to donate it, how to walk around with big checks and give them to people. How to travel and give my parents financial stability.

Guess what? I won. I walked around with big checks and made people happy. I'm a rich person now and I hope you will be one too. Just believe in it.

Very grateful, happy, blessed, healthy and in love.

My journey with The Secret began back in 2014. The book was left in my house by a friend that was from out of town. Someone had lent the book to my friend and the owner of the book never came to pick up the book after my friend left. God and the Universe had put this book in my path! Like all else, what is meant for you, will be yours, no matter what. So one day I decided to read it The Secret and it was the best choice I have ever made!!!

I was in a marriage just to be married but I was not really in love or happy. I began to use The Secret to practice manifestations with the LOA and boom! Everything started happening for me. Two years later my life has completely changed for the better! I won a big lottery prize, I am now with the love of my life and we live in a beautiful house. The best part I am going to be a mom!!!

I can not be grateful and thankful enough!!!! Ask, believe that you already have it and you will receive it, 1000%!! Thank you Rhonda for sharing The Secret with everyone!

Dreams come true.

First of all I apologize for my English, I am a Spanish speaker, but English its one of my favourite languages.

For many years, my parents and I had financial problems. We had to emigrate to another country and that was when the problems started. My father was diagnosed with diabetes, got fired from his job and felt depressed. The debts kept growing and all I wanted to do was to disappear from this world.

One day, I went to the public library and read The Secret. At the beginning I did not believe it would happen to me because I had such a bad life. My inner voice told me not to give up, to keep believing and trying.

Finally, I can tell you that it works! I bought a lottery ticket and acted as if I had won $800! I imagined how my dad would scream of happiness because the debt is getting smaller!!!! And yes, I won it!!!! And of course my dad now believes that life is not too bad at all, he now not so much of a pessimist!!!

Thank you Universe for answering my wishes!! I am sure this is not the last one, the best is still to come!!!! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I'm a girl of faith who believes that anything is possible.

Winning the lottery was my number one desire. I lived a middle class life, where I only had enough to pay my rent, light bill, cable, food and etc. Every day I would wake up and think about if this is going to be my life. Working just to pay bills.

At the time I didn't have a profession. After I graduated out of high school, I never went to college. So for four years I worked in a minimum wage job.

One day as I was watching television, there were a few celebrities talking about a book called The Secret and by reading that book, that's how they became successful. Immediately I told my brother about The Secret book and that we had to get it. Little did I know that he already had the book and the DVD of The Secret. As I started reading the book, at first I didn't understand it. Then after I read the book twice and watched the DVD of the Secret, I got a better understanding of it. Since I applied The Secret to my life I have got everything I asked for. Including a lottery win.

The Secret does work, you just have to have faith and believe it's already yours. Thank you Rhonda for writing The Secret and thank you God for this fabulous life I'm living. Thank you!

I am a student of the 3rd course of one of the best universities in my country. I am fully into The Secret and The Magic books. I only started to implement Rhonda Byrne's teachings in my life. Despite that I've already experienced some major positive changes in my life.

More than 6 years ago I attended school and was a part of a usual family. When I was small, we were really close. We travelled together, celebrated all the holidays, mother helped me with a homework and father taught me how to ride a bike and ski. Everyone thought my parents had a perfect relationship, but truly, they did not. Finally, they got divorced after 15 years of marriage because of my father's preference to alcohol and mother's inability to see the future with such a man. I can't even explain how frustrated I was. Everything was ruined. My love to both of my parents and jealousy to mom's new boyfriend were driving me crazy. Dad started drinking even more and mother suffered because of his depressing behaviour. As for me, I felt really terrible. I was torn between parents but couldn't belong to any of them. I cried almost every day. I think it was the worst part of my life, ever.

Then I watched "The Secret". If you are reading this, you probably can understand how great I felt when started to realize the power of the Universe, the law of attraction and my own possibilities for creating the future. I can't say that the next day my life became completely different, but it was going to very soon.

At that time I was 14 and decided to delve into studying. Actually, I was always good at school but I thought that I could be even better. So I made my best in English, Math and Biology. I took part in National Educational competitions and achieved great results. My mother's relationship with her new man lasted only for a year. They broke up eventually.

Mom found a new place for us to live and I entered the best school in my town with an extended focus on languages and mathematical knowledge. Our lives started to change even more. My father suddenly signed off drinking and started to visit us more and more often. We joked again and celebrated holidays but now there was no need to help me with homework and bike riding skills. I was writing my scientific work on English at that time and was dreaming to move to America some day. I even took part in a competition where the prize was to spend a year studying in an American school and living with an American family. It seemed to be a great opportunity except that it never worked out for me. But I didn't give up dreaming. Finally, I finished my school and entered the most prestigious university in my country. Now I am still here, studying complex aviation technologies, preparing myself for a job in air traffic control.

My parents got back together. Moreover, they were always hoping to buy a house someday, but truly had no money. They had been renting an apartment for 10 years until getting divorced but after reuniting they received a heritage from my father's grandmother. She died long ago, but her house was sold the year my parents started their new life together. So they received the money and managed to finally buy a house! Now they are deeply in love again. Making house repairs together, going to the cinema and planning the future for our "old, new family".

They changed the way they looked at life and each other and as a result, life around them also changed. Father rejected alcohol once and for all, found second job and started to set new goals for himself. As for my mother, she started to be less stressed and became more caring. She found new friends and interests.

I am now the best student in our department, receiving an enhanced scholarship. Since the moment I watched "The Secret" movie and read "The Magic" and "The Power" I write gratitude lists every day and concentrate only on the positive. I take my visualisation board everywhere I live because I experienced how the pictures glued on the paper can become reality. This summer, for example, I visited the city where I mostly dreamed to be someday, London. I remember how sure I always was: "I'll definitely be there. I'll see Big Ben and Tower Bridge. I'll drink an English tea and feel myself so happy". But I couldn't even imagine that it would be so soon. I just took part in a contest for students in aviation specialisation and became one of 100 winners who received the chance to fly to London for 4 days for free! I paid not a cent and managed to visit one of the most expensive cities in the world! But what is even more stunning is that my friend advised me to try my luck in Green Card Lottery one year ago. I thought "Why not", submitted an application and completely forgot about it. I remembered to check results only this September and how astonished I was when I read that I was randomly selected for receiving the American Green Card! I won the lottery with the chances less than 1%. It blew my mind! My teenage dream about moving to America came true!

Now, when I experienced all the miracles of the law of attraction, I finally understood that it is me that restricts myself from being happy. The only thing that is important is to be grateful for your life right now! Have a dream, I would even say a goal. Be sure that you will definitely achieve it and of course, do something for its realisation. The Universe will help, but you also have to take part with inspired action! So, dream big!

I tried the million dollar story before I read the book. I was sending the Universe my desire to win a million dollars in the lottery. I would tell everyone. I told my parents, partner and sister on a regular basis that soon I would win. They would all laugh. Long story short, I won. I searched for reasons why I won and found The Secret. Even my therapist was stunned that I won because I told her in advance, too. It's so amazing. I don't need therapy anymore because I know The Secret. She is also a believer now. My life is wonderful and I love The Secret.

Loving my wonderful life in London!

I have always loved the idea of winning money on a scratch card, or lottery or a prize draw etc. Yesterday, I bought a scratch card. I looked up the prize amounts and how to claim them if you win. I also decided how much I wanted to win and had a very clear idea of exactly how I would spend the money.

I usually read other success stories first thing in the morning and today, there was one about a scratch card win! If that's not a sign, I don't know what is!!!

I spent the whole of today keeping my vibration as high as I could and lifting it up whenever I felt like it was drooping. A couple of minutes ago, I scratched out the numbers and you guessed it!! I won the exact amount I had ordered!!!!

I'm still in shock as I write this. The real secret to manifesting is to step back and let the Universe work its magic while you keep your vibrations high. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Happy manifesting.

41 year old female, contract employee. Currently in a relationship, thanks to The Secret. One of many, many successes since using The Secret back in 2007. First time I am publishing my story which happened in July of 2015.

I was first introduced to The Secret in 2007. Since that time I have received so many things from use of The Secret it's unbelievable. I will never stop using The Secret.

My story to share with you began in July 2015. In 2014 I was without work for 5 months after working for 13 years on contract. I eventually got another contract for 2 years and with just under a year left I was concerned about what would happen and if I would again be without work. So I began to listen to The Secret daily while reading The Magic.

So my journey began again. Some days, all I listened to for the day was The Secret over and over and over while I worked. And every day I would do the actions. I already owned a car as back in 2007 I used The Secret to obtain a loan when I was on a 1 year contract and was given 4 years to repay.

I wanted to see what else can really happen so I would close my eyes and visualize my hand wrapping around the steering wheel of my brand new car. I did this every day beginning in July of 2015.

Then it happened on July 25th 2015!! I stopped at a lottery booth and I had little money but I decided to take a chance. I purchased a scratch off ticket. I was just hoping to win just a little money to get through till I got paid at end of the month.

Instead, when I scratched the ticket, I saw my number matching the number for a Ford Ranger!! I couldn't believe it. I was shocked!

I asked the girl at the booth if this was real and she was excited. I have only seen these things on television, I never thought it would happen to me. I know The Secret works! This gift now makes my life a bit easier as I can use it to create my own employment, earn extra income as I work on my new goal of getting my own home. Maybe I will write that story one day.

Thanks Rhonda. Thanks to all the people who shared their stories and thanks to my friend for introducing me to The Secret DVD.

Hi everyone,

I read so many beautiful stories here and I think mine is worth sharing too.

Ever since I was really young, I visualized so hard about everything I wanted. I was not aware of The Secret until much later in life but when I finally read about it, my whole life made sense. I had always loved entertaining and when I was 15 I started singing on YouTube. I was dreaming of getting discovered and being able to perform on stage in front of huge crowds. Literally, I was dreaming about it. I would spent nights awake in bed in my home in Italy, just visualizing what it would be like and visualizing it again because it felt so amazing! I did the same thing with my other passion, America! I would always be imagining myself finally visiting California and Hollywood.

After a couple years of growing my success on YouTube, a manager that was putting a boy band together, contacted me. They wanted me to be part of the project. With the band I ended up touring all over Europe, then getting signed in Japan and touring more there! After 3 years of that crazy life, the band slowly faded but the Magic didn't. I won the green card lottery! That allowed me to move to the US a year later, which was always my dream!

Since then I have had a steady job and a good income. Now my focus is all going to be on finding the perfect job for me with a great income and my soulmate. I would say to wish me luck, but we all know it is up to me to attract that!

Thank you!

I am a young female in her late twenties, living her best life.

First of all, I would like to send a big thank you The Secret team. Thank you for sharing this gift with us and reminding us of our power as creators. Thank you to all the people who have shared their stories, it is because of these stories that more people can share their stories. You strengthen people's faith and contribute far more than you can imagine.

My journey with The Secret started in 2015. I had always been a person who had a lot of faith and was always very optimistic so good things had always happened to me. I always thought they were coincidences and just that. Never, in my wildest dreams did I know I was attracting and creating my own destiny. I have attracted a lot of magnificent things with this knowledge, holidays, money, opportunities, parking spaces, you name it.

Then I wanted to attract something remarkable and life changing for my family and I, so I asked the Universe "how" and all of a sudden I became obsessed with winning the lottery. For over two and half years, I bought hundreds of tickets and the most I won was £25. When I won that money I celebrated as if I had won millions, it really meant a lot to me.

In the time that I didn't receive what I asked for, I learnt patience, perseverance, the power of faith and the most powerful of all I learn to be grateful and let go. I learned to trust that the Universe would deliver when my faith matched my desire. I finally did win my life changing amount and I shared more than half of it with friends and family. I did not need as much as I thought I needed at that time and I also trust that, whatever I need in the future will come to me.

Money isn't the only way to attract or get anything you want, the Universe will deliver it in a number of ways, so don't focus on the money. Focus on the feeling you will get when you have that which you want to use the money to buy. Stay positive and stay strong, your time is now.

Lots of love,
A very grateful heart.

I am a music teacher in public school. I'm also a jazz guitarist.

I am a music teacher in public school and I am also a jazz guitarist. And, I am also a person of moderate means. As a schoolteacher in one of the lower paying districts I didn't have a huge income and I have two boys who I pay child support for. I heard about The Secret and watched it on Netflix. Then I downloaded the audiobook on iTunes. I think one of the biggest things for me was saying thank you every morning and carrying around a rock. I had never build a rocket in my pocket and I thought about something that really brought me in focus of what good happened in my life today.

An email was sent out to the school teachers in my district about a historical house that a teacher would only have to pay half the price if chosen in the lottery. So it is a $200,000 home that was going to be given away for $45,000. I entered the lottery and went home. I did all the necessary things plus I emailed and called and made sure they had my information. I then picked up my guitar and started to practice with the picture of the house on my phone. I told my friend that I was going to win that house in a very informal conversation. While practicing, I imagined what it would be like to have the feeling of my sons being in the house with me on Christmas and Thanksgiving. What it would feel like to walk down the steps, what it would feel like to walk out the front door. I it would feel like to feel the walls.

The next morning I received an email but I was not able to check it right then. However, I knew the email was about the lottery and I knew it was about me winning this lottery. I truly believed that it was mine and, I did win the lottery!

Now I have a house that I never would have been able to afford at the regular price. Every day I do some practice of gratitude, either writing it down or just praying. I did believe in The Secret and I did believe in the power of the Universe listening to my wishes. I also do feel that I had to do something in order to get it. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Financial Abundance Miracle!

CANADA

20-something year old.

Hey!

I lived an absolute financial miracle. First let me tell you about the kinds of troubles I got into. As a young contractual worker with some university and credit card debt, accumulated from all those in between contract moments, I was determined to eradicate all of my debt. Unfortunately, since my income had been fluctuating so much, I made some very poor decisions. Living from paycheck to paycheck while accumulating more debt instead of moving back with my parents for a while to save up and get back on my feet. I had tried that once but it had been very embarrassing. Additionally, since I had forgotten about the law of attraction, I developed a lot of anxiety surrounding finances and taxes. In fact, I also owed taxes to the government and even went a whole year without paying my taxes while accumulating massive interest on that debt.

Now here is the incredible part. Within days of visualizing and reconnecting with the law of attraction, I mysteriously manifested a document telling me I had $10,000 in my retirement fund! Of course I can only use that money in 30 years time when I retire. Here is the very strange part. When I called the people who take care of this fund, they had no clue how or why this document was sent out, and there were no traces as to why it was sent out as I did not request it.

That event had really improved my mindset surrounding money. I started vibrating at a higher level, being so grateful for everything I had. I even found someone very nice and non-judgemental to sort out my taxes. I had tried filing them with TurboTax but the amount that I owed was appalling. This accountant sorted everything and what I owed was cut in half!!!

That was not all! I had this very deep underlying feeling to buy a lottery ticket. I had sorted my finances out enough to be debt free within a few months, and I even had enough money to take a few weeks of vacation in the summer to travel friends and family.

I kept on thinking how amazing it would be to buy a house next year but with practically no savings, I didn't know how I would do that. I also really wanted to help one of my dear friends who went through a rough patch. She had a breakup and had to move across the ocean to get back on her feet. So, I went to the corner store to get myself a sparkling water and I purchased a lottery ticket. I was overwhelmed with a feeling of calmness and composure. I knew I would win something big enough for my needs, $50 000. I will let you guess the rest. I won $50,000$!!!! Not only was I able to pay of all of the money I owed, I gave $5000 to my friend to help her out, got some dental work that I had been delaying, had more than enough to enjoy my vacation and saved up for a house!

I cannot wait for the summer to come. I feel so blessed and wealthy and abundant! I love my life and trust the Universe and God.

Put all your worries in their hands. Let them take care of it, they will provide. I really really hope this story gives you the inspiration to keep on manifesting and visualizing. Don't give up. I had days where I felt nauseous with anxiety regarding my finances. I even took off work, but guess what? That is all a thing of the past! I am incredibly grateful and blessed for this second chance to build my future!!!! Life is what you make it, make it great!

Living my life to the fullest and sending love to everyone every day!

Hello,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to The Secret team and all the amazing people who have shared their inspiring stories here on this website. I was introduced to The Secret 4 years back but I never gave it a chance thinking that it was too good to be true. Last year I hit a low in my life and situation was extremely bad. I felt like I was trapped and I was depressed the whole time. Then I thought about The Secret. I thought that watching the movie would at least change my mood and I would feel better. I watched the movie and then slowly started reading the books. I got so into it that I read all 4 of the books and I still listen to a chapter from one of the books every day. But at that time I was jobless, alone, depressed and devastated because of my bad break up.

As I was reading, I slowly started to apply the principles of The Secret and started seeing changes in every area of my life. I got an amazing flexible job, I bought my dream car, I got into a relationship with a wonderful guy and the list goes on. I am originally from India and I work in United States but to continue my job I needed a work visa. Thanks to The Secret, my visa got picked in the lottery and when I say lottery it means out of 2,000,000 applications! I could not believe it! However my application got stuck in the process. They needed some extra documents.

My manager is very understanding and helpful. He submitted all the documents the very next day. At this point I knew The Secret so I was relaxed and thought everything would be OK soon. This process usually takes less than 60 days but more than two and a half months passed and nothing! I remained calmed and asked the Universe to show me if I am doing anything wrong and to guide me and help me manifest my approved visa soon. I decided on the date I wanted to travel back to the US. I packed my bags, I visualized my work visa with the year printed as 2020 and most importantly, I stopped waiting for my approval notice. I thought this might be the reason for the delay in the process. While I had been waiting, I was so eager to get it that I used to check my inbox 20 times a day. I listed out all the things that I am thankful for in my job and I said thank you to all the wonderful people who helped me along the process.

And guess what happened?! I got an email from the Consulate asking me to submit my passport, I got my passport back within 3 days with the approved visa that was good up to the year 2020 and I left for the USA on the day I planned!!!

Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!

God's child who is divinely guided. Mother of 2 teenagers and wife to a wonderful man. 35 years young, a beautiful lady.

Thank you God. Thank you Rhonda and The Secret team. Thank you to everyone who wrote stories here.

I am truly grateful to have come across The Secret in a time in my life when I really needed it.

Five years ago I had lived my life on autopilot, I was not grateful, I thought I had the perfect life. I worked for one of the best companies in SA. I was the envy of most, drove the latest BMW, lived in a big house, kids were in private schools and my lovely husband had a good job. All in all we were an 'It' couple.

Little did I know that I could lose it all over night. I had an accident and my spinal cord was crushed. I had an operation that put me in a comma for 3 days. When I regained consciousness, the doctor said I might not be able to walk. And, I believed him and ended up in a wheelchair. It took me time to attend physiotherapy and I complained every time while I was doing it. Slowly I learned to walk again, but could not drive for a year.

I went back home after months of being in hospital, depressed and angry. To make things worse, I lost my job due to incapacity because I couldn't do my full duties at work, as I was working as an Artisan. I started drinking and taking my medication at the same time, I just wanted to forget about everything. I gained weight which I knew I wasn't suppose to, because that puts strain on my spine. I was a mess, my family was falling apart, my mother got sick because she was worried about me. I used all my savings to pay off my car installments for 4 years and my credit card. But it wasn't enough. November 2014 while browsing the internet looking for stories about people who won lottery jackpots, I came across The Secret!

My life changed on that day, I cried and told myself that I have to change. I started walking to lose weight, ate the right food, stopped drinking and most of all, stopped blaming the accident for all that was happening to me. I realized that all that happened, I attracted to my life. I was not grateful about my job, my health, my money, everything that I had. I wasn't grateful for any of it. I immediately bought The Magic book and started The Magic Practices in February 2015. By that time I had no money and my husband was the only one working. It was hard on him because we were still living the same lifestyle, kids in private school, 2 cars and a big house. I made a choice to sell my car at a loss just to clear my debt.

My mother's health got worse and she eventually passed away, she had heart failure at only 55 years young. I was broken, everyone was worried about me because they all knew how close I was with my precious mother. Before she left this world I used to tell her that I am going to be a millionaire. I had my vision board, my desires that I read and visualized almost every day. But her passing hit me hard. I became negative again, stopped doing The Magic Practices and locked myself in my house switching off my phone for 3 months. I mourned her every day during those months and cried till my eyes went dry without tears.

One night I had a dream I was driving my beautiful Red Range Rover Sport. When I woke, I asked myself what am I doing to myself. Why am I wasting my precious life. I had been positive since attracting The Secret to my life and now I am throwing it all away! I went down on my knees and prayed to God for guidance and thanked him for the wonderful 35 years I had with my mother. I grabbed my book, re-started my 28 day practice's, watched my favorite Christian programs and I became happy again. I thanked God for my R 27,000,000 every day as it was my first desire on my top 10 list.

Today I am so happy, grateful and blessed!! I have my perfect health, perfect weight, I can run, drive and do all the things that the Doctor said I would not be able to do. I have my lovely family that supports me. I have my R 27,000,000. I have my Red Range Rover Sport, I live in the beautiful house with a sea view, I and my family have more than we need. All my top 10 desires I have received.

With all my heart, thank you Rhonda and your whole team for the wonderful job of bringing The Secret to millions.

My advice to my fellow Secret followers is to have strong faith and be happy most of the time. What also helped me was to read Bob Proctor's book and listening to MusiVation songs.

Magic Dust to everyone. Love you all good people.

The Secret Works, I Am A Multi-Millionaire!!

I am a full believer.

I heard about The Secret about a month ago after watching a few of Oprah's videos on YouTube. After watching The Secret my life dramatically shifted. A little over a month ago I was having trouble at work and reached the decision to quit. I decided I genuinely needed to change my life for the better. While watching The Secret, the top thing that caught my attention was the teaching that size does not matter to the Universe. As long as I properly aligned myself with the Universe I could have anything. So I decided to play the lottery. I would daydream the winnings were already mine and I planned on how I was going to spend my winnings. I started to deeply meditate to get myself in a very good emotional state and I would pray in the presence.

I am glad to say I am now a multi-millionaire currently working with my lawyer on the best way to handle my winnings.

I use to apply The Secret in my life without even knowing it. Now that I know that there is an immense power in me I'm going to continue to apply it for the highest and greatest good!

Thank you guys so much! You have helped me in my spiritual journey.

Leaving for the USA next week.

Hello,

I would like to start my story by saying thank you to Rhonda and to the entire team of The Secret. You are the reason many of us know The Secret. I know about The Secret for many years now and I have manifested wonderful things over the years including my wonderful boyfriend and our amazing relationship.

I learned about The Secret a little more when I came back to India for my visa stamping. Thanks to The Secret my visa was picked in the lottery in the very first attempt. I was very happy and grateful and came to India for stamping as soon as I got the approval. However, in the interview the visa officer told me that they need some extra documents to process my application and it can take up to 60 days. I was a little tense but I knew if I wanted it enough I would get the approval soon. Sixty days passed and I did not hear back from the consulate. As time passed by I got more and more tense and tried to control the situation by searching to expedite the process or by calling the consulate to ask about my case. I knew The Secret, I was doing everything right, I was saying thanks for my approved visa and I was truly grateful for it, so why was it not working?! After 135 days I was discouraged and I thought my dream will never come true. My boyfriend was desperately waiting for me in the USA but he couldn't do anything. I asked the Universe to give me a very specific sign and if I saw it then I would know that I was doing the right thing and my approval was on its way. My sign was a visa approval story on The Secret website. I opened the website and guess what was the first story?! 'Visa Approved'!

I was so excited. After 4 months I finally felt hopeful and excited. Then and there I decided to trust the Universe and I stopped calling the consulate and waiting for an update. I used to feel restless all the time and I used to check my email 100 times a day. I started thinking about what I would do once I go back. I focused on how it would feel to see my boyfriend after 4 months. And I decided to enjoy my stay with my family before I left. I started going out with my friends as I knew I had to leave soon. I made a list 'things to do before I leave', I packed my bags, visited the doctor, bought some souvenirs for my friends and started looking for flight tickets. And guess what happened!? I received an email in 3 days later and I am travelling back to the US next week!!

What I learned was you have to trust the Universe and let go and you will receive only if you really want it and when you are ready to receive it. Time and distance doesn't matter! Next in line is manifesting an amazing job close to my boyfriend.

Trust the Universe and it will work!

I'm originally from India, currently working in my dream city and living the life I manifested through The Secret.

To everyone reading this, I'd like to say one thing. There is no dream too big to achieve with the help of the Universe. Here's the trick, you have to get really clear about what you want. Then ask, believe. let go and receive.

I came to the US 2 years ago to pursue my MBA. It was my dream since childhood to work in New York and with every step I tried to align everything in my life to bring me closer to this dream. I had to find a company willing to sponsor my visa. My visa had to get picked in the lottery and finally, step 3 was it had to get approved. Of course, all this is easier said than done. But for me, I truly believed in myself, I believed in my company, in my lawyer and more than anything I truly believed that there is a higher power out there, call it God or the Universe, but I knew I was going to get this.

As luck would have it, I did find a company to sponsor me and got picked in the lottery. I knew this had to have been because I manifested things I truly believed that I would achieve and I stayed positive throughout. It has been 10 long, beautiful months and finally today my visa has been approved! The joy that I feel right now cannot be put out in words. It's so overwhelming to feel this and to know that I achieved this because of The Secret.

I remember the times when I would just imagine the things I would do, where I would go to celebrate and the people who would be as delighted as me. I imagined everything and stayed positive throughout. I did not let myself get crazy but instead patiently waited. I let it go so God and the Universe could add their magic and bring me this good news.

To my dearest Universe, thank you, thank you, thank you! To anyone reading this, here is The Secret:

Get clear about what you really want. Talk to the Universe, talk to yourself, fill yourself with positive vibes and finally ask, believe, receive and always be grateful every single day for all that you have! Life is beautiful.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

An optimist. I like to look at the bright side of things.

I would like to say thank you to God, Rhonda Byrne and The Secret team for sharing this with the world.

Here are some of my manifestations after reading The Secret.

1. I put in my name in the American lottery. I always visualized and had an internal dialogue with myself about my success. I even made myself a confirmation letter for the lottery and put it on my phone and I stared at it each morning with gratitude. When the time came for the results, guess what? I won!

2. My best friend whom I have had feelings for stopped talking to me and our friendship was going down the drain. I was so devastated, so I tried gratitude and visualized her texting me and telling me shes missed me. The next day, she texted and told me how she missed me!

3. One day during the drive to church, my dad was driving and I was in the back seat with my siblings. I just imagined him telling me to come and drive to church as I stared out the window. A few seconds later he turned back and said “Come and drive us to church”. I was so stunned!

Just believe, visualize and you will receive.

I am a 28 year old mother. I have a beautiful baby boy! I work as a Personal Care Aide.

Late May I begin to write down the things that I wanted in the present, just as if I already had them. Back in early June I begin to do some affirmations for wealth and abundance. I wanted more income and I had been trying different thing but nothing seemed to work! So when I started my affirmations I also starting doing visualizations of me having more. One of the main things I was in need of and wanted really bad, was a new car! So I begin to imagine myself in a car and how I would feel if I had it!

It was about a month that went by when one night after months of playing, I won the lottery!!! That’s right, I won!! I won it for over $7,000 dollars!! I was so happy and my mind was blown!! So after I got my reward I begin to look for a car. I searched and I saw a few I liked but not one that was perfect for me.

Then one night I was on Craigslist and I found it! I found my car, a 2004 black Honda Accord. I wrote every night in the present, thanking God for my car and how it had a sun roof that I wanted so much!! And guess what ??

It had a sunroof! Everything that I had asked for came to me. My dream car, paid in full and 6 months worth of insurance coverage! Once I sat back, I really realized that this stuff does work!!! I focused and it came to me!! I believe and now I have my own car that I name Black Rose! Thank you!

DUBLIN IRELAND

Hi, I'm a 23 year old Irish girl just graduated from university with flying colours.

It was in the summer of 2016 when I read The Secret for the first time and began watching the movie over and over again.

I had a good friend of mine who I recommended it to and he started telling me of his love for America and how he dreamed of travelling there since he was a child. We shared our visions with each other on a nightly basis. He was having some troubles so I told him why not take Jack Canfield's advice and go for something so big you would know it was from The Secret. Then visualise yourself living the dream in America!

My friend had been a monumental support to me that summer throughout a court case I was in and he helped me get out of a situation that could have lasted a very long time. Basically I really wanted to pay him back, so I started creating vision boards for him of America. I put in pictures of American girls who I said would be fighting over him!

About 30 days later of the two of us attracting little things, I received a once in a lifetime offer to study in America, working as a brand ambassador for an Irish company. My heart said yes but logically I would need a few pounds. Again, this is where my friend comes in! We would always be having silly little bets with each other and gambling is a big industry in Ireland so we placed our lottery bets to see if the Universe was willing to help! During this time I was continually reading The Secret and spectacularly in November of 2016, we won $10,000 allowing me to accept this amazing offer!

If all that wasn't enough, I looked at the vision board I had made for my friend and tears rolled down my eyes as I realised I would be travelling to each one of the places I had put on it!.

I have just returned after 2 years in America, had an amazing time and am delighted to be home.

It's almost hard for me to put into words how this experience has forever transformed my life and the biggest gift of all is my friend who saw something in me when no one else did. His mother named him after a famous saint but to me he is one himself. It's just incredible that the places I imagined my friend going, I ended up going to myself. Be careful who you wish for!

Just a small town girl with big city goals!

For quite some time I knew deep down I was destined for more. It had been two years since I had decided to quit my job and go full fledge with my business. After not seeing my finances increase, thoughts of walking away plagued my mind but deep down I didn't want to! Funny how God/The Universe works, because that to which I was seeking, was truly seeking me. However, I couldn't see it due to the thick clouds of poverty and lack that was taking over my mind.

In December of 2017 the idea of a vision board begin to surface. Next came the videos, books and eventually "The Secret" was literally dropped in my hands by a family member who had it for years. I held on to my intent, I kept meditating, I continued my visualizations and my entire view of life begin to change. Yes, I had my moments of doubt but I quickly changed it to truth. I never have been a quitter! Today, just one day before my birthday, I am picking a $20,000 winner's check from the Lottery! I am so grateful for everyone, especially like Rhonda, who wanted to gift us all with the knowledge of The Secret.

Magic Money Out Of Nowhere, Literally!!

AFRICA

I'm a student and prospective entrepreneur.

I wanted to attract a large sum of money to live a luxurious life. I had played the lottery many times, won small amounts, nothing above $20 but I was still grateful for the wins. I had no income coming in and I'd spent the last money I had playing the lottery every week, in hopes of winning the jackpot. Didn't happen. Depression was starting to kick in. I was owing a lot of people money and I was on deadline and at risk of losing friends because I owed them money. Then I thought to myself "what if I could actually attract money out of thin air".

I decided I wanted to attract money into my bank account out of thin air. Impossible you think, right? I made the request to the Universe. I gave gratitude in advance every second of the day. As I was giving thanks, sometimes a doubt would creep in and I started to feel like I was losing my mind for expecting something so "absurd" and "impossible". But I kept on giving thanks anyway.

Then it happened!! Unbelievable!!! I received the exact amount I asked for, out of nowhere! I still am not really sure exactly where the money came from. Probably from the Universal Bank. Now I can afford anything I want and I can help people in need, too! Gratitude is truly magic.

Have "child-like" faith people! Give thanks in advance, anything is possible! Thank you so much Rhonda and The Secret team.

Ask The Universe, Especially During Sunrise On The Beach!

Submitted by: Vacation Man

EAST POINT GA

I'm a former web developer that was in between gigs.

I was vacationing with my wife this summer and I was on a sandy shore during a sunrise at the beach. I was alone and asked the Universe in the sky for $22,000 US dollars from a lottery win. It was the last day of my vacation and two days later, guess what happened on that day?

I won $22,000 bucks! But that is not the amazing part of this story. I had been into The Secret since I watched the movie in 2006. I practice visualization constantly. What I am about to tell you not only will blow your mind but I am a firm believer that the Universe knows what you want even before you ask.

A week before my vacation I regularly go to the gas station and play the lottery. On this particular night, I ran into an avid lotto player that told me that I should play the numbers that he had played for 3 years now. He was so adamant about it that I played it about 6 times on one drawing. Because I was not going to be in town due to my vacation, I played those numbers for the drawing that would happen when I came back to town. Well, when I got back I accidentally played the numbers for the following day instead of the day I wanted to play. My wife told me to keep those tickets just in case it falls on that drawing, and I did just that.

Well, that day came and we watched on TV and wouldn't you know it, we won $22,000 dollars!! Wow, I was shocked. I felt suckered punched. I did not believe in miracles until that day. Ask and you will receive. It works! And remember this happened before I had even asked the Universe on the beach.

I am a 22-year-old law student. I used to attend ballet college and was a dancer for a while. I love to explore this beautiful planet and I love to learn new skills and information all the time. I love life! I love to have fun all the time and that is what my life is, fun! Everything about my life is incredible and I have come to appreciate this even more through practicing gratitude which I learned through The Power.

Hello everyone!

Thank you Universe and thank you to all those that believe and spread their knowledge and experiences using the LOA!

I am so incredibly grateful.

I have manifested many great things in my life but only knew what this power was when I found The Secret movie last June. I have been practicing the LOA for a year now and taking control of what I want in my life. I manifested the most beautiful man and relationship into my life and I am still with him now. I am so thankful for that.

For a year I had been trying to manifest a Superdraw Jackpot win. However, whenever I didn't win, I felt disappointment and then quickly brushed it off and said, 'Next time the Universe will deliver it to me'. I then realized this summer, a year after finding The Secret, that I needed to watch The Secret again. I did and I cried realizing I had been making a time delay by emphasizing how big my ask was to me, when it was only small for the Universe. I also cried realizing how much power was within me and how fantastic it was to know this again and to just be alive on this beautiful planet!

Overjoyed, I then decided to read some stories once finding this website. I was totally hooked reading all these beautiful stories I felt so happy for everyone who had received their desires! Then I decided to listen to The Power audiobook and it was incredible. It taught me so much more about love and gratitude and I have used it every day since; not only to manifest but it also brings me immense happiness!

So, just over a year since I set the jackpot win intention, I won! I have won the lottery Jackpot after finding out that I had to practice true gratitude for everything I have in life. I won on the exact date and won the exact amount I wrote on my Secret Check! I am so grateful! I can now use this as a tool to learn, do and explore so many new things. My family and I are now all living a stress free life with immense gratitude and I have convinced my family to practice the LOA too! Wonderful or what?! I will continue to practice the LOA to manifest and most of all give gratitude.

What a Universe to be alive in! Thank you, thank you, thank you, everyone! I send love and abundance to you all!

43 year old male, 1 year removed from divorce. Had been, in financial trouble for the past year as well as emotional issues.

I got divorced last year and took on all of the debt in order to keep my dogs, my house and everything in it. I soon found that going from one income to two incomes would not be so easy and I accumulated even more debt.

A friend from work introduced me to The Secret. I have been watching it periodically throughout the past year. I have The Secret To Money app on my phone as well as The Secret Daily Teachings. I live by The Secret and I knew it would help me. Last week I was sitting at home. I had forgotten to buy soda and I can not have my Pizza without soda. I decided I would go to the local Kwik Mart to get a bottle of soda. While there I decided to buy 2 $5 scratch tickets from the lottery. Keep in mind that in the past few months I kept saying out loud that I was going to win the lottery. The store had none of the tickets I wanted but they had the same lottery scratch off in $10 tickets. I told the clerk to give me one of those instead. He ripped off two and I stopped him and said that I only wanted one.

Knowing that I was going to win the lottery in my mind, I said, OK, just give me the other one so I don't regret it if someone else wins with it.

I went home and scratched off the second one first and it was not a winner. I scratched off the first one he gave me and I won $10,000.00!!!!!! It has helped tremendously and made my commitment to believing in The Secret and practicing my daily readings more solid. I am more confident, more positive and finally, truly happy again!

Thank you!

I am Rebecca from Ukraine and I am an artist. Also I will be a supermodel soon, because my height is 176 and my face is just perfect!!

First of all, I want to say how I am grateful to Rhonda Byrne, her team and all of the members of The Secret project for the treasure they gave to people! It is the most wonderful thing! And also I need to say that my native language is Russian, so there might be some mistakes in my text. Sorry for that!

I have been familiar with The Secret for less than one year, but I can't really express how much it has helped me and my family! Namely, the understanding of The Secret's principles helped us to win the lottery! Less than a week before our winning, I decided that winning the lottery was what I wanted. It would help us to create a lot of good things for us and other people in the world! I felt happy that I got my money before I got it! I filled myself with a stronger love for everything and everyone around me. I began to thank the Universe for the every little thing and very each day.

Now that we got the money we are of course, absolutely happy. We were also very happy before our winning, but this occasion just made those feelings even stronger. Now I am making new plans. I started to work on my body to make it perfect for modeling, because to work as a model has always been my dream! And this dream will come true, I know that!

Thank you all, thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am a very optimistic and faith driven person.

Dear Rhonda,

Thank you so much for the gift of The Secret. Thank you for sharing this knowledge and reminding me that I am the author of my own destiny.

I have purchased and read all your books and they have blessed my life. With your books I have manifested many things but my favorite to date is manifesting a lottery win. I was moving to another country to start a new life and I knew I needed money for that. So I got clear on what I needed and who I would share it with, printed out The Secret cheque, visualized, bought a ticket on Lottoland and said my 7 manifestations, and I won. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

The Universe works with mathematical exactitude when you are clear and have a strong enough faith. I cannot wait to share with you all my wonderful manifestations to come, thanks once again.

Testing Out The LOA.

A housewife, no children and about to achieve something positive and big that will impact the world.

Three days ago I started to read The Secret. I stopped on the 11th page as I wanted to just test it to see if it would work.

I cleared all my doubts from my mind. I wanted to start with something small that did not include another person's free will. So I set my intention to get $1000 this week and out of nowhere. Not from my family, not from my friends, not from people who already owed me money. I wanted it to come from something from pure 'out of the blue', like winning the lottery or winning a cash prize. And with the money I would receive, I decided that I would like to spend it on treatment for my skin.

So I applied the suggestions in The Secret book using the LOA for 2 days to manifest what I wanted. Then today, I found The Secret Documentary on Netflix and I watched it for only about 20 minutes in between adulting.

Then lo and behold, after about 4 hours, I received a WhatsApp picture from my husband, who is currently in his country. I am currently stuck in my own country due to the COVID pandemic. The picture that he send me was of a check for $1000 with my name on it, courtesy of his government!! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I never have received any such thing for the past 11 years. I do not even know what the reason for it was, maybe it was due to what's going on in the world. I received it as a spouse's token or something. My hand literally trembled and I was white as a sheet. I just couldn't believe it at first. I was literally in tears. It was exactly and specifically what I had asked for. I got $1000, out of the blue and it did not come from my family, not from my friends, not from people who already owed me money!

Here comes my skin treatment this weekend! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am 23 years old and I am a total believer! I am so grateful for all the amazing things that happen in my life every day! Thank you!

First of all I am so grateful for The Secret! I am so grateful for every day of my life and I love every single second! I don't want to write a long story about how I came to learn about The Secret and how I started believing because I am so blown away from what happened to me in the last days!

A few days ago I woke up very early and I thought it would be a good idea to write down everything I love about myself. After that I felt so positive that it felt like I was bursting in positive thoughts! It was a wonderful day so I decided to visit the city. Eventually I came across a sign saying; Lottery! So I walked in. I said to myself in total belief that I will win this lottery! So I played random numbers for 1 game because I was sure I wouldn't need a second try.

At home I felt so grateful for everything in my life and I started to write letters. I wrote letters to my best friends telling them that I just won the lottery and that I want to share my money from the lottery and what I will buy them as a present! I put them into envelopes with all the money I had in my purse because I was sure I wouldn't need that money anymore. I wrote down on a piece of paper "I just won 3,000,000€ in the lottery! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!", at least a hundred times! I put a piece of paper saying "I am the lottery winner" on my desk so I would see it every few minutes. I imagined myself calling the hotline for winners with tears of joy in my eyes. And then I let go. I just felt good and as positive as I could.

Lawyer, 32, married and extremely happy and grateful!!!!

Where should I begin? I am so happy, excited, grateful – I am feeling on top of the world because I have just won £12,000,000 on the Euromillions lottery!!!!!!!!!!

Some of you may have read one of many of my stories before as I have always wanted to write on here once everything worked out for me as I wanted to give everyone hope, inspiration, faith and happiness!!!

By way of background, I am a lawyer. I had been working for a few unpleasant employers throughout my short career but my last employer seemed to have been the cherry on top and I started feeling low and depressed after he made me redundant.

Due to the recession, I could not get back into the legal sector so I had to work in a supermarket. During my time there, I was desperately seeking to return to my profession but there was nothing out there apart from one particular job that I really wanted to get. I applied to the firm direct as the Law agencies were not doing my CV any justice and low and behold, I had an interview.

I thanked god and the universe throughout my interview for my job and I even resigned from my job at the supermarket because I honestly believed that the job was mine. I went for my second interview and received a call that afternoon to say that I had got the job! I was lost for words – the LOA works!!!

I received the salary of my dreams and I loved working there – the people are so lovely and I finally settled and became a success within their firm in the very short time I was there!

I am referring to my job in the past tense because what happened next was the most amazing thing that could have happened! Firstly I decided to attract £25,000 unexpected income and guess what – I did! I won it on a local television competition. I paid off most of my debts and had over £6,000.00 to play with. I then decided to manifest £12,000.000 as I wanted to help my family out and also pay off my remaining debt and live life freely with no more financial worries!

The following week I noticed that the Euromillions had a roll-over so I played and guess what – my ticket came up trumps! I felt sick as I was reading the numbers out on my computer and one by one, they were my numbers – I had finally cracked the code of the Secret – Whoopooooooooooooooooooooo!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thanks to Rhonda and the Secret team, me and my family are living such a stress free life!!!

THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU!!!!!!!

Living on my own, flitting from job to job trying to find my purpose in life and realise the luxurious kind of life I could see all around me

I had seen The Secret a few times and listened to the audio book constantly on my ipod, but never really seemed to put much focus and attention on attracting my desires. One day as my financial situation was reaching its lowest point I decided that I had to finally get off my lazy bum and put The Secret to work in a positive way for me.

I played the lottery every week and dreamed of the joy of winning the jackpot, but obviously without consistency and faith and this had not materialised. So I changed this. I made winning the lottery my dominant thought (although this was tested several times with other events in my life) and made it my obsession. I had to keep my faith strong, particularly in the face of increasing financial demand notices from my debtors and stay focussed on my goal, my joy and the things in my life I was grateful for.

To make believe so I could receive I requested viewings and details on multi million pound properties, decided what cars I would buy and wrote cheques to my friends and family members of how much I would give them from my winnings. One of the best things I did was write my letter of resignation for my work, which read that I had won the lottery and would therefore be leaving my job immediately.

I constantly rehearsed the excitement of collecting my winnings from the lottery people and jumped up and down in front of my mirror pretending to wave the huge cheque above my head.

When I purchased the ticket, I did so with a massive smile as I knew this one was a winner, and then carried on with my normal routine safe in the knowledge that this time the jackpot was mine.

On returning from a weekend away and looking at the draw results I was delighted, grateful, but not surprised to see my numbers were the ones that had been drawn.

I just want to say a big thank you to Rhonda and the team for bringing this Secret to the world in an easy to apply format. I am now moving on to attracting my perfect partner, after some more celebrating my win. :)

I'm a happy single mother and strong believer of The Secret.

I got divorced in 2009. I was in debt taking care of my daughter and had only a low paid job. Two years later I was introduced to The Secret and since then everything changed.

I wrote on my vision board the exact salary I was going to be earning and I ended up getting it. I was always joking with my friends and a family telling them I was a millionaire and that I have millions in my bank account. They would tell me that I was going crazy but I knew it was going to happen for me. I also wanted to show them that when you believe, you achieve.

Guess what?! I actually won a lottery! On the day of the draw I was sure they would call me or email me telling me I won. I actually wrote a formal letter informing me of the win. When the day arrived

I was sure I was going to win. Imagine the shock and the surprise on my family and boyfriend's faces when they heard about it.

Thank you Universe, it really, really, really works. Just keep the faith. Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!!

From rags to millionaire.

I was born with Cerebral Palsy and needed to use a wheelchair. I almost lost all my hope because I earn a minimum wage and there was barely anything tasty in my fridge. Whenever I felt hungry I could only put myself to sleep to hamper the feeling of hunger. This feeling of deprivation was getting to be too unbearable. One day during lunchtime, I felt too embarrassed to open my lunchbox because my food was so miserable. So I wheeled my wheelchair to the lottery booth around the corner and picked out the only coin in my pocket. I bought the ticket feeling real hope.

And ding ding ding! That night, I won 100000000 NTD, about 3.5 million US. I burst into thankful tears and knelt down in my bed! Wow! That amount was way beyond my imagination.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you

An introvert who has strong faith in God and his powers. Also, I believe in Karma, what you give is what you receive.

Hello everyone,

I want to thank everyone on The Secret team, thank you, thank you, thank you!

I came across The Secret about 8 years ago from one of the Universe's angels. At that time I saw the movie and read The Secret book I believed everything they said and mentioned. I believed everything because I manifested many things by using the law of attraction without knowing about it in the past. So when I saw the movie and read the book, I understood how magic and miracles had happened in many aspects of my life in the past. After this, I consciously applied The Secret many times and received the blessings of God and the Universe.

This is my first story here because I promised God and the Universe that this time I would write a story about my newest manifestation on this platform. So now I start:

Back in November 2020, I was just browsing through an online shopping platform to buy something. After a lot of research, I zeroed in on one particular product of my choice. Suddenly, a thought came into my mind that I should manifest it for free, and I immediately requested it from God and the Universe. I said that I love this product, and now, will you please give it to me. My request was like a small child who simply says to his parents that he wants some particular thing, believing that they will give it to him. But the child doesn't know how they will do it. Further, I visualized that product with me and I felt happiness and joyfulness as if I already had the product.

In the next few days, I kept viewing the product on my wish list with joy and happiness. One day I received an email with a gift voucher from my bank. I proceeded ahead to redeem that gift voucher and to my surprise, the voucher belonged to that particular online shopping website! I received approx 1/5th of the cost of that product in the gift voucher. So now God and the Universe had given me a sign that they were working on my request, and to have patience.

After a few days, the shopping platform provided an additional 40% discount for that product. But still, to buy it, I would still have to pay more than 1/5th of the price. So I thought that I should wait a little more.

In the meantime, I entered into some lottery kind of thing. The probability of winning it was very, very, low. In the 2nd week of December 2020, I received an SMS confirming that I was one of the lucky people that had won the lottery. I was in seventh heaven and started to share the good news with my near and dear ones. I had received more than 15 times the cost of that product by winning that lottery!

This is how it works. Throughout those days I was sure of having that product with me. Also, I received more than what I asked for.

Thank you, thank you, thank you to God. Thank you, thank you, thank you to the Universe. Thank you, thank you, thank you to The Secret team for this platform to publish magical stories. Thank you, thank you, thank you to all the people who post their stories here which motivate others.

I am in my mid thirties and have two children. I have always felt a connection to something greater and a sense of being guided. Then adulthood came with stress that made me feel like I lost the magic and power I always had. Depression took over. Until now!

The past couple of years were rough. A lot of ups and downs and I couldn't explain why I was going through any of the situations I found myself in. I would blame it on old beliefs that were passed down from other generations, or from the people around me. Depression took over and at one point not too long ago, I even thought that my children would be better off if I was not in their lives anymore.

I started meditating again and diving into different spiritual books and teachers. I always kept hearing those spiritual beings talk about The Secret but I never knew the full extent of its power.

One day I decided to order the book. I started reading and I couldn't believe how simple and clear it was all explained. So, of course, I started to put in practice everything The Secret says. I saw a change, not drastic but there was a change and I was thankful for that change. I noticed that I was able to reverse a negative thought right away when it showed up. Every morning when I get up and I place my feet on the floor I say thank you and continue to say it.

I finished reading The Secret but I felt like I needed something else so I decided to order The Magic. As I write this, I finished day 3 and the amount of good feeling that is in my body is amazing! Things are showing up as I say them. I was scratching a lottery scratch-off ticket and I said that this will be a 5X the amount ticket. When I scratched the next number the 5X was there! I feel like a kid again in a magical world.

I know that wonderful things will show up in my life going forward and I'll come back here and write about them.

Thank you, Rhonda Byrne, for giving us The Secret. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Soy una persona con una mente soñadora.

I believe The Secret. About 15 years ago I was in a class and the teacher showed us a movie. At the time I did not pay attention to the title but I liked it since I always liked a mystery. For many years I wanted to remember the name of the film. I could not remember it but I remembered some of the things that it said.

One day I turned on a streaming channel and there it was! The film was called The Secret! I saw it repeatedly and then I bought The Secret book. I read it and did The Magic Check practice that they recommended to carry out.

Although you may not believe it, 9 months after I made my 'wish book' and made out The Magic Check, I won my first lottery prize for almost 40 thousand dollars! With that money I could do many things that I wanted to do and enjoy a lot of things. Then 2 years after hitting my first prize, I received another lottery prize for almost 80 thousand dollars!! And believe me, I know for sure that there is another check out there that is on the way!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I love life and have been a follower of The Secret since 2007. I am a very happy and positive person. I love nature, animals and helping people.

Hello,

I have been a follower of the law of attraction since 2007 when I read Rhonda Byrne's book, The Secret. Thank you to you and your staff.

When I was younger and wanted something, I would just expect to get it and I would receive it. When I would apply for positions with the companies I worked for, I would go into the interview knowing that the job was already mine before the interview. I would always get the job. Back then I did not know there was a name for it until 2007 when I read The Secret. It was like magic, I was drawn to it and could not put it down. I read it for hours and took notes because it was not my book. A friend lent it to me and allowed me to read it and she was not even interested in it herself. I read The Secret every day, it gave me so much happiness and hope. I believed that I could do anything,

I have read The Secret at least 100 times and I eventually manifested a copy. It has been highlighted, underlined, torn, and tattered, and I still have it. I have won the Illinois lottery daily games so many times in amounts from $2,500 to $4,000 because I asked, believed, and received. But I also expected it so I manifested it.

I relocated to Arizona recently. I was looking for places to live and I saw these apartments I liked. I kept going to tour them and I saw myself in one of them. I wrote the address and apartment number down and two weeks later I received the approval to move in! I had read in The Secret where this lady wanted a house. She wrote the address down until it felt like it was her own place and she manifested the house.

I wanted this job at a certain company, making a certain amount of money. I wrote it down over and over again until I believed that it was mine. I then received the email saying that I had gotten the job and it also pays more than I had asked for!

I am so happy and grateful that The Secret and the law of attraction really works! If you can believe it and see it as already yours then it will manifest. Thank you, Rhonda, and thank you to your team.

*I am a young woman from South Africa who has practiced the law of attraction ever since reading The Secret.*

I have always wanted to win the lottery but I was always and forever changing the amount I wanted to win. That probably confused the Universe.

So this one time when I was sleeping, I had a woman come into my dreams. She told me the 5 numbers that I needed and she even showed me the amount I was going to be winning, which was R250,000 or about $16,000 USD.

I immediately woke up from my dream and wrote down the numbers but I could only remember 3 of them. But that did not really matter too much to me because I knew that the Universe had already spoken. I knew that I would be winning that amount anyway.

So I waited for the daily lotto amount to hit R250,000. Then I played the 'quick pick', because in my mind, whatever numbers I picked were going to be the ones that would come out since the Universe had my back. When I viewed the quick pick numbers, I saw that the 3 numbers I remembered from the dream were on my pick.

In the evening, the results for the daily lotto came out. I recognized the numbers and they all did indeed match my ticket. I won R250,000! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am a young woman from South Africa who has practiced the law of attraction ever since reading The Secret. Thank you so much for your teachings and for making us aware of how powerful our mind is. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am a single mother of 6 although they have all grown up now. I am 57 years old and work in the health care sector. I have a vision board and I create a new one every year. I always put a lot of things on it. One of those things was a holiday that I am going on in 3 weeks. One of the things I put on it was that I wanted to pass my management course. And I didn't just pass my management course, I got a merit which is a high qualification.

One of the other things on my board was a copy of The Secret Check that wrote out and that I had gotten from The Secret website. I had written $8,000 on it which was to pay for a treatment for losing weight that wanted to try. I dated the check for a specific month and date. I kept writing things down every day and imagining that I was on my way to the treatment I wanted. I would also say thank you for the money I have received.

Then I received $8,350 from a lottery win! It did not come on the date I wrote down, it came just one day later. It was a day late but I didn't complain about that at all! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Visualizing really works and with the addition of writing things down and reading them, it made me feel it so much more. So thank you to everyone and thank you so much for The Secret. It is helping me get on the right path in my life. This really does work. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

A young girl with big dreams and even bigger belief in God.

My family was in deep debt and our debtors were constantly calling us for their money. My mum's job wasn't doing well. I am a freelance writer and I wasn't getting any work. My young sibling had gone back to school without paying the school fees.

Things looked extremely bleak for us. There didn't seem to be hope or a way out for us. I was sad and unhappy. I spend months feeling lost and in despair. Sometimes I would try to get up from the dark hole I was in but the little faith I had would fail me and I couldn't find a way out.

Then one day I decided that enough was enough. I knew about The Secret because I had read it and even practised The Magic some years before. I cleaned up, took out a piece of paper, and began writing. I wrote of all the things that I was grateful for. I wrote of how happy I was because I had won the lottery and we were able to clear all our debts and get our lives in order. I believed with every part of me that it would come true and even imagined it all happening. My heart felt all the gratitude of the moment and I kept repeating, 'Thank you, God' over and over. I told God I was faithful that I would see His grace in my life. Then I folded the piece of paper and put it away.

I then went on with my life and got busy with other things.

Believe it or not, that night I got a call telling me that I had won the exact amount of money that I had asked for. I was excited and overjoyed! Although I had expected it, I had been heartbroken so many times before by things going wrong that I almost didn't believe it was actually happening.

For someone out there going through a rough patch right now, don't lose the faith. Hold on to your dream. Be grateful, pray to God, and most of all, have faith. Faith can literally move mountains. Believe that what you seek will all come true. Even when you fall, rise up again and stay focused. You may give up right before the big miracle so don't. Keep your faith and watch your dreams unfold before your eyes. May your deepest desires come true. Much love to all.

So I just graduated from the Toronto Film School and I was unemployed and not really motivated in any way to look for a job because i KNEW it would come to me. Even tho I had never seen The Secret, my mother and I have been working with a spiritual healer or a psychic for a long time. She was always so positive and I was constantly amazed at what she would tell us. I've always known to look for "signs" in my daily life, but I always assimilated it with God and assumed it wasnt under my control.

I was always told by this healer that I have to think positive all the time. And as long as I did, everything would be perfectly fine. This was obviously hard to wrap my head around as a result this was not the first time I had been told to do this. I was so naively looking at it from a "wishful thinking" perspective.

Anyways, after seeing The Secret EVERYTHING CLICKED!! My entire life made sense all of a sudden and the order of everything made all the sense in the universe!!! I had never felt so energetic and motivated and happy in my entire life!!! Also, The spiritual healer confirmed this even more and told me this was what she does and this is what she is about!!!! Truly a gift from God!!

After watching The Secret many times, I made it my goal to receive a $10 million cheque. I didnt know how I would get it, but I knew I would!! I printed off the cheque they provide on this site!

After meditating, celebrating I had already won the money and Thanking the Universe for my gift I found myself talking to my mother on the phone. I told her to buy a lottery ticket. It didnt matter which one or what time she got it, because I had already won the money!!

Well low and behold...the draw was the very next day, as they always draw the winners on a Friday and this was a Thursday.

I am a happily married 28 year old mother of one, who is living my best life thanks to the knowledge of The Secret and knowing how to harness The Power.

I am so happy to finally write my story here!

I first watched 'The Secret' quite by accident about two years ago. I was looking for something else on Google and I accidentally clicked on the 'wrong' link which led to the film. Well, I tell you, that was the best 'mistake' I ever made in my life! I was blown away by the message and immediately started incorporating the principles into my life with some success, however as time went on I got a bit disillusioned and somewhat forgot the message.

I had a baby last year and had to go on maternity leave, and then several months ago, my husband lost his job. As the bills mounted, I got more and more depressed. Then I heard that Rhonda Byrne had written another book called 'The Power.' I immediately got the book and started to read it. When I read the section on 'The Power and Money', I realised that my attitude towards money and bills was very negative. I immediately changed the way I was thinking... Whenever I received a bill, I inwardly thanked the provider for the service they had given me and I happily paid. I stopped trying to hold on to money and spent it with a smile on my face knowing that there was much more to come. I constantly told myself that money loved me and came to me easily and frequently.

In early August, the National Lottery had a double rollover and a lovely couple won the jackpot (about £10million). I remember reading their story and being so happy for them. After I read their story, I declared out loud to myself that I would win the next double rollover jackpot.

I immediately started to live my life as if I already had the money. I wrote lists of all the things I would do with the money and made a vision board with a picture of my lottery numbers. I thanked the Universe daily for the money, which I truly believed was mine.

Last Monday, I was watching TV when an advert came on announcing that the next lotto draw was a double rollover. I was so excited, my heart skipped a beat! I knew with all my heart that my time had finally come. I could hardly contain my excitement. I bought my lottery ticket knowing it was a mere formality, and that the money was already mine! I printed out The Secret universal cheque, wrote down the estimated lottery jackpot, and added this to my vision board. The cheque was dated for today... the day after the lottery draw.

I woke up this morning with the biggest smile on my face! Even before I checked my numbers, I knew I had won. As far as I was concerned, I was a multi-millionaire!

The key thing to remember is that whatever you want in life is already yours in this moment. Just live your life like you already have it and the universe will bring it to you. You have the amazing power to call forth whatever you believe to be true. I knew with EVERY fibre of my body that I would win the lottery, and I did! How fantastic is that!

I wish you all health, wealth, happiness, and abundance in all areas of your life, and I look forward to reading all your wonderful stories.

May the universe bless you with all the things that you desire.

PORTMORE, JAMAICA

I am a 22 yr old successful entrepreneur and a law student of the University of the West Indies. I love life and everything and everyone in my life. My passion is fashion, music and law and order. I look forward to speaking things into being as each day passes

I feel great that I am typing this message now and able to share my story with millions of people worldwide. I feel nothing but love and extend this frequency to those who read my story. I also want to thank everyone who shared a story that I read, you have truly inspired me and for that I will be forever grateful.

Okay so it all started when I watched The Secret last year October thanks to my loving boyfriend. It was truly inspiring and I remember writing four folder pages of all the things I wanted to do in life as well as to acquire.

As time progressed I realized I started to think negatively again, as I started to limit what I had written on those four pages. This continued until December 2010 until I said to myself, “I need to watch The Secret again, makes notes and truly try to be positive as negativity isn’t working for me thus far”. I had played that role far too long now.

So I did. I remember talking to a friend about having to take a year off from law school due to my finances and wanting to find a way to make money to fuel my online business which would pay my tuition. He suggested to get a job and I thought to myself why not. So I said, “I would use The Secret to get a job”.

I remember applying for a managerial position in which I thought I had all the skills-set based on past work experiences online. I cut out the job posting from the newspaper and placed it on my room wall, only thinking positive thoughts! And I was short-listed for an interview and I was very nervous but tried my best. After the interview I started to doubt myself because I believed I was too young for a managerial position. I ended up spending Christmas in the United States and was worried that the company would call my Jamaican numbers and not get me so they would give the position to someone else. I returned to the Island in January 2011 and saw no missed calls from a number that could have been the company’s. I was sad but kept pushing myself to be positive.

A week later they called saying they would not be able to offer me a managerial post but another position, as a training administrator. I was excited and said to myself, “Imagine if I had remained 100% positive! I would have gotten the Managerial post”. #thinkonthat

But the story does not end there. After receiving the job I started to become negative again for more reasons than one. I said to myself, “I needed to study the law of attraction in depth”. I ended up sharing the story of The Secret with my supervisor who then did her own research and taught me about the 12 laws of the universe including the law of attraction. I was motivated. We both supported each other and I started to listen to Abraham Hicks daily on Youtube. I realized I needed to do more and that involved seeing myself as having the things I wanted.

I remember watching a TV show on TLC-The Lottery Changed My Life about this lady in the California that had written $166,000,000 on a piece of paper and placed it under her pillow and slept on it for 6 weeks; every time she came into contact with the paper she thought about helping her family financially and 6 weeks later she won the lottery for $166,000,000!!! I was instantly revitalized! I shouted- she used the law of attraction and what I learnt from The Secret!

So I wrote a new list of the things I wanted, daily! Yes I did daily affirmations, starting with a Blackberry which I received from my first full month's paycheck. I made voice notes of my affirmations on my blackberry and listened to it daily while I drove to work and I started to be grateful for everything I had more than ever.

I also developed a new goal of wanting to win the lotto and super lotto jackpots in my country. So I became a lottery player. I told people it was a financial investment in my future and I gladly bought my tickets. Here and there, negative thoughts came back because I was once a worrier (now I know different 😊) and I didn't win anything until I started reading The Secret stories on this website. Boy was I grateful and was inspired. I go in and read more when I need a top up wink.

And Guess what? I won the lottery twice! Twice! YES!!!! I did it, and now I am manifesting winning the jackpot! This was also made possible by reading a story by a lady who won the lottery over 30 times since January 2011 to date.

MrsDesireWealthWinsTheLottery2011 – is the blog site that I still pay close attention to now. She also uses daily affirmations and the law of attraction and essentially everything that is said in The Secret.

But guess what else? I attracted two books I have been wanting to read: The Power by Rhonda Byrne and Think & Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill. I remember reading the introduction of The Power on The Secret's website and thinking, wow I have to get this book, I really need and want to read it. I kept thinking of finding the time to go to a bookshop to get it as well as Napoleon Hill's Think & Grow Rich as I saw it was a recommended book on this website. This was in April 2011. Honestly I think I forgot about it consciously but subconsciously, it was clear as day!

Last week, my mother traveled to the US to visit loved ones and I remember her calling me randomly saying: "Sonny I'm in a book store looking on some books of how to manage a business and I saw a book that I thought you would like...how about Business 101...etc". Instantly I thought to myself, here is the opportunity to get the books I have wanted to read!! I quickly got excited stating mummy thank you so much of thinking to buy books for me but I have two in mind I really wanted to get for awhile now but didn't get around to a bookstore. She gladly wrote the names of the books and guess what, I have the two books beside me on my bed right now :D. How easy was that? Manifesting is fun and I love it and will forever use it to get what I desire.

I also read The Science of Getting Rich available on this site and what can I say; I am bursting with knowledge of life's ultimate secret of love. This is what I take from The Power daily: Law of attraction is the law of love. When was the last time you gave love? #thinkonthat

So now, I am a multi-millionaire, fashion mogul in Jamaica and Entrepreneur building my companies and giving love to all I come in contact with! I just wrote a job description for a personal assistant post as I will be hiring one (speaking it into being that would be: I have a personal assistant wink) soon as well as created a gmail address where all resumes should be sent #pow !! I feel so good right now! 😊 😊 😊 😊 😊

As Bob Marley would say ” One Love”

Thank you Rhonda! The Power really hits the nail on the head. I am loving everything and everyone more than ever now!

22 year old that has just come out of a deep depression to win the lottery!

Hi and thank you for reading my story. I hope it helps everyone going through some tough times to realize that there is a way out. All it takes is patience and faith 😊

I had been in a depression for the last year and saw no way out. I seemed to be making things worse for myself but could not see how to stop it. I am a big believer in the Law of Attraction (after being introduced to it by The Secret) but even all the study and practice didn't seem to be working for me... I was in a big hole!

After a year of patience and practice, I managed to get myself out of it with the help of my beautiful girlfriend. It was a fairly slow process but it brought blessings hundreds greater than the pain I was going through. I learnt many lessons and now feel better and stronger than I ever have.

With my renowned faith and strength I was able to manifest us a Lottery winning of $4,000,000. I am so thankful to every one of you for posting your stories and inspiring those struggling to reach for the stars! I know you definitely helped me!

Remember on those horrible days that you are eventually going to see the light and be far better off then you were before.

Thanks to Rhonda and The Secret team.

I have been reading The Secret for the past 2 years but applying it into my life has not been easy because of my background and my upbringing. My parents use to tell me to think of the good and the bad side, weigh it before you take any action.

But when I got The Secret I got to know we can do everything, only if we believe and we should never compete, our share is already provided. The only thing we need to do is to pick it.

I registered for the American Visa lottery on 18 October, 2012. All I was thinking was I am not going to compete with all these millions of people around the world who have also registered to participate in the lottery. My name has already been picked, I am already a winner. So day in day out, I was having the feelings of a winner, smiling to myself and feeling happy.

On 2nd May 2013, I checked my Status and God has been so good to me. I HAVE WON!!!!!!.

I all that I want to say to everyone reading this is that NEVER compete in anything you are looking for just Believe, feel it's presence and You shall receive.

I'd like to share my story with you. I came across The Secret two years ago and I did practice it and after some time I got a pay rise. I do believe it was because of the law of attraction because I constantly visualized it. But for some reason after that, I kind of forgot about The Secret.

I started playing the lottery regularly but without much success. Then my ex boyfriend came into my life and for 8 months I was not very fine. I have to say that last year was a financial nightmare for me. I had a pretty huge negative balance in my account and I was in a relationship with a very negative person. He lived in Portugal and I sent him money every month because he didn't have a job and I felt sorry for him.

After some time I just couldn't stand his negativity anymore. He was constantly in a bad mood due to his situation and I couldn't really make him become more positive, even though I was trying very hard. So I decided to break up with him, which was the best thing I could do, because I could finally be positive and happy again.

Afterwards I started reading The Magic again and practiced The Magic though I stopped at day 6. I put a 5 euro bill on my fridge with a note saying "Thank you for all the money I've been given throughout my life" and another note saying "Thank you universe for my lottery win". I had those notes on my fridge for two weeks and thought about all the stuff I would buy with the money.

On Tuesday I played the lottery again as I did every week. I just picked some random numbers and didn't give much thought about it.

When the lottery numbers were announced I couldn't believe it, I had five correct numbers and won over 50.000 euros!

It's just a fact that the universe always listens to your wishes! I think one just has to be patient, even if it takes months, or in my case two years. Always stay positive and trust in the universe, it will always deliver. Most importantly be grateful for all the things that you have and visualize all the things you want to have.

Thank you Rhonda for The Secret and The Magic and thank you universe! And many thanks to everyone here who post their stories, they really inspired me to carry on.

Won H1B Visa In The Lottery System!

A woman whose life was of utter hopelessness and devastated, to manifesting every dream into reality

First I would like to thank Rhonda and her team for making billions of lives realize the potential of human thoughts and feelings. Also, thanks to all of those who shared their stories which has been such an inspiration

I had applied for my visa in 2011, but by the time my application reached USA, the cap got closed. In 2012 there was no requirement at onshore, so initially I did not have any hopes at all. But I was grateful to universe everyday for granting me a visa giving me an opportunity to work in USA.

Long story short, finally they initiated visa. Everything was smooth until this year they declared there would be a LOTTERY due to high number of applications.

But I believed no matter what I will surely get my visa. But as days passed I became very restless, worried, highly obsessive and frustrated .The wait was impacting me and I was started to doubt.

I came to this website to read stories and tried to stay extremely positive and follow whatever has been told in The Secret.

Still I could not overcome my doubts. Fighting myself was my biggest challenge.

Then I thought, I have two choices.

1) Keep worrying, doubting and feeling negative that of all those applications how can I get through the Lottery.?

OR

2)As per The Secret, act as though I have already received it. Believe and have an unquestionable faith that I shall receive whatever I have asked.

So, I thought whether I will get it or not, let me give the second option a chance. That way I will be happy all the time until the results are out and after the results I still have a good 50% chance that I will continue to be happy.

After this analysis, I started to be very cheerful with my colleagues. I enjoyed my work, started learning new things and eventually I started doing great at my work.

I did not know the day of lottery was on Apr 7th. I was just lying down and visualizing that my petition is fed to computer and it has picked me. I was feeling that tremendous joy. Whenever I visualized it, I had such an adrenaline rush that I could not sleep at night.

On Apr 8th, they announced the Lottery had already been conducted on Apr 7th. I was so shocked to see that! I used to visit all the blogs and feel as grateful as possible for every post that said “Got through lottery and received receipt number”.

Sometimes to test, I would say Universe speak to me. If I have gone through the lottery let the lift which is moving upward, stop and come down abruptly. And believe me every time I made such requests it CAME TRUE.

It was like the whole Universe was speaking to me that I have already won it. I could feel it in my veins too. As these thrilling days continued, I just happen to know that my name was in the selected 1st list of candidates. I was so ecstatic and thanked the universe and every one millions of times.

So guys who are still doubting, just give it an honest try. There is nothing to lose and it is harmless in trying.

I bless that every dream deeply wanted by individuals come true.

Thanks to everyone again.

I am 21 years old, loving life and creating abundance all around me thanks to The Secret!

I am so excited to be writing this story because I've read so many of these stories for inspiration and I'm so blessed and grateful to have a "story" of my own to share.

I've read and watched The Secret a few years ago but after manifesting a few small things I kind of forgot about it and went on with life. Recently I was laid off my job and was suffering my biggest depression period. I am in a new state and also experienced other major changes. I started having horrible anxiety and anxiety attacks, which I guess came from all the stress because I had never experienced that before moving and being so alone. Since I was unemployed and had a lot of time on my hands, my negative and fearful thoughts made me spiral downhill. I ended up watching The Secret and decided enough was enough, of all my negativity.

I started feeling grateful for everything I did have, instead of focusing on whatever lack I had. This completely changed my mindset so I could effectively move forward to my second step of manifesting. After getting myself out of my depression I was able to make a believable goal to manifest. I decided I wanted to win $33,000 dollars so I would be financially free and focus on finding myself a job that I'd be happy to do. Next I would visualize everything I'd do with the money and I did this so often I felt like I had the money before I had it! There is this certain scratcher I loved to buy because I felt like I always won something and the top prize is $33,000 dollars. That's where I got that number from. I knew I was going to win the money and after lots of faith, visualization, money affirmations and about 4 weeks of unwavering confidence I won my $33,000! Thank you, thank you, thank you for my money!

We are so blessed with so many resources to learn exactly how to apply the law of attraction with books or youtube videos etc., so we can all have amazing, happy, fun, free, abundant lives! I had to remind myself not to give up and I hope if anyone has a little bit of doubt just power through and believe with a childlike imagination because we have nothing to lose but so much to gain.

Have a great day!

Just a young dreamer with a positive attitude.

In September 2012 I was going through a period where I wasn't very happy with any aspect of my life. I used to travel to the US for work and I just loved going there and everything about it. I just felt so at home there and all I could think about was moving there. But how?

A friend knew I was going through a rough time and suggested I watch The Secret. I did so and immediately felt the black cloud lift. All I could see was a bright future for me and finally the opportunities for all the goals I wanted to accomplish were opening up.

I made a vision board and in the middle of the board I attached my face on to a green card. I always thought about America and how much I loved it and wanted to live there.

I applied for the Green Card lottery in October 2012 and I believed I was going to win because I had The Secret. In the time between applying and the draw in May 2013, I began to weigh everything in pounds, set my weather settings to Fahrenheit and downloaded an LA times app. I told people I work with that I was planning to move to the US in 2014. I wrote in one journal how I'm so grateful that in 2013 I will be planning my move to the USA. Whenever I went to visit the US I looked up at the American flag and gave such a good feeling. I really LOVED that flag!

May 2013 finally arrived and I had an alarm already set in my calendar saying "CONGRATULATIONS! YOU HAVE BEEN SELECTED". After my alarm went off, I logged on to the site to see that said YES! I had been selected for further processing! I did it!

For the next 6 months I compiled all my documents for my interview and planned as if I was moving there.

When it was Thanksgiving I decided I would invite my friends around for a Thanksgiving feast. I'd never had Thanksgiving before but I decided since I'll be moving there I should get used to the tradition. It was a success!

My interview date finally arrived and although I had spent a lot of time being anxious and nervous, everything went well on the day and I now have the right to live and work in the USA.

I am so,, so so thankful and grateful for Rhonda Byrne and The Secret. It has truly changed my life. Thank you, thank you!!!!

Hi!

First of all I wanna to say thank you to Rhonda for sharing The Secret and also to all the people that share their stories here and motivate me.

I'm 16 years old and I am in high school. I read The Secret 2 years ago and it changed my life completely. But the most amazing thing that happened to me was last week when I played and won the lottery. And I will tell you how that happened.

First of all I wrote all the things that I am going to do with the money, like traveling, buying a lot of things, going to luxury hotels, etc. Then I chose the numbers at random and I was pretty sure that those numbers will be the winners and I felt so thankful for winning the lottery. I visualized me and my family in Bora Bora, me in Chanel buying so much clothes and always happy and feeling grateful.

Although the first time I didn't win, I tried it again and I finally won!!!

So now I am gonna spend all my money on things that really make me happy.

Hope you like my story and it inspires you all to follow your dreams.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Loving life every day.

I am so blessed for how much I have attracted with the LOA. Thank you so much Rhonda for writing such life changing books.

After reading The Magic I learnt to be more aware of my feelings and thoughts and I made myself more grateful and happy.

I had heard about a Magic box technique from a friend which sounded like a great idea.

So I got a shoebox, collected and printed off pictures of my desires including a picture of Amsterdam and put them in the box. On the top of the box I wrote “Whatever is contained in the box – IS!”. From that moment onwards I believed that my desires would come to me.

Within 2 days I got an email about a cheap holiday to central Amsterdam. I told my mum about it but she couldn’t afford to buy it within 4 days, the time the offer finished.

But luckily my nan was there and she offered to pay for it! Perfect situation! I attracted it! Not only until the next morning did I realise Amsterdam was in my box! I cried I was so overwhelmed and happy.

A couple of days later I really believed I would win the lottery. It had been a desire of mine for a long time. As I placed my ticket also in the box, I even scripted out how I bought the ticket and how happy I was to receive the money and what I was going to spend it on.

I went and won!

I love the LOA for making my dreams come true, anything is possible.

You begin to feel better therefore you are more positive and grateful so you can achieve and fulfill your goals because it's all a mindset. If you want, you can. Nothing is impossible. Read the book. Lottery Win And university

I live by The Secret and I am so grateful to have discovered The Law of Attraction while being a teen and am using it to plan my whole life ahead.

I was lucky enough to come across the book at the age of 16. It wasn't until a year later that I decided to use it in a big way.

I've always wanted to go to university in England but my parents couldn't afford to pay for it, so I started to visualize winning the lottery. It took me a year and 2 months, but it still happened. The reason why it wasn't happening faster was because I wished it so bad and couldn't let go of this wish. Once I understood that letting go and trusting the universe to grant my wish was what held me back, it simply happened. I got all the numbers correct : 1, 2, 6, 11, 17, 49. I can still feel the joy of that exact moment when I found out that I was going to be a millionaire. My parents and I put half of the money into an account so I could use it for college and with some of the other money, we helped so many animal shelters from around my city and I am extremely happy that I succeeded in saving and making the lives of hundreds stray animals better.

After that, I focused on getting into University of Cambridge. I watched videos on YouTube of people that studied there and visualized myself walking around the city, going to classes and making new friends. I even joined some Facebook groups of Cambridge students. I sent my application and worked really hard on writing some essays and in November I got the invitation to the interview.

Long story short, the interview went perfectly, I got the highest grades on my exams and got accepted!

I want everyone who reads my story to feel inspired to go after what they want, even if it seems impossible. Ask, visualize, feel the joy of having whatever you want, be grateful, and finally, let go of your wish and trust the universe that it will make it happen.

I love being on this spiritual journey of the Law of Attraction and following The Magic.

To All Involved in The Secret and The Magic,

Thank you. I will be forever grateful. Thank you for teaching me what it is like to have a different life, a life I create myself. I love it and it truly is the most empowering feeling ever!!

I promised myself that once I received my latest manifestations that I would write on The Secret Stories website and it has truly helped keep me motivated and inspired throughout my journey. So here goes:

I started my journey with The Secret in August 2011 and since that time I have manifested some amazing wishes:

- My beautiful healthy daughter who brings love and joy to me every moment of every day.
- A new iPhone 6 within 7 days of visualizing it.
- €15,000 within just 2 -3 weeks of asking the universe.
- A beautiful home where we have lived rent free for the past 4 years.
- Setting up my own company with my brother 3 years ago.
- Phenomenal sales and awards for our company.
- Amazing relationships with every member of my family.
- A healthy body every day.

I could go on. There are so many things I have manifested it truly amazes me. Recently there were a few wishes I really wanted to come true before 2015 came to an end:

The signing of two key projects for our company. These were both signed on 15th December 2015!!! I truly feel blessed and grateful to the universe for these signed contracts as it really means the world to us and our company.

The big one, or as I focused on it as the “small one” was I manifested a lottery jackpot win in mid-December! In the run up to the draw I felt what it was like to have the money, I looked up houses I liked in my home town, looked up financial advisers I could speak with and visualized handing checks to my family, friends and those I owed money to. I feel so blessed!!

They key things I have learned in this whole law of attraction and manifestation process are:

Gratitude. The Magic is the most powerful book in this regard for getting into the gratitude mindset.

The power is within us, don't blame outside factors, everything that is in our lives we created. Feel grateful, happy and like you have what you already want. Feeling is the key ingredient, not thinking. Once you feel it the universe connects with that vibration so quickly and easily. Feel happy and grateful all day long and watch your life unfold.

Wishing you all true love, joy and lots of happiness and success in your law of attraction and manifestation journey.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! xxx

I am a 31 year old female who has always tried to figure out her purpose in life.

I've always been a very ambitious individual with a passion to strive in this world and become someone important. On July 2014 as I was returning from my 6 month maternity leave back to work, I was laid off due to budget cuts. A few months later my husband was laid off too, then our car was broken in to. Soon enough we were struggling to pay our bills, had marital problems, sunk into debt and then had to turn in our apartment.

I was perplexed and disappointed at the turn of events. I had even enrolled in graduate school but had to pause my program because of all the stress factors.

In 2011 I was introduced to The Secret by my husband. He was on his way to throw out the garbage and he saw a book laying on the floor. It had no case cover. You guessed it, the book was The Secret. There are no coincidences.

We immediately read the book and started practicing the content but I didn't fully comprehend the concept. Flash forward, in July of 2014, I started exploring a range of self help books; Think and Grow Rich, The Power of Your Subconscious Mind, and The Science of Getting Rich. As I read these books I developed a strange desire to win the lottery. I'm not sure if it was subconsciously due to my desire to change my financial circumstances but this desire wouldn't go away. I always wanted to travel the world and help others in the process. As I started playing the lottery, I would win small amounts here and there until I finally hit the jackpot!!! I am a millionaire now who gets to travel the world while helping others. I spend time with my family and friends! Life is a blessing! God is great!!!

Thank you !!!

Dreamer is the word that describes me perfectly.

Thanks a ton Rhonda Byrne and the whole team of The Secret for introducing The Secret to the world. I submitted certain stories here but they were not posted. But this one deserves the most in comparison to all the previous ones.

Every year in our complex a lottery is organised. We take the tickets every year but without any hope. But the previous two years were different. Last year we took a ticket during Durga Puja celebration. But my siblings and I were too obsessed and tense regarding winning one. Every time a lottery prize was announced, we felt upset that we were not the winners.

Fast forward to the Holi celebration this year, we took four tickets for the four of us. This time it was different. Our belief was stronger. We were neither obsessed nor tense. The three of us were having discussions as to who will go to receive the prize as if we were sure we were going to win one. There were eleven prizes in all. The 1st one was for 7 silver coins, the 2nd one for 5 silver coins, the 3rd one for 4 silver coins and the rest were for one silver coin each. The announcement started from the last one first, i.e. the eleventh to the 1st. Gradually the 1st one was announced and again we didn't receive any winnings. But compared to the last time, this time we were still smiling, we were not disheartened.

Then there was another announcement, an extra surprise lottery. And yes, we won this one!!

Our happiness was for dual reasons, one of course was that we won the lottery and the other was because our faith won. This by far is the most amazing experience. I did have my share of doubts but the one thing I can never doubt is that the LOA true. Of course it is. I have many reasons to believe so. Just don't be obsessed. As it is said, let go.

I am truly grateful for getting this life changing knowledge. Thank you and Magic Dust for all the amazing people out there.

Lottery Winning Green Card.

I'm a 21 year old college student. I tried to use The Secret and I think it worked.

I was 16 years old when I first watched The Secret. It seemed really interesting and I tried to use it in real life. I was living in my home country at that time. I really wanted to study and live in USA. The only legal way for me to do that was for me to win the green card lottery. I entered the green card lottery in the fall of 2011. I found a sample picture of a green card. Then I put my picture and personal information on it and I printed it out. I would visualize myself so happy that I won the lottery while I was holding my "handmade" green card. I even made a drawing of myself holding a green card.

In spring of 2013 I checked the green card lottery results and guess what?! I won!! Millions of people around the world participate in the US green card lottery. I really think that this was not a coincidence. I emigrated to the US in the fall of 2013.

I want to say thank you to the people who made this film. The Secret inspired me to think and dream bigger than I ever did before. I hope my story will inspire someone to try learning and using the law of attraction.

I'm a happy single mother and strong believer of The Secret.

I got divorced in 2009. I was in debt taking care of my daughter and had only a low paid job. Two years later I was introduced to The Secret and since then everything changed.

I wrote on my vision board the exact salary I was going to be earning and I ended up getting it. I was always joking with my friends and a family telling them I was a millionaire and that I have millions in my bank account. They would tell me that I was going crazy but I knew it was going to happen for me. I also wanted to show them that when you believe, you achieve.

Guess what?! I actually won a lottery! On the day of the draw I was sure they would call me or email me telling me I won. I actually wrote a formal letter informing me of the win. When the day arrived I was sure I was going to win. Imagine the shock and the surprise on my family and boyfriend's faces when they heard about it.

Thank you Universe, it really, really, really works. Just keep the faith. Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!!

I have always wanted to win the lottery. I always had this vision board of what I would do with the money and how I would help my family and friends and enhance my life. I wrote out two checks to myself, one with USD $1,000,000 and the second with United Arab Emirates Dirham or AED $1,000,000.

Guess what??!!!

Today I won the AED $1,000,000 lottery!!! I am so happy and grateful and I know the next USD $1,000,000 will happen so, too.

Today I got a call from the bank that I had won the bank's 3 months raffle for AED one million!

This totally works! I am a strong believer and I know more is coming soon!

About 5 months ago, I was under a lot of stress at work. Due to a combination of anxiety, depression, physical exhaustion and lack of sleep I made some irreversible and regrettable life decisions. Around this time, I started to really reflect on my past choices and commit to a path of personal growth and self-improvement.

Prior to this year, I hadn't known anything about the Law of Attraction but as I was going through this difficult and challenging time in my life, I began reading books and articles to really understand the powers of the Universe. I started my journey with the Law of Attraction and understanding the powers of the subconscious mind around March 2017. I made a vision board and began doing my positive affirmations on a regular basis.

It has been difficult at times to stay focused on manifesting my goals. At times I have felt my situation was hopeless but through it all, I always try to remain optimistic and have faith that what I ask for, I shall receive.

Fast forward to this past week and I discovered that I won approximately $10,500 in the lottery. That's right! In just under 2 months, I was able to manifest this amount when previously I had never won anything more than about $50. I am filled with such gratitude and blessings. I know that this is a wonderful stepping stone to making my wishes come true.

My ultimate goal is to amass enough wealth and prosperity to make everything on my vision board come true and to help my family and my community and to make a meaningful difference in this world.

I truly believe I manifested this money from spending the last 2 months believing and staying optimistic. I know that I can manifest even more because I have already set in motion the fulfilment of everything on my vision board.

Cannot Even Count All The Blessings.

Blessed, forever learning, applying, self-actualizing, and serving others in a metaphorical and literal way!

I am a person who is utterly blessed in so many ways. So many healings, so many dreams came true, so many miracles, so many manifestations. Crazy manifestations. That is why I will not submit a story here that has everything that I have manifested, but I will share with you one of my two craziest manifestations. One that is so crazy that it might be hard for anyone to believe it. What happened is contrary to what I now know about the law of possibilities, statistics the mathematics. It happened to me, and maybe no one will ever believe it, but I hope at least that The Secret team and Rhonda will be get inspired by it. I have shared this story with a handful of people and I am not sure how many of those people really grasped it or thought I was making it up.

So I was around 14 years old, long before The Secret came in to my hands. I was at my house, in my parents' bedroom, on their bed. My mom was on that bed too, talking on the phone. We had a backgammon game in the house, and many times as a kid I would throw the dice around wishing to bring a desired result. That day though, it was late afternoon in the winter and I clearly remember that I was taking it seriously. As I mentioned, my mom was on the phone on the same bed, and not really paying attention to me.

I held the two dice in my hand as I focused and prayed to God. I prayed really 'hard' if I can use that expression. I concentrated and almost begged for God to show himself to me by giving me the results I asked for when throwing the dice. The 'prayer' lasted a few minutes. I specifically asked, among other things, that if God exists, to let me get a 4 and 6 when I rolled the dice. Then I said "thank you" while exhaling slowly. I was really feeling gratitude in advance, and knowing that I would get what I asked for. Then I threw the dice.

And boom! What I was thinking about came true! I continued the experiment, holding the dice, asking for two specific numbers, and saying thank you. And boom again! That time the 'prayer' was shorter. I threw the dice again in the air. Same thing again. Whatever I asked for, I got. This went on maybe more than 30 times in a row, and I am not exaggerating. I had a peculiar feeling at all this time, like floating, like I was in a cloud. It did not even really surprise me. I was not extremely amazed as it felt almost natural and logical that I got what I wanted. I was throwing the dice up in the air to the ceiling, down around to the floor, the dice were rolling under the bed and the cabinets. Each time I got exactly the two results I wanted. Sometimes I was asking for a different pair of numbers, other times I was sticking to a pair of numbers. Bring me 3 and 3 five times in a row, for example. It all happened without a single miss. I think the probability of this happening had to be close to zero. A mathematician could tell.

I told my mom after she ended the call and after I was tired of throwing the dice around. She was not really understanding the miracle of the thing, not really paying attention. I tried the next day, and some other times too but I didn't believe that it would happen again. I wasn't focused, I didn't really want it, I just couldn't fall into that trance again. Maybe I didn't need it any more. My prayer had already been heard and I had recieved my answer.

I am 37 now but I clearly remember this. I have been through tough things but the miracles that have happened always helped me come back stronger. It is all about the travel, not the destination.

Love to all and thank you to The Secret Team for your service to the world, and to me of course.

Single mom. I have been a drifter/negative thinker for most of my life. The Secret helped me so much!

Wow! I am a believer! First let me tell you guys a little about me, I came across The Secret movie back in 2011 and of course like many people, I desired a lottery win, lol! I started visualizing and seeing myself buying different things for me and my family but nothing broke through. After a few months I quit trying and just went back to work.

I didn't know as much then as I do now and I can honestly say that I am deeply grateful to the Universe for protecting me from winning back then because I was not ready! Ha, first of all I didn't set a specific amount and also I was not being grateful, I was very cynical and negative. So last year in 2016 I lost everything that I obtained "on my own" and I turned back to The Secret around Christmas time but I still wasn't ready to try lottery again so I began visualizing the job that I wanted. I got clear on the pay, distance from my home, what I would be doing, etc. I also wrote down a date by when I would be interviewed and hired.

Three days before the deadline that I wrote down I had my interview and I was hired on the spot! It was the exact pay rate, distance, type of work and everything! Lol, really crazy right? I was blown away! After about 5 months of working at the job, I realized I that I really did intentionally manifest it so I came up with an amount that I wanted to win in the lottery and I thought about it every day, I wrote $100,000. And I won! I really won!

I am so grateful to the Universe and everyone's success stories here, I wavered a few times but reading these articles and keeping just a little faith, I won $100,000 in the lottery! I hope my story helps someone else out as well, thank you all! Love to you guys!

I am the mother of two and have one on the way. I am engaged to a wonderful man who loved me when I had nothing. I published fiction and I am definitely a humble person.

I watched the movie The Secret in 2010 and I started to try to implement it into my life. At that time I was married to a negative person who shot down all my optimism about it. It was not even until this year that I finally did it! I used all the steps properly and I was finally able to secure my dream house, which had been on my list for over a year. Using the law of attraction kept it from being sold but it was not until this year that it finally became mine because I used all the steps and the Universe finally gave it to me. I focused on the house and then I got amazed with a lottery win. I won $5 million dollars! I bought the house and all the furniture that I had on my vision board. I fixed my old truck and also bought a new truck and a new car. I went on a shopping spree for my children. I am planning my wedding and also for the birth of my baby girl.

Out of all the steps, “letting go” was the part that took the longest to master but when I did, I finally won and the sky was the limit! I finally have the security I wanted. I was homeless when I finally got The Secret right. I am engaged to a wonderful man who loved me even when I had nothing. It really changed my life! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I have been living the LOA since 2008. My motto is from Bob Proctor; if you can see it in your mind, you will hold it in your hand!

In April of 2010, I wrote myself a check for $172,500 because at that time, that amount is what I considered to be “not being greedy or selfish”. I focused on that amount for a long time. I won the lottery for many small wins several times but always seemed to miss the ‘big one’. My focus sometimes wavered but I knew that I was going to win the jackpot. I had always made it known to my close friends and family that it was one of my ultimate goals. My husband used to tell me that I need to be realistic or get back to reality.

Well, on August 11, 2013, the night of the Perseid Meteor showers, I told my daughter to come outside and make some wishes with me. That night the jackpot was over $500,000. I grabbed my computer to check my numbers, which was something I never did before, check my at night.

And lo and behold, I had won!! Woo hoo! Three people had won altogether and my portion was for $174,335! My lottery check was $1,835 more than the check I wrote to myself! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Thank you to the Universe and to God. Ask. Believe. Receive.

Thank you Rhonda for The Secret and The Magic. Thank you to all the beautiful people out there who writes their inspirational stories that motivate me whenever I feel low or I have doubts. I am believer of The Secret and I have turned many of my desires into reality by practicing gratitude and visualization.

My story is about my dearest dream, to relocate to the USA along with my husband and daughter and to be working there as software professionals.

So in March, out of nowhere, my office colleague told me that her brother is going to file for a H1B visa through some consultant. I told her that I would also like to file for me and my husband. She gave me the contact number and we spoke with that consultant and he agreed to file our visa application. This was so amazing as we were searching for someone to file but we found no one so this consultant came as magic!

Our names got picked in May in the visa lottery! We have been on cloud nine since then. Now the next step is to get our visa approved and then we all move to the USA. I am keeping up my gratitude practice and the Universe keeps on showing me yellow cars as great signs. I know that beautiful day is coming soon and I will be posting my next story about me and my family's visa approval!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you, Universe!

I am a housewife who has practiced the law of attraction for the past three years.

I first read The Secret about 3 years ago and I had been trying to attract a lottery win ever since then.

My husband had suffered major losses in business and we owed the bank a lot of money. Each day was a day that sent us deeper into debt. Every single day for the past three years I wished to win the lottery for the amount of 1 Crore Indian Rupees, or about $130,000 US. I had taken a print out of The Secret Check and written the amount of 1 Crore Indian Rupees on it and then stuck it on the door of my cupboard. I had won the lottery 5 times during this period but it was always small amounts, below 5000 rupees. I also practiced The Magic practices daily.

I am a person who practices meditation and a few days back I had an intuition regarding some land we owned. My intuition said that the land was unlucky for us and hence to change the ownership of the land. Being a very spiritual person, I convinced my husband to change the ownership of the land and so he did. Just yesterday we finished the registration and on the way back he bought a lottery ticket.

We had totally forgotten to check the results and today in the afternoon and after eating a heavy lunch, I was reading the newspaper. The paper said the winning ticket was from my district! Amused, I checked the ticket my husband had bought. And it was our ticket!!!

We won 1 Crore Indian Rupees! Thank you, thank you, thank you! Thank you to the Universe!

I can not express the feeling of gratitude and relief that is washing over me!! We are financially free now just like I had really felt and visualized so many times!

I thank Rhonda from the bottom of my heart for The Secret and The Magic. I thank every person who wrote their Secret Story on this website. They gave me inspiration and stopped me from giving up.

My request to all of you is to not quit! Keep meditating and follow your intuition. Also, practice The Magic, use visualization, and forgive anyone who hurts you. The teachings of Eckhart Tolle has influenced me a lot and I always try and stay in the present moment. This is not mumbo jumbo. On enquiring about the previous owners of that land, we came to know they were all in debt but once they sold the land they were free. Very hard to believe but a true story. I did it! You can too!

I knew about The Secret several years ago, but I never had the chance to get to know the details. Recently, I have encountered financial difficulties due to the pandemic this year. So, I prayed to hit the lottery to solve my problem. I was able to watch the videos and to read many of The Secret Stories here. I had been doing some meditation for about a week, hoping that I could win the jackpot, which was about $1.5 million, but I would always get distracted as I lacked practice.

However, the Universe got my message somehow. I just found out I have won about $50!!! It is totally out of my expectation, as I never thought I could win this money after such a short period!

I'm 44 years old and a mother of a 10 year old girl. I have been struggling with finances over the past several years despite having a good job. It's just that my attitude towards money and finance wasn't aligned with the law of attraction.

On May 5th, 2022, my life changed a bit when I first opened the mail and saw this envelope that said SickKids Lottery. My initial reaction was it must be my check I sent them to buy the lottery ticket and it has been returned. When I opened the envelope it was a $1,000 check and I was the Daily Cash Prize winner for the April 17, 2022 draw! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Believe it or not, it was exactly around that time I started doing daily affirmations and listened to the manifestation affirmations via a YouTube channel. It said in 21 days you will notice the difference.

However, when I thought back on it, it was really when I first started watching The Secret movie that change my whole approach to money. OMG! The Secret and the law of attraction really work! The intentions that I had set right after I saw The Secret were just right for the frequency of receiving prosperity and abundance. I am forever grateful and I will be donating part of it back to SickKids to show my sincere heartfelt gratitude and appreciation.

Thank you so very much for The Secret. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Maria is a public school librarian in Weston, Colorado. Joseph is a computer technician and network administrator. They manifested each other.

I've always been lucky at sweepstakes and have won about $100,000 worth of sweepstakes winnings over the past 20 years. The biggest and most needed sweepstakes I had won was a 4-wheel drive pickup truck. My husband and I combined manifestation forces to win.

We needed a 4-wheel drive to be able to travel in the challenging Colorado weather. I asked my husband for the desired specifications and then told him we would have the car in a few months. The next day I saw an ad to win the truck of our dreams. We went to the store, bought a canned drink that had a picture of the truck on the side and entered the sweeps. Yes, we won!

We picked the winning car and arrived home just before a big snow storm hit Denver.

Focus, find a visual or mental representation of what you want and practice manifestation. We wish you luck!

Now, we're working on manifesting children. Wish us luck!

28 year old girl who is into Alchemy and Hermeticism.

My high school principal taught us about "The Secret" but never told us that she learned about it from the book. My teacher said it was evil and that he hated it.

After I left high school I decided to start applying The Secret. Within 3 months I got the best job in the Media and Entertainment industry and in the best company without even having a degree. Later I got another job at a promotions company. My job allowed me to travel overseas every year. I also won trips overseas and tickets to see Jay Z and Beyonce in Paris 2014. To MTV VMA 2016. A lovely trip to Italy, to the Global Citizen Mandela 100 concert, the Ultra Music Festival 2020, and so many more concerts. In total, I've seen Beyonce 3 times for free and Jay Z twice. I also got to see celebrities I never thought I would see like Britney Spears, P Diddy, Kim Kardashian, Naomi Campbell, and so many more people. The singers especially are getting older and are less likely to perform so I am lucky I got to see them before Covid happened.

I have also won 88 local sweepstakes and competitions so far. My university education was paid for with a stipend. I have 4 continents with 10 countries under my belt.

There are still so many things that I want that I have resistance to, like having a boyfriend and husband. I have never had a boyfriend yet. I would also like to get my dream job in travel. I also want to have financial independence and to move out of my parents' house. I go back and re-read The Secret whenever I get sad or need a reminder. I know that one day I will come back and tell you guys that I got these three wishes on my list, too.

There are days you will be frustrated but you will bounce back up. Maybe the Universe is preparing you for your wish to be the greatest gift ever.

Guys, I wish I could go into more details about my wishes and dreams and how they came true by 2018 especially after I finally read The Secret.

Update on my principal, a family member hit a windfall and now her kids are well taken care of. My teacher who thought The Secret was evil, sadly has been having hard times ever since I left high school. I can't force him to love The Secret but I can only hope that one day he will change his mind and read it and use it.

As a girl from a 3rd world country, from Soweto, a lot of things had seemed impossible. Especially when you are surrounded by poverty and have no generational wealth. But my story will be the best because some 1st world countries assume that Africa is all a jungle. So I can prove to people that a girl from the jungles of Africa, swung her way into can making dreams come true. Laughs!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

I am a 24 year old woman embracing the abundance around me by using the power of gratitude. A firm believer of the LOA.

I had read most of Rhonda's books but I was not manifesting the "big" things that I wanted. I really thought I knew what gratitude meant! One day I decided to watch The Secret DVD again because I needed spiritual guidance. When I was working I had bought my mother "The Magic" book to help her. I realize that I needed the book myself! Abundance is everywhere, the energy, the surroundings and the place where I stay. People do not know how shifting your frequency changes things.

Every day, I followed the practices in The Magic. I found two apps the "Gratitude Garden" and the "Online Gratitude Journal" to express my blessings further. It should not be a chore! I noticed I felt a lot different than I was feeling before.

James Patterson is a person who inspire me to write. I don't know why, but I went to his website and saw there was a sweepstakes to win a book from him. Of course, I entered! I love to read!

Almost two weeks later, I check my email and I won! Tears were falling from my face. I shared this news with my loved ones. It was my first time winning a prize! I don't think it was pure luck, either. I believe it has something to do with the law of attraction. And having the attitude of gratitude.

Many people have experienced wonderful things because they have faith in the Universe. “You’re getting exactly what you’re feeling about!” You have the power to change your life! No matter what your circumstances you are or where you are from, the key is in your hand. Live the way you want! Imagine all the possibilities because it can happen to you.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for The Secret team, Rhonda Byrne, and for those who are reading this. May you have a blissful and blessed day!

Intention: The Point Of Contact.

I have been manifesting outcomes for many years now. In fact there are many us who have been aware of "how" to set intentions of thought to bring forth the outcome of substance or circumstance. Indeed, many have mastery to this end. I thought it good that I share this truth with all who "have ears to hear".

I shall share with you one of my more recent manifestations. This particular outcome is one of substance, moreover, a new truck.

A couple of months ago my wife had the sudden urge to have a truck, just in case she would ever need to haul something which does come about from time to time. As she sat at the breakfast table looking intently at her laptop computer, I could see the wheels of her mind at work. So, finally I asked, “What are you pondering my dear?” to which she informed me of her desire to have this new truck. “Well then, I shall win you a new truck my dear” and with a great laugh I said, “I can hardly wait to see you driving it.” She then informed me that it must be fit to haul as much weight as a boat and trailer, to which I answered, “Well then, let us choose it to be a four wheel drive, and I say, let it be an off-road capable truck as well.” We both laughed in agreement, her because of the joy of having her request, and I because of the mere thought of seeing her drive such a vehicle as this as she is certainly not the truck-driving type!

So now knowing that action must be put into force, I begin to actively search for a contest with a prize of a new truck. Once I came across this sweepstake on the internet, I entered immediately. From this point I closed my eyes and summoned “joy” from deep within, adding to the visual mental movie that I created, seeing my wife gleefully driving this four wheel drive truck. I added the sense of smelling the new interior and feeling the contour of the truck as I cleaned it with a towel. I completed this visualization by holding a definitive snap-shot image, like a photo, for 20 minutes without losing focus, until this image became a bright light in my mind’s eye. I then proclaimed, “It is done, it is complete!”

Three weeks later I received an email congratulations from the contest sponsor. My wife now drives her 2016 Ford F-150 4X4 off-road edition truck on the weekends, hauling anything she can think of. As for me, I am thankful just to see my lovely wife driving this cool truck. So my story is absolutely true and contains every element anyone would need to manifest their own outcome of intention. Enjoy!

I am a young, married professional who, along with my spouse, has discovered the miracle of The Secret (we call Him God)

I first read The Secret when I was in my early twenties, and quite frankly, I found it to be extremely campy and unrealistic, so I disregarded all the valuable teachings it had to offer. Then, earlier this year, when I found myself feeling stagnant and, well, "stuck" where I was in life, financially (money was tight), spiritually, and emotionally, I picked the book up again, but this time I was WOWED.

I was so overcome with hope and with gratitude in the knowledge that my husband and I had all the power in the world to harness to our advantage, that I immediately shared it with him and asked him to read it. He shared in my excitement as we planned for everything we were to manifest in our lives. We would sit there grinning at each other when we thought about all the marvelous things to come.

I sat down and wrote a list of everything I intended to manifest. I wrote "I am so happy and grateful for my husband to have passed his upcoming exam. I am so happy and grateful for financial wealth and prosperity. I am so happy and grateful for each of our fulfilling and prosperous careers. I am so happy and grateful for that romantic vacation we are taking this winter. I am so happy and grateful for sustained passion in our marriage. I am so happy and grateful for inner peace."

Little by little it happened. First, we received a refund check in the mail from our insurance company. Next, I discovered $1k in savings bonds that I had yet to cash in. Then, my husband passed his very difficult exam. He was able to land a job that had previously seemed out of his reach. We booked our romantic second honeymoon for this winter. And THEN we won a very large sum of money in a sweepstakes that I had entered every day for many months! It all feels so surreal and I pinch myself every day that this is our life.

We truly ARE so happy and grateful for the miracles that have transpired since reading The Secret. Our future is so bright because the possibilities for happiness are absolutely limitless! We are more in love than ever and positively giddy about where our life together has taken us. I feel more centered than I ever have before, which has provided such a sense of peace and joy that I know is unshakable.

The bottom line is that this has all been a miracle because it is not our doing; it is God's doing. We just found a way to allow him to work THROUGH us as we allow ourselves to channel His abundant blessings!

Won it!

Recently, I became particularly interested in this one musical instrument, I wanted it so bad, but its price was out of my reach, but still, I wanted it! So I used The Secret to get what I wanted...

I took out a picture of the instrument and put it in my bedroom. Everyday for several minutes, I would imagine myself playing it, it made me feel happy, it made me smile, it was like it was almost there.

Sometimes, negativity would overcome me, the people around me, the environment, but I would quickly get back on track!

So sometime later, I saw a sweepstake for the instrument (the one I wanted), and I thought, “Yes! This is meant for me! It is mine!” It was a lucky draw, and to my knowledge, more than a hundred other people entered it, but guess who won! ;P

Now I DO have that instrument, and I play it everyday, just the way I imagined it!
Thank you world!

Proof Before I Knew The Secret

Submitted by: Debbie D

CHICAGO, IL

I recently saw and read The Secret and immediately thought of two past events in my life to prove to me that The Secret truly works.

1. When I was 15 years old, I was a huge fan of the Chicago Bulls (it was their prime championship years). I constantly asked and prayed for tickets to a game. I knew very well that there was a years-long waiting list to get tickets, and my parents could not afford any other way to get them. But still, every birthday or Christmas, when asked what I wanted, I said, “Bulls tickets.”

Then one day, about a week after my 16th birthday, I received an envelope in the mail from a major department store, containing a letter saying that I won their sweepstakes drawing. The prize – a pair of Bulls tickets – also contained in the envelope. I NEVER entered myself in a drawing and no-one I told this story to ever owned up to entering my name either. But they were real, and later that month I went to a Bulls game with my mom!

2. More recently, at work in my very fulfilling yet high-stress, demanding job, where I work out in the open and am constantly distracted by surroundings (in a hospital), I thought to myself how wonderful it would be if I had an office. I had actually been thinking about it for about 6 months, and while I knew of no available office space in a convenient location, I still pictured having an office on the 7th floor of the hospital where all the surgeons in my department have their offices.

Three months ago, my jump drive, which I was using for a work-related project, was stolen from my out-in-the-open computer. I thought to myself (but never told anyone), “See, this would have never happened if I had an office. I am going to get an office.” Not long after, one of my supervising surgeons, and the one overseeing the project, presented me with a key – to an office, on the 7th floor, where the surgeons offices are.

Now that I have actually read the book, and I know The Secret, I am so excited to find out what else can happen!

I've been living "The Secret" lifestyle for over 2 years now and love it. It's part of my life. I'm 43 years young and work in retail in Las Vegas

I believe in the vision board so I cut out a picture of a PlayStation 3 video game system and put it on my vision wall. This wall is in my bedroom and above my light switch. Everyday, I visualize playing video games on my PlayStation 3. I said I have it and it was free to me. Last night, I was playing a sweepstakes online and I won a PlayStation 3 video game system. It will arrive to me in 6 to 8 weeks. I smiled so much and was jumping up and down in my apt. I went back to my vision wall and took down the picture of the PlayStation 3. I then looked at the other things I want and know I'm receiving them. I even have my check from the Universe for $100,000.00!

The vision board works! I'm a believer!

I am a fun, joyful, intelligent person who enjoys each day of life with anyone and anything! :)

A couple of weeks after I read The Secret, I wished for more opportunities to obtain things that I desired. Only a few days ago, I found out this sweepstakes Staples was doing, and I checked it out.

Just today I won one of the prizes, and it feels so good! Never doubt The Secret; it does work.

It does exist, AND IT IS MORE POWERFUL THAN YOU THINK. KEEP THE FAITH... KEEP SMILING. :)

I have known about The Secret for a long time, and I have attracted many things by the LOA, for instance college admission, a cup of coffee, and my mom's lost purse. But we all have our ups and downs, and for the past month I was sort of gloomy. I felt like I knew The Secret, and yet I couldn't put it to use. Reading stories on this site always helped, but even that wouldn't cheer me up.

So on the 14th of October, I decided I had to attract something by which my faith will be forever restored. So I sat online for about four hours and searched all sites that would help me win something, I didn't even care if they were movie tickets. I filled in for contests for any given prizes like DVDs, music, books, whatever (mainly on Indian sites because most sites don't post in Indian subcontinents).

After that, I assured myself that I am going to win something, anything. So moving on, I wake up today on 13th of November, and I don't even remember anything about the contests. Soon enough, I get a message on my cellphone that I have won a pearl necklace worth rs.2000 ($44.4), and I'm dumbstruck, wondering if this is a joke from one of my friends to spoil a lovely morning. Well it wasn't!! I actually won it from one of the sites who chose my id in a lucky draw held all over India. Now you tell me it is a coincidence – I have never won a single chocolate in a lucky draw. Wow!!

I just want to tell all those readers who had the patience to read my babble, to have faith. Whatever you have thought is going to manifest in some way or the other, it is up to you to decide whether to make it positive or negative.

And now I remember that just two days ago I had asked the universe to send me some signal, anything, to let me know that The Secret exists.

An extremely lucky girl!

Hello all,

Here's a story that may inspire all Of you out there to dream big and know that nothing is impossible!

There is a well known clothing company here in the UK whose clothes I absolutely adore. A little too pricey but I love the clothes anyway. I often bought a top every once in a few months, and it would positively delight me!

A few months ago, the company were doing this lucky draw thing, where, if you won, you won a £1000 voucher. I entered my details immediately and then sort of forgot all about it. A few days ago, out of the blue I remembered the lucky draw. I hadn't even thought about it but I knew that it had been brought to my attention for a reason.

The winners hadn't been picked yet but I was sure that I was one of the lucky three winners. There wasn't the slightest doubt in my mind that I was going to win the voucher, and oh my god, you have no idea as to how excited I was. I cleared out my closet to make space for the lovely new clothes I was going to hang there. I made space in my shoe cupboard to fit in new shoes and I left one hook on the back of my door for a bag that I was going to hang there. I just knew that I was going to win that voucher. I even went online, looked through all the clothes, bags, and shoes, and chose what I wanted and added them all to the shopping basket. Everything was all set, all I needed was the voucher code to enter and then have all those beautiful things delivered to me. I knew that the code would arrive, I just had to be patient.

I then went about my life. Exercised so that I felt and looked great in my new clothes!!! I planned on how I would get my hair done the next time at the stylist. Looked at accessories I would buy to go with my new outfits. It was all so much of fun and was so exciting!!! It was a feeling of love and excitement that was bubbling over from the inside!

And then... TADA!!!! Three days after I was randomly reminded of the draw, I received an email from the company congratulating me on my win and there was the voucher and its code, in case I wanted to shop online!!!! Was I surprised? Not at all! I KNEW I was going to win the voucher, I loved the clothes that much. I made room for all the beautiful things, thanked God for bringing them to me, and they came to me. I was one of the three lucky people out of maybe a gazzillion people who entered the contest!!!

BELIEVE! That's all you have to do. Everything you love and desire, you will get. Fact.

Love to all,

S.

Won Free Software Adobe CS6

MUMBAI

I am a web designer, using graphics and coding to build websites.

As a Web Designer, I have to use many tools for development of a web page. The cost for tools are very expensive. So normally we are depending a on free trial version or open-source software.

ADOBE is a company that provide very friendly tools to make work easily done. The cost of their software is around 2000$, out of my budget, so I use only the trial version.

My friend asked me to read The Secret book 4 months back. I was inspired and, I also took The Magic book and followed the 28 day course. My close-one started seeing change in me, they all were shocked but happy to see the change in my attitude.

As I told you, ADOBE is a big firm, they do their new software launching by inviting all the people who use their product. They also invited me for ADOBE CS6 launching at Mumbai. We need to fill the registration form before entering the hall. Our group of 5 friend did the same. It was around 6 hrs of show.

After watching new features in CS6, my friend got bored and started to move out to the hall. They asked me, “Are you coming home? Our part of the tools are done.” I asked them, “Stay, we have a lucky draw of ADOBE CS6 coming up, the software cost around 2500$.” They said, “We’re not going to win it.” I said “Not you, but I am going to be a winner of ADOBE CS6.” And they bust out laughing.

At the end of the show they started calling the winners name top 3. In my mind I was using magic tricks and guess what my name was called in 2nd position. On stage I was gifted with ADOBE CS6 MASTER collection. My friends where shocked and quiet.

Now I have License copy of CS6, cost 2500$. Thank you, Rhonda Byrne for sharing The Secret and The Magic. I am sure I have to go a long way using your tricks.

Your wish is my Command – This is come true.

A happy LOA follower!

First of all, I would like to extend my gratitude to The Secret Team for sharing this “secret” with us. It has definitely brought more joy to all those who believe in the power we have within us.

My story is about how I attracted the money and the car I wanted to make me feel good. I summoned to the Universe that I want to win RM 150k so that I can have everything settled off, buy what ever I want to, go where ever I wanted to and live a happy and peaceful life for once. Every moment, day and night, I stay positive, visualize and “feel” as though I have already all that I wanted. I even play “pretend that I got the news of the winnings”. Whenever I have doubts, I quickly remember to switch my thoughts to something that can help me feel happier.

Thanks to all those positive affirmations and the stories that have been shared here, my gratitude journal, and of course The Secret for making my wishes come true.

Yes, I’ve just won RM 500k, more than I ever asked for!

Thanks Mr. Universe!!! It’s not all, and guess what???

I’ve also got the car that I was eyeing for the past 4 months, and the best part is I got the car for free!

YES!!! I win the car from a lucky draw. I’m just feeling like on top of the world!!!

A simple shift of our mind to the positiveness can make wonders! I truly believe that we can have whatever we want only if we are willing to believe in our dreams!

Magic dust on everyone!

A 25 year young woman discovering and learning The Secret

I'll keep this really short. This is my first but i know definitely won't be my last story here.

So I was attending my company's annual Dinner & Dance and there was a lucky draw segment. Even though it was my first time attending it, I silently told myself that I was going to win something that night. I affirmed it every once in a while during the night. And then I just let it go and focus on enjoying myself with my colleagues. I had my eye on the 2nd prize, an ipad and was keen to own it. However, when the lucky draw started, there was the prize of $100 dollars worth of shopping voucher. My thought immediately went "hmmm, wouldn't it be nice to win that and so I can buy something for my friend's 21st birthday the next day." I was cracking my head for the past week wondering just what to purchase for this dear friend.

The minute I finished that thought, my colleague beside me asked what was my draw number and the next thing I heard it being announced while I was reading my number. I had won the shopping vouchers!!! The universe is amazing!! It just knows the best outcome that works for you. Ask, Believe and Receive that's all it is. I wish you all abundance and lots of love!

Just another ordinary 27-year old girl :)

I had just started a new job early last year when a cousin of mine taught me about the law of attraction. I had also read a few pages of The Secret a few years before that, but had never really practiced it.

My job requires me to travel a lot within the city, and I had to get myself a new car.

My cousin, who stays in another state, just happened to be barely 20 minutes away for a couple of months due to his job. I met with him and he shared with me the changes he went through after practicing the law of attraction. Intrigued, I asked him if he could teach me, and he agreed.

During one of our “classes”, we spoke about my short-term goals. One of them was to get a new car. At that point, I came across plenty of Ford Fiestas and I knew I will be driving one by the end of the year. We came up with a tentative time as to when I will be able to save enough for a down-payment, August/September 2013. A couple of weeks after that, he left to his hometown.

I was somewhat obsessed with the plan, and it kept me going. After a while, I got really busy with work and didn't think much about it.

One day, I received a call from a local health/beauty chain store. The lady at the end of the line told me that I had just won a Ford Fiesta in their lucky draw contest.

At first, I thought it was a hoax. I was reassured that it wasn't a prank call and that I was the lucky winner. I couldn't believe it. I always get my supplies from the store without fail (my mother says all the time that it was my second home).

I received a confirmation the following day via e-mail, and attended a prize-giving ceremony on the 17th of July 2013, and received the car on the 8th of August.

I had never won anything in my life prior to that, and to experience this miracle is just totally amazing. I still find it hard to believe that this actually happened to me! Anything is possible if you put your mind to it and focus.

walking since long...but now I am getting there. :-)

I have been reading stories on this site since the day I finished reading The Secret. Somehow just saying Thank You to Rhonda seems insufficient in return of all that she has revealed to me and taught me. But still, big thank you Rhonda for helping me make all the positive changes in my life that have made me a happy woman today!

I now believe that I can manifest anything that I want by believing. It's that simple and just that difficult! I have manifested a lot of small wishes till date but there are two which I would like to share with everybody. There was a family day function hosted by my husband's company where they were holding a lucky draw. I imagined myself and my husband going up on the stage to receive the bumper prize and believed that it is mine! and it happened! We won the bumper prize! I have never been lucky in all these lucky draws! but there! with the help of The Secret, I did it!

It might seem rather insignificant to the readers, but I am sure who have manifested their desires would understand how good it feels when your dreams become reality.

The next thing I really wanted was that a party that my husband and I were hosting to be a grand success. This again might seem silly I guess. But trust me, there were many things that might have spelt disaster for our 1st party as a couple. However, I am extreeeeemly happy to inform you people that my party was a resounding success!! Each and every person present enjoyed themselves a lot and we all had great fun! we danced and sang and ate delicious stuff and had a gala time. People appreciated our efforts and showered praises on our arrangements. I could not figure out how it will all happen! but it happened!

There are soooo many other blessings that I am not sharing here. The ones I shared might not seem all that great to most people, but I simply wanted to share the joy of knowing that yes, The Secret Works!!

So to all those skeptics out there, just a small piece of advice...AskâBelieveâReceive!! ï

I am entrepreneur becoming financially free through my Amway business opportunity by June 12, 2017, which is my 27th birthday. I am positive, excited and motivated to achieve my goals and always put them as a priority.

Story number 1:

As a business owner we have our conferences held every 3 months. In one of the conferences I had a thought in my mind to meet a very special person named Ganesh Shenoy. To tell a little bit about Ganesh, he is a financially free entrepreneur at the age of 28 who helped a number of people to achieve the same all over the world. Generally, meeting him is very difficult because he is like a celebrity in the conference. Fortunately, on the last day of the conference, my mentor invited me to his room. After the visit with my mentor, I was walking along with my mentor towards the elevator. Guess who I saw coming out of the elevator?! Mr. Ganesh Shenoy! I was fired up. Thanks to The Secret.

Story number 2:

We were in the last day of the conference sitting in the top most aisle of the Richmond Coliseum. In our conferences we have a choice to buy tools at the conference to improve our communication skills, etc. I go into the tools section and picked up some material and paid for it at the cash counter. Then I remembered to drop my ticket in the box. I dropped it, came back to my seat, had some snacks and started listening to the speakers. Then I was thinking about the ticket I dropped in the box. I wanted to test The Secret again. I told my team that once they call my name in the draw of the tickets, you guys need to shout.

Once they started picking the lucky draw I remember Rhonda saying that "There is no time delay for the universe if you ask something". Ok let me try. I asked the universe to be picked up for the lottery out of 20 thousand people. I was absolutely sure.

Your guess is right! I was one of the 5 who got picked up for the lottery. Fired up!

Thank you again to The Secret. I am implementing The Secret every second of my life because it is life changing.

Thank you.

True believer of The Secret.

I hope my story will be an inspiration to the readers out there.

It was my company's annual dinner and there was a lucky draw contest. This time, I didn't know why, but my instincts were saying that I might just win tonight. I just had a very weird feeling inside me. I was kind of ready to go up to the stage. As I was sitting, suddenly I looked at my phone and said to myself that I need to change to a new phone this year. I was using a Samsung Galaxy S III MINI. My phone memory was full and was giving me a lot of problems.

It was the second round of the lucky draw. They called a number, but the person whose number was called was not around. Then, they chose another number and the DJ said it's a girl and the number starts with 11. My heart pounded like crazy, and then he read out 1151. I was taken aback for a moment. I was like OMG, are you serious, it's my number! Then he called out again 1151, Lashini. I quickly walked to the red carpet towards the stage. Photographers were taking pictures of me, I was in shock, I didn't know if I was dreaming or it was really happening.

As I walked to the stage the DJ said, "She just won herself an iPhone 6 Plus. Wow!!". The Secret was the only thing that was running in my mind then. Wow, the law of attraction really works. I came downstairs in shock. I was on cloud nine and I was floating in the sky. All my colleagues and bosses congratulated me. Everyone said I was a very lucky girl.

I felt so happy. I had never won any lucky draw before in my life and I never had this kind of miracle happen to be before. There were around 2000 staff attending and 10 different prizes were given away. Among those 10 prizes I got exactly what I wanted the most. I was astonished.

Then I remembered one of the teachers, Mike Dooley from The Secret movie said, the Universe knows the shortest, fastest, quickest and the most harmonious way between you and your dreams. Actually, I won this not because of luck, it was because I wanted it and the Universe just delivered what I asked for.

I began to think back. This is how I actually attracted my iPhone 6 Plus:

1) Ask. I asked for it. I wrote that I wanted to get an iPhone 6 Plus in my New Year's resolutions, even though I found it very expensive because there is nothing too big for the Universe.

2) Believe. I believed that the Universe was responding to me. Every time I saw people with iPhones, I said thank you.

3) Visualization. I kept a Brochure of an iPhone 6 Plus in my vision box. I imagined myself holding an it and looking through those messages that were coming in.

I knew that I would get an iPhone 6 Plus one day, but I didn't know I would get it this fast. I am a happy girl. Thank you Universe. Thank you for everything. Ask, believe, and receive. It really works. Gratitude is the key.

Hello to The Secret family! First of all, I would like to thank Rhonda Byrne and all the other members of her team that shared The Secret with the world. And thank you to all the other people who share their inspiring stories here.

This is not my first story here but I felt like sharing this one. I am a great fan of Coldplay and their music and one day I just wished to attend their concert. I told myself that I do not know when or how, but I will surely attend the concert. I know, like I know, like I really know I am going.

Within few months I got the news that Coldplay is coming to India for the first time! After hearing this, something struck in my mind that I would see them live in front of my eyes. The tickets were expensive and they got sold out within a few days. I did not feel depressed about it because I knew I was going to see them anyhow. I entered the lucky draw for all Action Journeys. And I won! I won not one, but 2 free lucky tickets to the concert! I am so very much excited about it and can not wait to hear and feel their music for real and live..

Thank you Universe, thank you God. Thank you for blessing me and I feel grateful about everything I have. If you are reading this story, I must say that we guys are blessed to know about The Secret so that we can use our mind power to see The Magic before our eyes. I really feel myself aligned with the Universe as I keep on seeing 11:11 many times. And to me that is a good sign from the Universe. From now on you will see 11:11 on the clock too! I will be posting more stories , so watch

Hi All

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you so much to all who take out some time from their lives to write their stories because every day I come on this site and read the stories. This gives me inspiration and faith in the LOA.

I want to get married to my loved one same day and the Universe is doing its work.

Yesterday I asked the Universe to please give me one sign that it's working because my parents were not agreeing to this marriage and I want to get married only with this person.

I was asking for a sign from the Universe and I got the sign! Two days back I went to the shopping mall and there was a person who was asking people to fill out a lucky draw form, I thought, let me try my luck. While I was filling out that form, in my mind I thought that if I get a call for this lucky draw it will be my sing.

And guess what?! Yesterday I got a call and I won a 25,000 voucher!! I was like; Oh my God, it happened!!!! I know now it will work for my marriage too.

So guys, I will write another story as a married woman because I know I will get married to my love and that the Universe is working for me. Those who are reading this story, never doubt on this law. If you have a slight doubt, read the published stories by people who are the live examples of LOA. Have strong faith.

I am a beautiful manifestation of this Universe and hold the Universe within me.

Hi everyone. this is a story for everyone out there who wants to believe in the LOA.

My boyfriend always bought tickets for bingo. For some reason or another, he never won any games. Being a Mariner his sail was just about to end in another 23 days and that was the last day of the game. He told me that he was going for the game. I said nothing to him but simply closed my eyes and made a vision of the situation where he had won and came back to me and was giving me the news. I made a congratulations bouquet and sent it to him even before he returned. When he returned he gave me the news that he won the game!

Well people out there might be thinking it was a mere coincidence, so let me tell you all it was not. He did not win the game. After the game was over the organiser thought of doing something different and made a lucky draw of all the coupons that had not won any game. There were only two chances and he was the second one. I knew he would win that day because I believed in the Universe. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Hi,

Thanks Rhonda for changing my thinking.

I have always been a negative person since my childhood. Complaining, cribbing and never appreciating anything that I had. Because of that I made many wrong decisions and suffered the consequences.

Then one day my brother gave me a book called The Secret.

After I read it I got so excited and slowly I began changing my thinking.

And it really works!

I have achieved many things since then by using The Secret.

Today I won I Lucky Draw, which me and a group friends collected the winnings and then shared. It was not a big amount but the really important thing is that The Secret really works.

I soon will write another story about my big achievement but I wanted to tell you all to keep thinking positive because everything is possible!

Thank you Rhonda. God bless you.

I am a fun loving person, a wife and a mother.

This is the second time it happened with me since last year and it just took a minute for me to guess that it was The Secret!

My husband wanted to gift me a new iPhone 6 a couple of months back and I just refused as I didn't want a new one that time. He kept on insisting but I just refused.

A week ago I had the vibrations of changing my phone and I was confused whether I should ask my husband or not. I wanted to change but still did not tell my husband about it.

To my surprise on Friday evening when we went outside for dinner, my husband told me that he won a lucky draw in the office the same day and got a new iPhone 6 absolutely free!!!

Me and my husband have never won any lucky draw in our life, this is the 1st time it happened with us.

My friend Suruchi introduced me to The Secret about a year back and since then I have been trying to follow it and undoubtedly it has helped me a lot.

Thanks Rhonda for sharing such a wonderful book with all of us.

I am a 2 year old at heart, creating my own magic.

Approximately a week ago I came across this opportunity on a music app to stream music and get a chance to win an iPhone 12. Now, I have never been a huge fan of lucky draws. The last time I won something by luck was when I was 11 years old and I am 22 now, so I am not one of those lucky ones.

I recently re-read The Secret and this time I decided that I am one of those lucky ones and that I won this lucky draw. I just imagined it and then I let it go. I also had visualized with all my heart how it would feel to win and unbox an iPhone 12 as I never had one before. It felt so exciting!

And guess what?! It all came true! I received the confirmation today that I have won the lucky draw. I was stunned. I mean I was just speechless! Thank you, thank you, thank you! I felt so blessed and so full of gratitude. I immediately said, thank you so, so much Universe. Thank you for manifesting this abundance into my life, this wonderful magic! After all, the Universe always says that your wish is my command.

A big thank you to Rhonda and thank you to The Secret team for coming up with The Secret Super App!! And thank you to all you beautiful souls for your stories. I start my day and end it by reading at least one story. It really helps me maintain a gratitude loop. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Gratitude Brought Me Wealth

A banker who always had a great vision to be wealthy.

In just the last 2 weeks I had an appointment in a shopping mall, but while waiting for my friend, I just thought to visit a book store. I saw a book shop appear just around the corner, and the first thing to catch my attention was the mandarin version of “The Secret”. At that time I didn’t decide to buy the book, but just walked through the shop. But before I stepped out, I just grabbed “The Secret” and bought it.

After I had read only a few pages, I was so surprised about the law of attraction. I decided to try it and see whether or not it works.

The next day my fiance and I were going to a wedding exhibition in Mid Valley Shopping Mall. We were doing some survey about the wedding photo shooting package. I realised that we were totally out of budget to have the Hong Kong Trip wedding photo shoot package (which is my most favourite package). After we discussed it, my fiance suggested that we come back the next day to get some extra information before we decided to pay the deposit.

That night I continued to read The Secret until midnight, and I read to a page which talked about visualisation. So, I decided to visualise I got the free wedding photo shoot package and bridal gown before I sleep.

The next morning I kept myself having the feeling of gratitude and appreciation. We went back to the Hong Kong wedding photo booth to pay our deposit, but I only had RM500 at that time. Surprisingly, the promoter only requested for me to pay RM500 – which was my own budget. The next miracle happened – the promoter mentioned that since we have signed up for a package on that day, we were entitled to a lucky draw. Thus, she requested us to stay until 9pm to wait for the lucky draw sessions. I continued to visualise what I wanted at that time.

We waited until the lucky draw session, and I was so shocked and surprised that we get the first prize of the draw – we have got the RM28,000 voucher and hamper, with the free bridal gown and wedding photo shoot voucher, and even got a London Honeymoon Trip. When the time can to get the hamper, my heart kept on saying, “thank you, thank you, thank you to universe.” It is so amazing!

I believe it – it is really working.

You Should Believe In The Secret

I love life and I know that I will manifest everything I desire. I am an entrepreneur.

After having read “The Secret”, I started feeling very good and positive towards life. However I still had my doubts. So I decided that I am going to test it for myself. I started applying the Secret to small, small things and realized that it works.

2 days back I was in a mall and there came a guy who asked me to fill a small coupon that made me eligible for a Lucky Draw for a fully paid vacation. I didn’t want to fill it as I knew that I had never been lucky with things like that. But suddenly I remembered the Secret. I just thought I would again test it. So I started filling in the coupon. And while doing so, I continuously kept telling myself that this time I will surely win.

Then I just forgot about it completely.

Today I got a call from the Company saying that I have won the Holiday package. I am so happy, as even I got an opportunity to post a Success story of my amazing experience with “The Secret”. More than winning the Holiday, I am more excited as my belief in the Secret is firm now. Thank you for making my life so easy and happy.

I wish the Secret team all the very best, and unfathomable gratitude. And everyone who is reading this, please please believe in the Secret. As it always works. Thank you universe.

I'm a single parent, 36 and never married. Well travelled and mostly seem to be in the right place at the right time...

It seems I've always known The Secret. If I think back to my younger years, growing up wasn't easy without money, especially if one has so many interests. At the age of 14 I had 3 jobs which assisted with all teenage expenses like horse riding, clothing, transport etc. Whatever my heart desired – it just came to me.

In my adult years I yearned to travel, so I landed a job that paid commission. With this money I travelled all over the world. A friend called me up to say I should go on this course called ALPHA – about the subconscious level of mind, and how through mind training one could achieve ANYTHING. At the course intro there was a lucky draw for a free course. Well, I tell you I stood up before my name was read – what a feeling! During the course we had to list a Page of Goals to achieve... this I completed within 9 months – my goals were experience-orientated like Sky diving, Scuba diving, Bungee etc. After all that I wished upon a shooting star for the most beautiful child, which was born in 96.

Since then my life took twists and turns, I couldn't settle down, failed relationships, debt. Never say 'It can't get any worse', because it does – it's the LAW.

Then a miracle happened a few months ago. My long time buddy (28 yrs) Penny introduced me to THE SECRET. It all makes sense now. I had been focusing on the Negative and survival, instead of Positive Reinforcement. It hit me like a truck. I felt my mind alter as I started reading the book. It was exhausting trying to control every thought, so when my mind wonders off to the negative I switch to a positive song that plays over and over. Since doing this I have a wonderful Job, New Home, New car. My Universal check says R 1000 000$ (why any Less) which should arrive by end Nov 2007! Thank You to The Secret Team for putting me back on the Path to Happiness...

Manifested gift cards

So I wanted to manifest winning a contest or sweepstakes a couple weeks ago so I was looking at local contests that I could enter and I saw one offering a $50 whataburger gift card about 4 days from then. So I went into the SATS and imagined myself holding a $50 whataburger gift card and feeling really excited about it. I did this four a couple nights in a row. Then came the day of the contest and I heard nothing. No email. Then the day after I heard nothing as well. I was pretty bummed I didn't win and thought maybe I didn't feel it right and moved on. So fast forward to yesterday and my mom texts me that she was cleaning her car and found a letter from my real estate agent which had 3 gift cards. One from whataburger for $25, one from Texas Roadhouse for $50, and one from Starbucks for $25!! I immediately remembered about the contest. This taught me a lesson that I think sometimes we may forget. It's not about the HOW. All we need to do is live in the end and it will come in its own way. I wanted it from a contest, but it came another way. I know it's not the exact amount I pictured, but having two extra gift cards I didn't even imagine for was awesome.

Winning competitions with the law

Success Story

I've experienced great success with competitions. About a year ago I decided, after hearing about someone who followed the LOA to win prizes - that that's what I wanted to do. But I would do it the Neville way by living in the end. When I enter a competition, that evening when I go to sleep I imagine getting an email telling me I've won. This was difficult in the beginning but now is easy to go to - it's so clear for me - and that's what I've found: the more you practice the images, the easier it is to do them until they become a habit. I got so into the image of winning that I didn't really care if I won - because I'd already won in my imagination. Well, the first time I won (on a word search in a magazine) my mind tried to tell me it was a coincidence but since I started I've won 6 other competitions - which is more than I've ever won before deliberately using the law.

Manifesting a $18,000 contest win

Success Story

Hey y'all! I am so happy to be writing this post I really hope this inspires you guys and let's y'all know that we really can manifest any desire we want even if it seems impossible. So a few hours ago I had gotten a call saying that I was the first place winner in this contest I was entered in meaning I won the cash prize of $18,000. This story is way too good not to share. my husband was actually the one who told me I should post this on the NG sub on Reddit so here it is.

Background information I entered into a contest for work a fun little event we do every year and each year the prizes are different I remember last year the prize was a trip to Disneyland but obviously we couldn't do a trip prize or anything considering everything that's going on in the world right now. So this years first place winner prize was $18,000. Keep in mind that there were thousands of people entered in this contest so the odds of winning were very slim. Since a lot of other hospitals surrounding the one that I work at had employees who also entered in it. The contest was 2 weeks long before the winner was announced and when I went home the day I entered my name in the contest I decided that this year I wanted to be the one to win first place since I had never won first place in this contest before and I also wanted other people to win prizes as well who entered.

How I did it When I got home that day I did a scene ONE TIME visualizing and specifically using my hearing senses and in my scene I heard my boss's voice telling me that I had won the contest. I visualized her saying "Congratulations you're the first place winner" to me. I also wanted other people to win things in the contest so I visualized hearing my boss telling them that they had one things too. This scene I did went on for about to minutes and then when I got out of it I lived in the end.

What did I do in the meantime? I dropped the desire and "Wanting" feeling of it. I already had what I wanted so I continued to proceed with my life not stressing or worrying about the contest. I actually forgot about it Lol. I continued living my life and enjoying it fully without feeling anxious or stressful about it because I knew it was mine everything felt so natural and like it was already mine

Anyways y'all this was a quick little post I hope this success story inspired you guys ☐ Manifesting money is my all time favorite thing to manifest and we don't even have to lift a finger it all comes to us so naturally just like any other manifestation. I've had Two "Big" manifestations show up this week. There is no limit you guys, the only limits are the ones that you set for yourselves. us🦄☐ My 5 year daughter actually did a similar thing that I did for a contest she won at school haha so I guess I owe this one all to her haha 😊❤

How I manifested winning a local contest and won 30K! And my experiences & analysis of using 'FEELINGS' to manifest.

Tips & Techniques

I've been keeping track of my manifestations for a short while now and recording details to find what works and what doesn't work for me. I've tried to experiment with multiple techniques and I kept varying it to see if things still worked or not. I thought I'd share my analysis here.

The steps to manifest any desire has been shared on this sub many times. So, I'm keeping this strictly focused on one topic that confuses the most.

If you've read my previous posts, you'll know that I keep saying feeling is what helps manifest. Neville even wrote a book called "feeling is the secret".

But there seems to be a lot of confusion about what feelings actually mean. I've seen a lot of discussion on this and there's one group of people that says it's emotions & there's another group which says it's not emotions, it is mimicking physical sensations to feel an object as real.

So, who's correct? Technically, BOTH!

Let me elaborate, this is how I understand it from my perspective :

These discussions always made me think which one is it? I thought why not reverse engineer known data to find out. So, I started recollecting all my past experiences of how I felt when I received/achieved my desires. I even went about asking everyone I knew to share how they felt when they received their desires.

Yes, they did vary a bit from person to person. But after collecting all the responses, there was a general pattern that emerged.

Feelings as we understand is not as simple as just 'happy' or 'sad'. It's a bit more complicated than that. It sort of follows a few stages. It's always desire specific & there's always a blend of these emotions with variations in magnitude.

1. First Stage: High emotions such as excitement & extreme joy. This is always the shortest stage. It lasts anywhere between a few mins to half an hour. It varies according to people & the situations.
2. Second stage: After the initial stage the mood kind of drops to a milder feeling like being happy. This lasts a bit longer than the 1st stage.
3. Third Stage: In this stage the mood further drops and you reach a place where you feel accomplishment and feelings of relief, thankfulness. You feel relaxed because it's done. This stage lasts for a long time and can be sustained throughout the day.
4. Fourth stage: This is the final stage where you feel nothing about the desire anymore. You don't crave it. Because you just know without a shadow of a doubt that it's yours. Because you feel it real. It's a part of your experience now. It's natural.

Try to think of any past experiences where you managed to achieve your desires Pre-NG. It probably follows the pattern above.

So, seeing this I understood both the groups were actually correct in their own way. It's just that they were talking about different stages.

Let's see what Neville says:

"When I speak of feeling I do not mean emotion, but acceptance of the fact that the desire is fulfilled. Feeling grateful, fulfilled, or thankful, it is easy to say, "Thank You," "Isn't it wonderful!" or "It is finished." When you get into the state of thankfulness, you can either awaken knowing it is done, or fall asleep in the feeling of the wish fulfilled."

But Neville in his book "The law & the promise" has written an entire chapter about "Moods" where there are case studies of people using emotions such as "joy" & "ecstatic" feelings to get their desires.

So, is he contradicting? NO. He's just talking about different stages in both instances. In the first instance he's talking about assuming the 3rd & the 4th stage of feelings. In the chapter moods, he's mostly talking about assuming the 2nd & 3rd stage which eventually leads you to the 4th stage. So, it's all the same!

Now, there are also people who have said imagining specific scenes aren't necessary to manifest. Yes, they are true! You don't need it. Some people are visually strong, some are auditory and some are very good at just getting straight to the feeling. Whatever method you choose, the only way it WILL MANIFEST is if it's accepted by the subconscious mind. And it only understands feelings.

So, why does Neville emphasize so much on imagining specific scenes? It's because he was visually dominant. I come under this category too. I naturally think in terms of images and scenes with no effort, thus I prefer SATs a lot.

How does imagining specific scenes actually help? You are using imagination as a stimulus, a trigger to invoke feelings to trick the subconscious mind into thinking its physically real & its happening now.

And there are people who are just very good at feeling those same things directly without imagining.

So, it's still the same thing but a different approach. See what works the best for you. How have you been naturally thinking so far? Find out. I think there's no JUST ONE approach to manifesting.

Now, coming back to what we were discussing earlier - different stages of feelings - I've tested, tried manifesting using all stages. And I've had varying degrees of success.

Here are a few of my experiences of assuming different stages of feelings -

1. FIRST STAGE : Using High emotions. This is the one I've had the least success with. I'd say I was successful 4 out of 10 times.

OBSERVATION: The human body isn't designed to sustain high emotions for a prolonged period of time. It'll drain you. It craves balance. Imagine you being put in a room where I increase the room temp to either very high or very low temp. You'd be uncomfortable, isn't it? That's the reason I never could replicate it every time. The successes that came with this took only once or twice to imagine accompanied by excitement.

EXPERIENCE : I imagined a specific scene where I received a phone call from an old crush of mine. I imagined the shock and excitement of seeing her phone call. I was immersed in this scene and felt it real. I was only testing it and playing around and I really wasn't trying hard. I did this on a moving bus where I had nothing to do. 4 hrs later, I RECEIVED HER CALL !

This was one of those experiences that literally blew my mind! Why? Because she was never interested in me. I was always the one who used to call her often. And not once did she ever call me. That was years ago. She called me after 4 long years!!! The only call I ever received from her. She said she was asleep and when she got up she had this urge to call me because it had been years! No other reason.

2. SECOND STAGE : I've had decent amount of success with this one. I usually use this to react & reaffirm existing beliefs. I read all my recorded past successes as a feedback mechanism that I'm getting better at it. I feel even happier. I'd say this worked 8 out of 10 times.

OBSERVATION: Feeling happy although works, only lasted for a certain period of time. I used it to react & reaffirm my existing assumptions. Like seeing things I'm blessed with and expressing gratitude.

EXPERIENCE : Every day I make sure I appreciate the little things in my life and when I express gratitude, the thing keeps repeating again in my experience the next day or the next week. For example, I keep thanking for all the free food & gifts I get & I keep getting it over & over again from different sources.

3. THIRD & THE FOURTH STAGE : A combination of these two is where I had the most success with! I'd say it works 10 out of 10 times. And this is what Neville suggested to use as well.

OBSERVATION: Like I mentioned before, the human body requires balance. You can sustain this feeling all day long when you move to a certain 'state'. It's natural and effortless. That's the reason Neville suggests it.

EXPERIENCE :

1. I've mentioned how I got multiple desires just by assuming a single feeling of being 'blessed'. Because it uses the 3rd & the 4th stage effectively. There was no effort. It was just relief and immense thankfulness.
2. The ladder exercise - It uses imagination to mimic the outer reality and eventually, you just go straight to stage 4 & assume that feeling. Where you just felt its existence and you just know it's 'real' & it's there. That's why it works.
3. I tried to imagine a very specific type of prayer bead. I just imagined it in my hand and how it felt. The texture and the surface. Now, I haven't seen one in my experience in over a decade because I'm not religious in the conventional sense. 3 weeks after I imagined it, I got it through a weird bridge of incidents that I never thought was possible. A whole box of it. And it was exactly the same as I imagined.
4. This is one of my recent manifestations. About 3 months ago, my mother told me she was entering a lucky draw, a contest and the winner would be announced after a few months. I took this opportunity to imagine a scene where she came and told me that she had won the money! I saw her smile & heard her voice vividly and felt so thankful at that moment. I felt relief. I did this a few times. And I dropped it. A few days ago my mother came to me and said SHE WON 30k!!. Sure, it's not big money, it's not a million dollars. But it's still a successful manifestation! It was almost exactly the same scene I had imagined. I just smiled & didn't have a great reaction. I guess, I just knew.

I wanted to share more but I don't want to make this too long. So, I'll sum it up. Feelings aren't simple as just being 'happy' or 'sad'. They are complex & there are different stages of feelings. Some experiences make us go through all the stages from 1 to 4. Some make us go through only a few stages (maybe from 2 to 4) and some just make us go straight to the last stage (the 4th stage)

The best that worked for me was assuming the 3rd & the 4th stage of feelings - Feeling the relief that it's already done. This is what Neville recommended the most. And things manifested faster when I had fun with it, when I didn't care about the manifestation itself.

And finally, to solidify your understanding. Remember, that all realities & possibilities exist 'NOW'. All you're actually doing is selecting a reality you want to experience with your mind. Imagine this multiverse as a Supermarket where you get to choose any product you want (any reality) and you go to the billing counter to pay for it (in this case the only method of payment accepted is 'feelings'. So, you pay the price of your chosen reality with corresponding 'feelings'). And what do you do after paying for it? And it's accepted? You just walk out 'knowing' it's done & you've it in your possession.

This was just MY EXPERIENCE. It probably varies from person to person. The approach might vary. But the basics of the law is just the same.

I hope this was a bit detailed & was helpful in some way. I know this was too long, so, thank you for your patience! :)

EDIT : Something struck me after I read the comment from u/TheGangsterPanda.

When someone is doing SATs for a NEW DESIRE, start with stages 1 & 2 and continue it until it wears off. From there on stick to just 3 & 4. Eventually when you reach stage 4. You've done your work. You've reached sabbath.

This is how we naturally think about all our desires from the time of achievement & beyond.

Thanks for the comment u/TheGangsterPanda! :)

How I got each and every desire including 'BIG' desires, manifested using the teachings of Abrahams.

Insight

In the first part, I talk about the story that led me to my first 'Big' Manifestation, a 6 figure job in early 20s. In Second Part, I am explaining the formula that got me consistent, deliberate manifestations learnt from studying Abraham Hicks. In last part, I briefly talk about why I don't use this formula anymore (not what you think) and a few opinions. Please forgive me as this is too long and may contain grammatical mistakes.

This is a story from many years ago.

It all started with when I first got serious about studying LOA, and wrote down a long list of desires that I wanted to Manifest. Each and every desire I wrote down came true in 3.5 years.

As I finally figured out a bit on how to use LOA, things started to come in rapidly. The 'smaller' things. Things that I really desired but were really inconsequential for my life. Free beautiful Kotatsu's (I really really wanted a kotatsu) and got two free kotatsus next year and three more over the next couple years. Grades, opportunities, people, things, phones, laptops etc etc.

But my first biggest desire took 3.5 years to manifest. It was a sum of money that, when I wrote was an 'impossible' sum for me. Another was having a 6 figure job.

Among everything I desired, big money was what I desired most. I used to visualize myself having it everyday, affirmed I had it, prayed to God for it.

Then 3.5 years later, it manifested.

How did my big desires manifested?

When I completely stopped thinking about them.

For months and months I focused upon them and they didn't happen.

At the end, I was angry and frustrated and I just gave up on trying to manifest them. Couldn't make them happen with action because they were far too big for me to even work toward.

I gave up manifesting. I just focused on being happy. I started to meditate regularly just for my mental health. Did gratitude diary everyday. In the morning, wrote the blessings / things I have in my life, in the evening, thanking people I met that day. The purpose of doing the above was that they helped me from falling back in the loop of depression and hate, and greatly prevented me from my suicidal tendencies. I did not do them for the purpose of manifesting.

I started to enjoy life more, went camping often and spending time with people. Cherished the small moments I had and stopped thinking about the great places I ought to be. I started to be happy right where I am.

I had completely forgotten my desire.

So just one fine day, I was invited to a conference. It was four months after I stopped 'manifesting'. I was chilling at the refreshment area. A short brown guy initiated conversation with me. We quickly struck a chord. He was from Bangladesh, I am from India. Living in a foreign country since years perhaps had made me yearn conversations with 'one of my own people'. From small talks we went towards talking about life and the world. We didn't for one bit talk about business or work. I just thought he was an ordinary office worker.

Before parting he forcefully asked me for my resume. I got an interview call in an hour, two days later second interview.

Fourth day, I was invited to Tokyo HQ all expenses paid and there given my first 6 figure job offer. Got a job for which I didn't qualify, and had colleagues in the same role who were 10-15 years older than me. Turned out he was a big Director in the Fortune 500 Company.

Another 'Big' Manifestation:

Long time after that, I wanted a different job. Wanted stuff like even greater pay but remote work and less than 6 working hours. Wrote a list of all my requirements in my desired job. Gave a 2 month resignation notice. Friend in HR said I had lot of paid holidays not yet taken, and I should use them now. 1.5 months of paid vacation before my resignation. I planned a 3 months trip. I was not concerned about a new job at all, as I was burnt out from the corporate life and had lots of savings. So didn't want to and didn't need to work. 1 month later after I gave my resignation, and 1 month before my last 'unemployment date', I got a recruiter contacting me on my half ass LinkedIn profile about a remote job for Google. The job has exactly all the benefits I had written before. There were no long rounds of interviews. Just one written exam and one interview. 3 days later I got an offer letter. I talked with them to set my appointment date 2 months later, when am back from my trip.

Manifestations happened when I reached a State of Fulfillment. When I stopped thinking about their presence, when I stopped worrying, when I stopped thinking if it is here yet. Small things manifested fast because I didn't care enough about them, and was happy even without them.

The first big manifestation took such a long time because I was living in the feeling of ‘not having it’. I was visualizing, affirming and praying from the place of ‘I don’t have it’, doing this stuff would let me have it. Every time I affirmed, I reminded myself I didn’t have it. I lack it. I did not possess satisfaction or fulfillment.

Second job manifestation happened extremely fast and easily because I was in such great fulfillment with my life and was having so much fun, I didn’t care about its presence or absence. I asked, and in the absence of resistance I was instantly given.

This is my Abraham Hick’s method which I consistently documented in the past to have given me consistent manifestation of each and every thing I asked for.

1. Ask what you desire.
2. Inner Being / Source / Universe / God creates it instantly.
3. Receive. You receive it when you achieve vibrational alignment with that desire. In other words when you have achieved the same feeling of fulfillment that you would have, if you already had that thing in your life.

The key is: the momentum to reach that alignment must not come from you, but from the Source / from your inner being. You don’t need to put any more efforts after asking. So no need to ask, visualize or affirm anymore as it would only cause you to subconsciously notice the lack of it, thus creating resistance.

To get that momentum, be in receptive mode / achieve alignment with source. That is done by living in the state of feeling good. Feeling satisfied. Feeling harmonious.

Processes can help achieve that alignment.

15 min simple Meditation twice a day. Rampage of Appreciation. Gratitude Diary. Book of Positive Aspects. Visualizing something unrelated to the desire, but that which makes you joyous. Affirming phrases that make you feel good. Focus on general thoughts that feel good.

Ask and it is Given, contains myriads of helpful processes.

Take one or two processes and make routine to practice them everyday. Regular practice will put you into the receptive mode, make you a feeling good person, make you a satisfied and fulfilled person. Following that, the manifestation of your desires are inevitable.

4. Things you asked for, manifest in the physical realm.

As I mentioned in the very beginning, I do not use this method anymore. It is not because I am unsatisfied with it or that it does not work for me anymore. Actually it’s contrary to that. I am so so thankful to Abrahams and this formula that I continued to get so many amazing great things in my Life, and was able to have the best experiences of my life. Not to mention, I became such a peaceful, calm, satisfied person. I came to the realization I found the sure shot formula to manifest for myself as well as live a good life.

So last couple years I started to seriously study Neville Goddard. I fell in love with his teachings. I got really fast result in manifesting ‘small things’ with his methods of ‘Assuming the state of the wish fulfilled’, ‘Scenes or Lullaby in State Akin to Sleep’. Although the things that I have manifested yet had impossible odds of happening and were miraculous in nature, the scale was still small.

I have not yet deliberately manifested ‘Big’ or ‘Life Changing’ things similar to those that I used to manifest consistently using the methods of Abrahams. Although I have manifested wealth and many other big things, I manifested them unconsciously. They were not written in my manifesting journal. But that makes me even more eager to ‘crack the code’ and find the way that is suitable for me to manifest deliberately, consistently, and precisely.

The end state of both the systems is that you feel fulfilled.

In Abraham’s case you feel fulfilled by meditating and appreciating and feeling good.

In Neville's case you feel fulfilled by assuming the state of the wish fulfilled. By knowing and accepting and feeling that you have already received what you previously desired, even though senses and logic denies it. Living faithfully in that assumption makes that assumption a reality.

The thing with Abraham's method, the way it has worked for me, you have to completely let go of your desire after you have asked once. And following the asking, stop doing anything related to the desire and just do those processes that bring you alignment and the state of feeling good.

Hence, I think it is impossible to use the Neville's Method and Abraham's Method at the same time even though the teachings have almost the exact fundamentals.

I hope to achieve mastery with Neville's ways as I want to manifest without letting go.

I think, it is easier for me to believe that I have it, and be in the state of fulfillment that way compared to totally forgetting about it and letting go.

In conclusion, I hope, whatever method you use, may you all achieve great things in your life, and may you all live a happy fulfilled life, a life full of pride. May you all be proud of where you are, where you are going and what you have achieved.

I Manifested a $10k win from the Charli D'amelio and D'amelio family giveaway!

Success Story

I have been using the law of attraction and practicing consciously manifesting my reality.

Earlier this week i had been going into meditation and practicing the feeling of abundance and receiving a large amount of money.

I imagined what it would feel like if it were true, i imagined and felt that large amounts of money were coming to me inevitably.

I expected it and it happened to manifest faster than i thought it would.

It was also cool that they had shouted me out on the d'amelio family page with about 1 million followers and also charli damelio had shouted me out for winning on her page with over 37 million followers. This stuff is real and it works!

If you want to check it out i posted a video talking about this in more detail.

I manifested a freaking HOUSE yesterday and it's so surreal.

Success story

Myself and everyone around me is floored and shocked about how this all happened. I bought my first house on my own yesterday. I am a homeowner!! I BARELY was able to get a pre-approval last week by finagling finances, had a lender that got creative and still ended up with a less than ideal loan amount but got it nonetheless. Talked to my realtor and was realistic that I was at the bottom budget to even attempt to get in but we decided we would try anyway and hope for the best but will have to be very patient. I was Hopeful that stars would have to align just perfectly for this to happen. I knew it would happen eventually and I felt that. I told her I am prepared for disappointment and will still stay optimistic that the right one will come when it's meant to be and that I am confident in. This house pops up two days later in my ideal location $65k under my budget and it wasn't even a fixer. I sent it to her and drove down the next day. By the time I toured it there were already multiple offers in. I decided to shoot my shot because this is RARE. Why not? The seller got multiple last minute offers after me. I WAS THE ONE THEY CHOSE. I got it. The amount of manifestation and practices I did for this to happen. I just felt it was coming to me deep in my bones somehow and somehow. One week after getting pre-approved the first house I offered on and I got it. By all economic standards I should not have gotten this house. Who gets the first house they put an offer on?!? Let alone one with a weak loan and barely enough money to inch my way in at bottom of the market?? My agent was perplexed on how this all just happened within a week effortlessly. I was receiving signs from the universe and I followed them. Also I just simply believed in myself and trusted fate. I'm still receiving crazy signs today to eliminate any fears or doubts. If I ever doubted LOA, I don't at all now anymore. This is REAL you all!!! Thanks for reading

Success story

"It's just as easy to manifest a castle as a button" - Abraham Hicks

My sister gave me permission to talk about her story. How a bad family situation turned into a beautiful manifestation. First time posting here but I plan on sharing many more of these stories if you like reading them. Please note English is not my first language.

Long story short: our stepmother is a bully. When my father lost a case in court against my mother in 2017, her behaviour got way worse. Gossips about my previous situation (when I was very ill), lies in court about our studies, she turned my sisters bedroom into a dressing room without telling anyone... throwing away all her stuff. For years my sister has been asking my dad to go to Disneyland. Let me tell you, my dad or my 18 years old brother are not interested in fairytales... yet somehow, after they lost the case and needed to pay A LOT of money, my stepmother was still able to convince my dad to go anyway no matter the costs... without my sister. Of course putting those pics online as soon they were there, just to show off and hurt my sister. And sadly, both my father and brother are manipulated and are actually too naive to see what's going on. They really had no clue and would deny anything if you asked them.

Fast forward to 2018.

My sister would love to win a contest. The main prize is a 3 day trip to Disneyland Paris for 4 people during summer of heroes (a special Disney event). Free hotel, free breakfast, free tickets, all-in! I've won many things over the years and decided to help her out and join the contest too. And if one of us wins, the other sister and their partner can come too. I was thinking why I wanted to win. For my sister of course! And I love the thought of spending a weekend with my partner in France.

The result? We didn't win the trip but won 2 smaller prizes instead. But then I also received money from an unexpected source... enough money to spend a romantic weekend with my partner in France. Wow! The Universe was like: "You want to win to spend a weekend in France? Ok we'll let you win -something- and give you cash money for the weekend, ok?" And a few days later, we received that same amount of money AGAIN from unexpected sources, enough for 2 long weekends!

Yes please and thank you Universe!

My sister was disappointed and sad. She wanted to go to Disneyland soooo badly. Me on the other hand, saw the winnings + cash as a 'sign' we are getting warmer and the manifestation is getting very close now.

So that same week I gave her a speech. "Stop being sad sis, keep focusing on Disneyland because you never know there will be another contest or another way to get there!"

1 hour later (!!) the same company announced they are giving away ANOTHER trip to Disneyland. Booyah!! I took the opportunity to teach my sister about LOA & winning even more up till the point it drove her mad haha. If she was sad or angry, I send her articles about letting go of attachment and desperation. When I visited my family, I told her she could only think positive thoughts... and if she couldn't... then simply forget about it! No attachments! Just letting it go!

She was too desperate to win so finally she let it go. No longer thinking about it. Meanwhile I was the one still doing daily affirmations and singing "We're going... to Disneyland! We're going... to Disneyland!"

The synchronicities started. Disney syncs almost on a daily base. And every time I thought... we are getting warmer!! I knew it had to be one of us.

And she won!!!

In 2018 we went to Disneyland Paris with both our partners, for free!

I hope it inspires you to keep up with your manifestation practice... may your life be filled with joy and blessings. :)

I signed up for a contest and won a bunch of free clothes!

Success Story

As of late, I've been thinking about how I want to invest in new clothes and change my wardrobe. Yesterday, a friend of mine sent me a contest on Instagram, where a popular brand was offering to give away a bunch of their clothing to a few lucky winners. In that moment, it felt like perfect timing.

I saw they had half a million followers and that thousands of people had already signed up, yet still, I felt like it was meant to be. I imagined how I would feel when I found out I won, how it'd feel to receive the box in the mail, how the clothes would feel in my hands, and how I'd feel wearing them. I had no idea how I could possibly win, but honestly did not care. I knew the world works in mysterious ways and that even if my name did not get picked, things would work out eventually. At that point, I signed up and immediately brushed it off. I did not bother to check after that or even think about it. About an hour ago, I received a notification asking to send my size and address because I was one of the lucky winners. Almost 14,000 people had signed up and somehow my one little comment was randomly selected. In that moment, I screamed and ran around my house with joy, but deep inside I felt like "I KNEW IT!" That is the craziest feeling that words can't even describe. I just wanted to share this to show that all things are possible and hopefully encourage others to go out and dream big!

A Manifestation Story

Since I was young, I have unknowingly used SAT for manifestation. I hope this post inspires whoever needs it most. I haven't heard of Neville Goddard and SAT (surprise, surprise!), not until last month, but looking back at all the manifestations I did in my life - it all suddenly started making sense. It just clicked.

A couple of months ago, one of my favorite basketball players from overseas had a show in town. I knew that I was going to see him. I felt it. I didn't visualize how it would happen, but I saw myself watching him play near the sidelines and signing my shoes. I joined an online contest for VIP tickets but didn't get them. I couldn't accept it. I knew and believed that I would see him. So I tried looking up tickets but they costed too much and wasn't able to find a good deal. I had tickets for me and my nephew, but they were too far.

Before the night ended, it didn't make sense. I was unable to believe I didn't win the contest, but I still claimed that I would see him.

Next morning, while getting ready for an event, I received messages from a friend I only speak to occasionally. She's a road manager of a celebrity I'm a fan of. She said that they were given VIP tickets as part of an endorsement deal and they wanted me to join them! And it wasn't just any ticket - it was for the front row. It was unreal.

But there was still a question on the shoes - my friend told me they will have a late dinner with this player plus members of his media team. And she will help me get them signed.

But there's another but, the event was cancelled because he didn't feel well. Unable to accept it, I denied that reality by going back to my visualizations prior to sleeping. Again, I constructed the scene in which I was waiting in the hotel lobby, holding out my shoes, player comes in and he signs it. I used how I would feel in that situation to anchor me in the belief that I would get his signature.

Next morning, it happened. People from my social media were either in awe or envy.

I have other stories as well for Uni, career and SP, but this post would be too long. If you've made it this far, some things I'd like to share are:

- Have utmost confidence in what you want to happen.
- Do not feel desperate with the outcome. If you do, you will get disappointed and eventually stop believing.
- Time is a construct. Do not base off the results of others, do not look at how long it took you to manifest as compared to stories here in Reddit. It will happen. It is happening. You are walking your way towards it.

- Feel it. Claim it. There is no question of whether you deserve it or when it will happen. Know that it is yours.

People think I'm just "lucky". Or maybe that's what I want them to think.

I am not into books but I have been consuming Neville's works as audiobooks. But the thought of I AM is very powerful. I hope you believe in that and stop doubting whether his teachings work or not. It does. But it's up to you whether you want it to happen or not.

I won a car from a big giveaway!

Success Story

Obligatory apology for posting on phone, horrible English, yada yada yada...

So here's the story: A few months ago, I was at a local mall, which holds car giveaways (once every few years). The way to enter is to spend $25 and your name will be put in the box thingy (which collects all buyers names who spend above that amount). Well this was around Late May-June when I found about this giveaway. I asked the cashier at the mall "When will this giveaway be announced?" And she replied "August 1st". I spent my $25 and put my paper thing in the huge glass box where the names were collected. I've done groceries every few weeks ever since because of necessity not because of the car necessarily.

Ive always jokingly said "Look, my car!" When we went to the mall or walked past it in general, I've always felt like I would win and had an advantage because of Neville. But it was mostly pretending it was mine and that it was just parked in the mall for convenience.

Well today, August 1st. I got my drivers licence, and took my sister for shopping (in a different mall) to celebrate. I told her "this is the last time I drive this car" (my dads car). And we just laughed about it because she knew I meant that we'd own the car.

I was not waiting but also waiting for the phone call and I, as expected got the call saying I won and the obligatory "congratulations..etc". I of course felt exited but I'm now extremely confident that I trusted my self and knew that I would win.

I don't know how to end this other than a huge thank you to this community for your daily posts and comments which has taught me so much.

TLdr; entered a car giveaway a few times since June-ish. Via assumption and confidence, I was able to win the car today.

Manifested my dad winning the lottery and university acceptance

Success Story nsfw

I have written this story a couple of times waiting on the right moment to post it but something shifted this year. My story begins in 2019 after a very traumatic experience with my SP. like many of you I tried to manifest him back and it completely consumed me. After that i went trough 2 years of complete misery. Financial problems, family problems, depression, anxiety, self doubt, etc. Just a whole mess to the point where i would fantasize about suicide to stop the pain. A couple months ago my anxiety reached a new level and due to being so scared of my suicidal thoughts i decided to stop any meditations, lectures, or anything related to Neville. In some sort of way i always felt that being close to Nevilles lectures, kept me away from being sane and taking care of myself. So that's exactly what i did. I decided to stop EVERYTHING. And it was the best thing that i could've ever done for myself. This was only about a week ago and let me tell you what happened!

So i decided to stop all of my effort and all of my intrusive thoughts meaning no more bad self talk, no more thinking of the negative memories, no more talking down on myself. In only 2 days after stopping everything i got admitted to the school were i didn't really think i would be admitted. In only 5 days later, i found out my biological father won the lottery and i would be getting a big sum of money. In only a couple days i will be able to buy the clothes i want, the products i want, the trips i want. And this is the craziest part! I mentioned that i have had financial issues i would often think how i would get the money and i would even think that my dad might win the lottery and i would get money! 🤔🤔 I've had freaky manifestations in the past but now this is in a whole another level.

Car: Ive needed a car for the longest time and i would imagine having my car parked outside of my house and now i am going to buy a car with that money!

All of my manifestations are going to be fixed because of THAT manifestations.

Now i am going to manifest more things in the shortest amount of time. I cant wait to see what will happen later! 😊

I WON THE LOTTERY 💰💰

Success Story

I WON THE LOTTERY 💰

(I didn't know I needed to wait 24hrs before posting. I wrote this right after I won but left it in my draft until I was able to post)

I'm lost for words but I promised myself I'd post when I won the lottery holy shit.

Throwaway for obvious reasons.

All I can say is that I won a SIGNIFICANT amount oh my god I'm so excited.

I just wanted to say PERSIST PERSIST PERSIST guys!!

Although I had moments of doubt I would say out loud 'that's not true' or 'nope' to counter the negative thought.

I also didn't do SATS the way you 'normally' should. I would just visualise whatever would make me happy before bed because visualising and feeling the same desire over and over is very boring to me, so I just visualised whatever I wanted that put me in a good mood, in a sort of floating state too.

I got myself into the Theta brainwave and right before bed I began to visualise me winning. I visualised myself with my ticket and seeing MY numbers on the screen too and I FELT how it would be to have won it and fell asleep.

Im not going to lie. I had been so frustrated sometimes when I didn't win but I allowed myself to feel those feelings , I let them go and tried again and won.

Holy shit. I'm speechless. I love y'all!!

Edit: Thank you for all the love !!! I've mentioned in the comments after some accuse me of lying and posting the same success story on different accounts? Which is not true. I'm posting my success story (here and the LOA sun) because I feel it's right to let others hear my story and because this subreddit has changed my life and I wanted to give back. Maybe it would help ease those who have doubts or anxieties over their desires not manifesting. <3<3<3

Cynthia believed that she was going to win the Florida state lottery before her 16th birthday and she did [$3.2M]

Success Story

TLDR: Cynthia Hicks believed that she was going to win the Florida state lottery before her 16th birthday and then she won on that exact date (her birthday lol)- 01/28/1989

I just watched an interview on YouTube with Cynthia Hicks (linked below) and decided to share it with you guys because I thought it was awesome. Here's a snippet:

"So we won $3.2 million. The jackpot itself was $9.6M – two other two people were winners too – so that ended up us having $3.2M. It was the original Florida Lotto. Years ago there was only one.

I was 15 years old and I was really wanting a car for my 16th birthday. So 2 months before my 16th birthday I asked my parents 'Hey am I still getting that car for my 16th birthday?' and at that moment my dad says 'No. You're not getting it. I had to go buy something.' So that amount of money was used. My mom trying to calm me down said 'Just calm down.' - because I was 15 years old I was very, very, very upset. I was told for years 'You're going to get a car'. So my feelings were hurt. So she called me and said 'Come in the house.' because we were in the car in the garage, just getting home. We went in the house and she said 'I have a plan. Don't worry. We're going to win the Florida Lottery on your birthday.'. And me being 15 years old.. you believe what your mom says. I had no doubt. So we continued on for 2 months. Right before we went to bed we prayed and then after I would leave my mom's room (after we prayed every night) I would go to my room and get ready to sleep and before I would go to sleep I had this routine myself. It was me visualizing that we won. That's what we did for 2 months including after it got close to my birthday. People would say 'Cynthia, what are you getting for your 16th birthday?' and I said 'Oh, I'm getting a car.' [and they would ask] 'Well how are you gonna do that?' and I said 'We're going to win the Florida Lottery.' They really thought we were crazy or really thought I was. But the level of faith and belief [I had] was out of this world. I didn't care if they didn't believe me because I believed it so much and I think it had something to do with the fact that I was young...and you believe what your parents say.

The night before the drawing, my mother had the lottery slips and she randomly picked the numbers. She had a total of 15 tickets. I watched her – every one of them – she would just...she didn't hesitate, she didn't think about it, it just flowed. So that night of my birthday we actually watched it on the news. We ended up waiting a few minutes to look at the numbers even though we really thought we were on the win. All three of us. My dad, my mom and myself thought we were still going to win but we had an emergency in the community. We had to make sure they were okay. So we came back and she (mom) went through them and it was the 13th ticket that she had picked randomly herself. And that's when...shock...we were so surprised even though we believed it. When the moment hit it was so euphoric! So unreal! It took us probably 30 minutes to calm down. The only reason I calmed down a little bit is my dad felt like he was about to have a heart attack. Anyway, then we had a family meeting and he was like 'Okay..lets calm down. We gotta think about this. You cant just go around telling people we won. We have to be smart about it.' So that was Saturday night. Years ago the only drawing was on one Saturday night. Sunday morning we went to church as normal. I went and I couldn't stand it.. I wanted to tell everybody. I was so excited I was getting my car. I was talking to my cousin before the church service and I said 'Hey guess what? I'm getting that car I've always wanted' she was like 'Yeah right..' and I was like 'You just wait and see'. So the church was finished and we went home. That night we didn't go to church – and we always went to church whenever the doors were open. We went to my grandmother's house. She was the only one we told before we went the next day. So we told her and while we were sitting there Sunday night on her couch we were actually watching the news coverage at the Lil' Champ Store that we bought it from. The next morning at 4 o'clock in the morning we go straight to Tallahassee [to claim the reward].

It was unreal. I had no words for it. We prayed and it was given to us. But the fact that it actually happened like that was amazing. I knew there was more to it but we just couldn't comprehend the big picture."

I WON approx €150,000,- euros!

Success Story

Hi,

So I play the lottery for years. I have always been a winner with different lotto here and there. But always pretty small amounts.

AMAZING WHAT HAPPENED LAST WEEK!

Last week I was playing online lotto, a kind of Keno where you have to choose one or more numbers to win. Lets say you have 9 out of 20 drawn balls, you will win this huge amount of approx 150K!

Basically I used a kind of promo to play the same numbers everyday for 7 days. I have been playing for some days and won small amounts like 3 euros and 15 euros. Wednesday the 18th of this month (last week) I logged in and I saw this huge amount. BIG WINNER! :) So I took a photo with my phone and I saved the page to be sure of everything.

One hour later I checked, with full excitement, my online ticket and yep.. I just won 150,000 euros! 30% goes to the tax, but still a huge huge amount of money.

My method:

I have been on scripting and listening to affirmations (just use your own ones which feels good for you), and I did also sometimes SATS (State Akin To Sleep.) NOTE: I did SATS before bed, but also during the days for sometimes an hour (less/more). When you go to sleep, its also okay to just visualize yourself winning a certain amount and people being happy and congratulating you. And if you cant see this in your visual mind, then just try to hear the sound of your loved ones congratulating you; in example via the phone, hugging you, smiling to you and just hearing their voices is more then enough.

You dont have to fall asleep with this feeling, so its okay if you do it before you go to bed and then just falling asleep. I began with my succesful SATS 16th of January 2022 (last year) and I saw my winning numbers in my dream!! One of them: number 7.

Goodluck everybody and this is not only a post to encourage you, but its 1000% real and it was pretty surreal until I received this huge amount in my bankaccount. :) The feeling is greater then when you are visualizing it! I can tell you.

BTW: a huge thanks to the followers of LOA/Law of assumption, attraction etc. Something I also did and still do is reading positive results from other redditors/forums, videos etc.

YOU ARE THE WINNER! Much love.

NOTE: I see some reactions from pessimistic readers; if you don't believe me cause "Not showing "proof", then it's not my problem but yours, really!" If I wrote this to empower myself, I could do so in the sense of making a video or writing my goals in a book i.e. And yes, its still surreal, its still a shocking experience for me (in a positive sense), but if I dont show "proof", it doesn't mean its fake. Period. I try to empower y'all as thanks since I read many stories before I won, and STILL do I. It doesn't make any sense to lie about winning something.

Player Credits Power of Prayer and Visualization For $38 Million SuperLotto Plus Jackpot Win!

SACRAMENTO – To say William Walgamuth is a believer is an understatement. The California Lottery just declared Walgamuth the winner of a $38 million SuperLotto Plus® jackpot! He bought his ticket in Santa Clarita (Los Angeles County) for the drawing held on November 27, 2021. Although his win is new, it appears it was a long time coming. “I always knew I would win,” he explained. “I even have a post-it on my computer reminding me to visualize sitting at my table making a list of what I would do once I won the Lottery.” Walgamuth tells the Lottery the note has been there for years! The retiree started his winning weekend like many others, prayer journaling like he and his wife do every morning. Then he went to his neighborhood store and bought nine SuperLotto Plus Quick Pick® tickets. He didn't even realize he'd won until the next day. "This is a wonderful gift, and this win is all about family. I want to take care of my family, my wife and kids," Walgamuth said. "We had been feeling like it was coming soon, and here it is!" The store where Walgamuth bought his ticket, Plum Canyon Shell, receives a $190,000 bonus for selling the winning ticket.
